THRILLING TALE OF THIEVING BOYS

Lads Lay Low in Mr. Krauss' Melon Patch and Get Away with His Choicest Fruit.

"Say, what does it give if I stashes you to a hot one?" asked Tim Omsby.

"That depends," was the guarded answer of the Bee man.

"Does it give all that? Sure you ain't robbin' yourself, now, pard, well, you see, it's like this: I'm hangin' around the booby hatch here with nothin' to do between feeds."

"Well, what is your story?" "It goes like this: A guy comes in here today and lets out a roar because kids is stealin' his watermelon."

"The six men mentioned are Bert Bunson, John McConnell, H. E. Watson, George Moore, Charles Abraham and John Kennedy."

"Down the creek about a block is more kids. They takes out the big, fine specimens of coon's ambrosia as they floats down."

"Was Krauss given warrants for the arrest of the boys?" Tim was asked.

"Did he swear out a complaint against them?" "Aw, wats' eatin' of 'em? S'poken he did! Eye reckon kids will heads on 'em long's a churn is going to stand around waitin' to be pinched?"

CHANCE TO RECIPROCATE

Excursion to Seward Will Give Omaha Business Men an Opportunity to Return a Courtesy.

Omaha business men who appreciate the importance to the commercial interests of the city of making a complete success out of the proposed excursion Wednesday to the county fair at Seward must interest themselves in forwarding the sale of tickets if the venture is to prove successful.

The impression is that there must be a crowd of several hundred if the excursion meets the expectations of its promoters in Omaha and the expectant people of Seward.

The business men of Seward manifested their friendship for Omaha last Monday evening by sending a large delegation to the Ak-Sar-Ben weekly festivities, at which time a compact of neighborly courtesy was formed, and the Omaha part of that compact must be fulfilled, if at all this year, by sending a large company of pleasure seekers to partake of the enjoyments of Omaha day at the county fair which will be held today in Seward.

The excursion will leave the Webster street depot at 8 o'clock or thereabouts Wednesday morning and arrive at Seward shortly before noon. A special program of interest to people of this city will be enacted at the fair, including a number of splendid races.

The grounds are located in a magnificent natural park overlooking the Blue river, the prettiest stream in Nebraska, and every effort has been made for the comfort and entertainment of the throngs expected. Returning to Omaha the excursionists will leave Seward at 7 o'clock and reach this city shortly after 10 p. m. The fare is $1.50 for the round trip.

Tickets may be secured upon application to Secretary of the Commercial club or at the depot on the morning of departure, but all who intend to go should notify Mr. Utt at once. Any citizen is at liberty to take advantage of this opportunity to enjoy a pleasant outing and cement the commercial and social relations of the two cities. Now that it has been determined to send an excursion to Seward, it will not do to have it other than an enthusiastic and largely attended one. Business men who find it impossible to attend personally are asked to send suitable representatives.

SHERIFF WANTS VAGRANTS

Practice of Holding Them at City Jail Deprives Him of Fees for Feeding Them.

The unusually large number of arraignments (thirty-eight) in police court yesterday morning brought up the question as to how the prisoners should be apportioned as between the city and county jails. Attorney W. S. Showmaker maintained that all vagrants of a certain class should go to the county jail and that the practice which has obtained of sending them to the city jail is but a scheme to cheat the sheriff of his fees for feeding them.

The vagrant complaint blanks in use here," said he, "are all under the state law and not according to the city ordinance, which says that a man is not a vagrant unless he has loafed around town ten days. The state law does not contain the ten-day clause. Now, here we have six hobo's arrested in a box car. They had just come into town and hadn't been here an hour. Clearly this raid was made under the state law and so the men should have been sent to the county jail."

The six men mentioned are Bert Bunson, John McConnell, H. E. Watson, George Moore, Charles Abraham and John Kennedy, who early yesterday were loaded into the patrol wagon from a Union Pacific box car and charged with vagrancy. Having pleaded guilty in police court they were sentenced to "ten days in jail," which jail not being specified. Later they were placed in the city holdover.

The city jail yesterday contained eighty prisoners, the largest number that has been in the "bitch" at any one time this summer. E. N. Dabarsch, who has the contract for feeding them, served seventy-seven breakfasts. Sunday he served 151 meals, for which he received 8.9 cents each.

A Minister's Good Work. "I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan.

"My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week; had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said 'No.' I went home and bought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not get relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried."

MANY SEEKING CONCESSIONS

Long List of Attractions is Assured for Ak-Sar-Ben Festivities.

MIDWAY IS SURE TO BE A HUMMER

Management Will Also Offer a Great Number of Free Shows Which Will Be Seen Daily.

There is no longer the slightest room for doubt that the midway being assembled for the great Ak-Sar-Ben week oriental carnival will be a veritable hummer, as the headquarters at 1308 Harney street has been visited during the past week by a bewildering number of privilege men and concessionaires, many of whom have been awarded concessions and have inaugurated preparations for exhibiting their wares.

Among the contracts let is one for the production of the Passion Play in moving pictures. This is Edison's wonderful and magnificent reproduction of the famous Oberammergau sacred ceremonial, illustrating the life of Christ, taken from the most recent production of the piece at its Bavarian birthplace, where it was rendered with a cast including impersonations of Christ, His disciples, Herod, Pilate and many other characters of note in sacred history, together with an army of 500 Roman soldiers and citizens. Another attraction which promises to prove of interest is Black America, portraying the evolution of the negro from the slave to the citizen of today. There will be the inevitable palace of illusions, the feature of which will be "Tarantula," the half woman and half spider, whose manager holds strong financial inducements to any swain in search of a wife who will bring to him a wealth of affection and a substantial dowry. Bounce, the Australian snake eater, will live, eat and sleep in a den of poisonous reptiles, and upon whom their sting seem to have no effect whatever. There will be a German Village, with a host of rattling girls and clever vaudeville specialists, the Gypsy Camp, Electric Theater, Streets of India, Old Llanlan, Temple of Mesmerism, Wild Animal show, Hi-Ki, the Philippine wild girl; Kialana, the Honolulu seeress, and Lunette, the flying lady of the exposition midway.

As free attractions the management offers a large and interesting variety, among them being the famous St. Bemis' aerial act, Prof. George Rice's troupe of educated pigs, Meham's dog and monkey comedy, Gus Ryan's thrilling ride for life, Old St. Perkins, the mid-time fiddlers' contest, and Obrecht's Bavarian juvenile band. These will all appear at intervals during each day in the arena or other points of advantage on the carnival grounds.

There will be other free attractions, among which will be the public wedding, cakewalk contest, old-time fiddlers' contest, fire drills, fraternal drill contests and life-saving exhibitions. Spielers' day on the Midway will be a notable event, when well known Omaha citizens will harangue the crowds as ballyhoo.

The contract for the erection of the booths has been let and a specimen booth with a section of the fence, will be put in at once on the grounds selected.

HOLD SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Colored Masons of Missouri and Nebraska Have Interesting Session of Their Grand Lodge.

T. P. Mahamitt, city inspector of weights and measures, has returned from Sedalia, Mo., where he attended the grand lodge meeting of the colored Masons of Missouri and Nebraska. More than 200 delegates attended the meeting, which was one of the most successful ever held.

A. R. Chiles of Glasgow, Mo., was elected grand master to succeed E. Petham of Hannibal, who retired after sixteen years of continuous service in that office. Hannibal was selected as the location for the grand lodge meeting of next year.

The sedalia meeting lasted one week and was held in the court house. Mayor Crawford welcomed the Masons to the city and M. O. Ricketts of Omaha made the response. The other delegates from Omaha were E. R. Overall and R. B. Rhodes.

UNIONS WILL GO VISITING

Labor Day to Be Unobserved in Omaha This Year.

LETTER CARRIERS TO HAVE PICNIC

Other Organizations Will Participate in Celebrations in South Omaha and Council Bluffs.

For the first time in several years Omaha labor unions will not celebrate Labor Day by any festivities of their own preparation. From year to year the unions of Council Bluffs and South Omaha have joined the local unions and this year it was decided by the Central Labor union and its affiliated bodies that the Omaha organizations would be the guests of the central union of one of the other towns in 1900.

As soon as this was announced both Council Bluffs and South Omaha put on foot arrangements for picnics and public speaking, contests and parades. Both had completed their arrangements before they learned that the other town expected to celebrate and the result is that the labor unions of Omaha have invitations to attend both celebrations.

At the last meeting of the Central Labor union it was decided to accept neither, but to let the local unions determine where they would go. Many of the locals have decided to take no formal action, but to leave the matter in the hands of the members. The Typographical union will join South Omaha, the bricklayers will go to Council Bluffs and other unions will decide this week.

The letter carriers have received permission from Washington to hold a picnic on that day and have decided upon Courtyard Beach as the place. The chairman of the carriers' committee says that the beach will be arranged for that day and that the car service from the city will be adequate to handle the crowd in good shape. This picnic will be attended by many of the Omaha workmen, but does not intend to enter the competition between the organization of the other cities.
