O. Schlaifer of 412 South Tenth street was at Seventeenth and Dodge streets early Sunday morning, when he attempted to cross the street in front of a buggy. One of the occupants yelled, "Get out of the way or we'll run over you," to which Schlaifer replied that he would get out when he got ready. Hot words ensued, which finally resulted in a severe heating for Schlaifer. R. C. Patterson and Paul Klatt, the occupants of the buggy, alighted and took turns in pounding the unfortunate pedestrian, whose cries for help aroused the neighborhood. Schlaifer was badly brilised, though not seriously injured. Patterson and Klatt were arrested by Patrolmen Sullivan and Edgehill. Schlaifer Badly Benten.
