Decisions by Judge Smith. In the district court yesterday Judge Smith handed down his decision in the the chairman of the streets and alleys comsuit of the East Omaha Land company against Jens Hansen and others, finding for the plaintiff company. The suit involved the title of about $30,000 worth of land in Cut Off, which the East Omaha Land company claimed on the grounds that It was accretions to the original adjoining lots. The defendants, who had squatted on the land, claimed possession on the grounds that it is a government island between two channels of the river. About fourteen acres are involved in the suit, which will be taken up on appeal to the supreme court.

Judge Smith also handed down his decision in the case of Ole Rasmussen against the Eastern Loan and Building association of Syracuse, N. Y., finding for the plaintiff. The suit was to recover on matured stock. A motion on behalf of the defendant was filed for a new trial. In the case of Chris Miller against Sher-

mittee. Park Board Matters.

The Board of Park Commissioners held a special called meeting yesterday afternoon, at which the contract between the board and the motor company relative to the removal of the dirt now encumbering the entrance to Fairmount park was approved and signed. By the terms of the contract the motor company will remove sufficient of the dirt on the east side of the cut to enable it to reach the tracks, while the commissioners will remove sufficient of the earth on the other half to make a driveway into the park. The contract further provides that the motor company shall take care of the embankment on its side and the park board of the embankment on the opposite side.

The motor company had given the contract for removing its portion of the dirt to Wickham Bros., but work was delayed until the contract between the company and the board was approved and signed. It was stated at the meeting yesterday afternoon that the work of removing the dirt will be commenced at once, so that the company will be enabled to run its cars into the park by Sunday next.

The board agreed to lease to E. Wickham for a term of ten years a portion of the police force.
