Schmidt Knocked Out and Kane Given Even Rougher Treatment by the Rourke Family During the Engagement.

Two of George Tebeau's pitchers, Schmidt and Kane, were touched up by the Colts Thursday afternoon for a collection of hits that made them feel ashamed of themselves and their feeling was shared by every man jack of the Denver aggregation from George Tebeau down through the entire lot.

Earned runs: Pittsburg, 1; Cincinnati, 1. Three-base hit: Barrett, Stolen bases; Corcoran, 2. Double plays: Quinn to Beckley, McBride to Pettz to Corcoran. First base on balls: 169, Scott, 1. Hit by pitched ball; Ely Struck out: By Leever, 10; by Umpire: Snyder. Tebeau down through the entire lot.

After the first inning, which had inaugurated a game that promised to be full of snap and ginger, was finished the Omahas

never been seen in the Vinton street res-After the first inning, which had inervation. Schmidt was bumped for six clean hits and then Ikey Kane was trotted forth, but he was small improvement, and before the inning was ended fifteen of the Colts had faced the double-headed pitching staff and the total of eight hits and three bases on balls netted ton runs. The game was won right there and from that time on was ervation. Schmidt was bumped for six clean won right there and from that time on was run on a freight train schedule.

The visitors played listlessly and realized that they were up against the real thing. They found "Dusty" Coons, the pitcher opposed to them, an enigmatical proposition when a safe hit was longed for. "Dusty" pitched an excellent game and at critical times was invincible. Kane, who did the bigger part of the pitching for the visitors, reminded the spectators of Coons. He was so different. After that second inning it was a cakewalk for the locals, with Ikey Kane leading the orchestra, and the crowd of rooters enjoyed to the limit the discomfiture of the Denver topnotchers.

"Muddy" Zink, a big, strapping player, who has been recruited from the central league, where he played with Terre Haute, made his initial appearance on first base and covered it like a veteran. His stick work was also superfine and the reception accorded him was a most enthusiastic one. In the shakeup Britan are superfined as the first fifth and seventh. Attendance, 2,300. ROSTON. "Muddy" Zink, a big, strapping player, , and covered it like a veteran. His stick In the shakeup Baird was switched around to third and did excellent work. But for that matter all of the Colts played a crackerjack game, putting up an article of ball that couldn't help but win. The score: OMAHA.
