After coming to Council Bluffs Mr. Clausen started a little grocery on the corner where the Ogden house now stands. Then in partnership with Peter Weis he erected the block now occupied by the Zoller grocery and there for thirty years he engaged in the grocery business. A few years ago he engaged in the implement business on South Main street and also conducted a branch at Carson, la. For thirty-one years he had been the agent for this vicinity for the McCormick Harvester company.

In 1878 Mr. Clausen was elected city treasurer and served one year. In 1882 he was again elected to this office and was reelected three successive terms. After that he served one term as county auditor and was also a member of the school board for several years.
