

POLICY AS TO CHINA

Cabinet Holds All-Day Session Discussing Eastern Situation.

DIPLOMATIC PHASE RECEIVES ATTENTION

Time Has Come for Expression of Intention by All the Leading Powers.

UNITED STATES AGAINST PARTITION

Germany, Too, is Against Dismemberment According to Note of July 12.

ITALY IS NON-COMMITTAL IN EXPRESSION

Washington is Ready to Accept Earl Li's Credentials as Kwang Su's Peace Envoy, but Other Capitals Take Different View.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—A special meeting of the cabinet, lasting all day and only broken up by a short recess for luncheon, shows the intense interest the administration feels in the Chinese situation. It was the longest cabinet meeting of the present administration. The diplomatic and not the military phase of the situation in China was under consideration and this accounted for the presence of Acting Secretary Adee, an unusual happening at a cabinet meeting. Mr. Adee is the medium through which the foreign governments have communicated recently with the United States. Mr. Adee is the medium through which the United States has communicated with the foreign governments. Mr. Adee is the medium through which the United States has communicated with the foreign governments.

The fact that the military situation is identified to be of secondary importance confirms the view, though no cabinet officer would vouchsafe information to point at that. What is sought is an agreement among the powers for terminating the present status of affairs in China. It is believed that the point has been reached where it is proper that there should be a clear expression of purpose on the part of the principal powers in order that the United States government may know how far it may go consistently in the execution of the common program. Most of the objects had in view by the United States are in the nature of a peace program. The Chinese government's appeal and began the campaign upon Peking have been achieved. Two others remain to be secured, namely, the safeguarding of American interests in the future and for indemnification for the operations of the Chinese government.

Several Phases to Problem.—Incidental to this main purpose several phases of the problem are attracting special attention. These are the question of Li Hung Chang's credentials as peace envoy, or rather of the ability of the emperor of China to accredit any one thus, is a matter of international consideration. The United States not only must satisfy itself of Li's competency, but it must convince some of the powers, the purpose of which, perhaps, would not be served by a speedy termination of hostilities in China. It was the general understanding that the outcome of today's cabinet meeting would be the opening of a policy by the administration that would tend to simplify these issues and at least bring to a focus the varying aspirations of the powers. If this cannot be done the question is determined whether or not the United States shall proceed further, in hand with the military force. It is believed that this point is very near a decision, the determination of the United States depending upon the responses made by European nations to our inquiries.

REFUGEES ENTICED TO DEATH.—YU, Governor of Shensi, Massacres Fifty Foreigners Invited to Come to Him for Protection.

PLOT TO BURN SHANGHAI.—Europeans Are Said to Consider It Dangerous to Walk on Streets After Nightfall.

BANDITS DESCEND ON CANTON.—Chinese Outlaws Enter the Tartar City and Loot Houses of Hated Northerners.

TIENTSIN QUIET ONCE MORE.—Force of Russians Numbering 1,000 Leave for Captured Chinese.

WILL HOLD TIGHT TO AMOY.—Report Comes That Japan Sends Reinforcements of 12,000 Men from Formosa.

Japanese Pushing Forward.—BERLIN, Aug. 29.—According to a dispatch received here from Tien Tsin, Japanese forces are understood to be now on their way from Taku to Pao Ting Pu (capital of the province of Chi Li), with the direct object of occupying the latter place.

CHINA IS WITHOUT A HEAD

Emperor is a Fugitive and Powerless to Make Terms of Peace.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The latest phase of the diplomatic tangle with the powers interested in China is the abandonment of objection to the form of Li Hung Chang's credentials. At least it may be said that these objections have been suspended for the time being. The point of attack on the part of the powers which are opposing the recognition of Li Hung Chang as plenipotentiary is now the authority of the titular Chinese government to issue any credentials worthy of recognition. In other words, admitting that Li's credentials were properly issued by Emperor Kwang Su, the contention is that that monarch, being a fugitive and powerless, cannot by himself or through his agent, Li Hung Chang, enter into any engagement or give any guarantee which the Chinese people as a whole will accept as binding. This subject is now receiving the careful attention of the Department of State.

FRENCH SAY NEWS IS NOT OLD.—Believe that Dispatch Saying Li Hung Chang is Detained is True.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The officials of the ministry of marine here were shown today the dispatch from Washington in which it is declared that the opinion prevails there that the dispatch from Admiral Courjejoie announcing the intention of the admirals to detain Li Hung Chang until the admiral has consented to open negotiations with the Chinese referred to a situation which existed some time ago, when Li Hung Chang announced his intention of starting north. The French officials declare the news is not old and that there is no question as to the correctness of the wording of the dispatch, but they add that they themselves are unable to say from the dispatch what is the present position of Li Hung Chang, whether he is detained on board ship or whether the admiral intend to detain him when he arrives at Taku.

ENGLAND NOT FOR PARTITION.—Under Secretary of State Broderick Declares in Effect for Continuation of Chinese Autonomy.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—William St. John Broderick, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, speaking this evening at the Chamber of Commerce, declared that the United Kingdom is not in favor of partitioning China. He said that the United Kingdom is not in favor of partitioning China. He said that the United Kingdom is not in favor of partitioning China. He said that the United Kingdom is not in favor of partitioning China.

PRASE PRUDENCE OF CHAFFEE.—Preparations for Winter in China Set Back London as a Wise Precaution.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The afternoon papers doubt that the rumors of peace negotiations are well founded and applaud General Chaffee's prudence in preparing for winter campaign, as they regard the activity of the allies at Peking and the difficulty of discovering a responsible Chinaman with whom to treat, unless Li Hung Chang is able to place himself in communication with the fugitive emperor. Credentials satisfactory to all the powers, as indications that the solution of the problem will be more prolonged and more difficult than previously hoped.

Plot to Burn Shanghai.—Europeans Are Said to Consider It Dangerous to Walk on Streets After Nightfall.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The Frankfort Zeitung has received a dispatch from Shanghai saying a plot has been discovered there to burn the whole city. It is added that the Europeans consider the streets unsafe after nightfall and the general situation is described as critical.

BANDITS DESCEND ON CANTON.—Chinese Outlaws Enter the Tartar City and Loot Houses of Hated Northerners.

TIENTSIN QUIET ONCE MORE.—Force of Russians Numbering 1,000 Leave for Captured Chinese.

WILL HOLD TIGHT TO AMOY.—Report Comes That Japan Sends Reinforcements of 12,000 Men from Formosa.

Japanese Pushing Forward.—BERLIN, Aug. 29.—According to a dispatch received here from Tien Tsin, Japanese forces are understood to be now on their way from Taku to Pao Ting Pu (capital of the province of Chi Li), with the direct object of occupying the latter place.

BRESCI GETS LIFE SENTENCE

Assassin of King Humbert Tried and Convicted in One Short Day.

IS ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

When Asked What He Had to Say Before Sentence Prisoner Expressed Indifference, Saying He Awaits the Next Revolution.

MILAN, Aug. 29.—Bresci, at the close of the trial, was pronounced guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

MILAN, Aug. 29.—The trial of Bresci, the anarchist who on July 29 shot and killed King Humbert of Italy at Monza while his majesty was returning from a gymnastic exhibition, opened here today. An immense crowd of people gathered about the court from early morning seeking admission to the court room where only a few places were reserved for the ticket holding public.

MUST MAKE UP NEW SLATE.—President Romann's Cabinet Goes Back on Him and Now He is Looking for Advisors.

LIMA, Peru, via Galveston, Aug. 29.—Late last evening, after the consultation of the proposed new cabinet had been officially gazetted, as called to the Associated Press, events occurred which completely upset the coalition ministry.

COAL FAMINE IN GERMANY.—Prussian Cabinet Decides to Grant Modified Tariff so as to Facilitate Importation.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The coal famine in Germany has become very serious and a number of chambers of commerce have petitioned the government for relief.

FLAME READY TO BURST OUT.—Roumania Withdraws Its Envoy from Bulgaria and King Ferdinand Threatens to Resign.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—As a result of the friction of Roumania and Bulgaria over the latter's delay in complying with the demands of the former for the suppression of the Macedonian revolutionary committee in Bulgaria, the situation is becoming increasingly tense.

CHAZRAYS HE HATES WAR.—Boers Are Advised to Make Peace and So End Their Troubles in Transvaal.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—"Dr. Leyds' interview with Emperor Nicholas," says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from St. Petersburg, "lasted barely five minutes. The czar said he was sorry he could do nothing for the Transvaal except to urge it to make peace, as he hated all war."

Maso Looks Higher.—BAYAMO, Province of Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 29.—At Manzanillo yesterday General Bartolome Maso declined the nomination for a delegate to the convention, in spite of the great pressure brought to bear on him, claiming that it would identify him with some political party and that his acceptance would defeat his ambitions for the presidential nomination, to which he aspires.

Men of Burned Bark Missing.—LONDON, Aug. 29.—The British bark Primera, 597 tons, Captain Soren, which left London May 31 for Cape Cross, and was spoken June 11 near latitude 38 north, longitude 13 west, was burned August 4 near latitude 38 south, longitude 38 west. One of the crew is reported to have been rescued, but the rest of the crew and the bark are missing.

Duke of Manchester a Bankrupt.—LONDON, Aug. 29.—The duke of Manchester was today adjudicated a bankrupt, entailing his resignation from all his clubs. The petitions to the bankruptcy court included one from the young nobleman himself, whose acquaintances are so widely distributed in unknown lands that his friends for some time have strongly urged this radical course.

More Plague in Glasgow.—GLASGOW, Scotland, Aug. 29.—Two girls and a boy, members of isolated families, have fallen victims of the bubonic plague, though the medical authorities assert that the attacks are less virulent than in the cases which have already proved fatal.

MOURNS FOR HER GAETANO.—Wife of Convicted Assassin Feels That He Will Not Long Survive Life in Prison.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The news that her husband had been sentenced to life imprisonment for killing Humbert of Italy was carried to Mrs. Bresci at her home in Union Hill, N. J. When told of the sentence she wept bitterly. When she calmed down she said: "My poor Gaetano! He has been tried, convicted and sentenced in one day. That was a great injustice. I would rather see him dead than have him go to prison for life. I know he will not be able to stand long the life he will have to lead in prison."

Open Hearted Steel Goes Up.—PITTSBURGH, Aug. 29.—The Open Hearted Steel Company of America has advanced the price of all kinds of open heart steel $1 a ton. This applies to all products except the tool steel, which remains at 7 cents per pound and upward, according to quality.

In Memory of Fire Victims.—HINCKLEY, Minn., Aug. 29.—The monument erected by the state of Minnesota in memory of the 260 people who lost their lives in the great fire six years ago, will be dedicated in the Memorial cemetery in this village on Saturday, September 1.

RETIRE BEFORE THE ENGLISH

Roberts Retires the Boers Make a Poor Stand Near Mochabana.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Lord Roberts reports, under date of Belfast, August 28, as follows: "Buller's advance occupied Mochabodora this afternoon. The enemy made a poor stand and fled northward, followed by Dundonald's mounted troops, who could not proceed beyond Helvetia on account of the difficult nature of the country and the enemy taking up a position too strong to be dislodged by the mounted troops. It appears that Buller's casualties were very few."

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Prominent men from all parts of the country gathered around the tables in the banquet hall of the Auditorium hotel tonight to attend the feast given by the Hamilton club of this city in their honor. The Hamilton club is a republican organization and its banquet was, after the usual banquet with politics the chief thing under discussion. The great hall was never more handsomely or elaborately decorated. The walls were hung with the national colors, great bouquets and garlands of flowers of the same colors were placed on the tables and the floor upon every table and the decorations throughout were of a patriotic and military character.

NEW SENATOR TALKS OF PROSPERITY.—Those Basic Principles of Republicanism, Sound Money and Industrial Protection Shown to Be Mainstays of Good Times.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Prominent men from all parts of the country gathered around the tables in the banquet hall of the Auditorium hotel tonight to attend the feast given by the Hamilton club of this city in their honor. The Hamilton club is a republican organization and its banquet was, after the usual banquet with politics the chief thing under discussion. The great hall was never more handsomely or elaborately decorated. The walls were hung with the national colors, great bouquets and garlands of flowers of the same colors were placed on the tables and the floor upon every table and the decorations throughout were of a patriotic and military character.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

IOWA ORATORY FLOWS FREE

Henderson and Dolliver Address Hamilton Club at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Prominent men from all parts of the country gathered around the tables in the banquet hall of the Auditorium hotel tonight to attend the feast given by the Hamilton club of this city in their honor. The Hamilton club is a republican organization and its banquet was, after the usual banquet with politics the chief thing under discussion. The great hall was never more handsomely or elaborately decorated. The walls were hung with the national colors, great bouquets and garlands of flowers of the same colors were placed on the tables and the floor upon every table and the decorations throughout were of a patriotic and military character.

NEW SENATOR TALKS OF PROSPERITY.—Those Basic Principles of Republicanism, Sound Money and Industrial Protection Shown to Be Mainstays of Good Times.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Prominent men from all parts of the country gathered around the tables in the banquet hall of the Auditorium hotel tonight to attend the feast given by the Hamilton club of this city in their honor. The Hamilton club is a republican organization and its banquet was, after the usual banquet with politics the chief thing under discussion. The great hall was never more handsomely or elaborately decorated. The walls were hung with the national colors, great bouquets and garlands of flowers of the same colors were placed on the tables and the floor upon every table and the decorations throughout were of a patriotic and military character.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government. In this great world of ours, full of powerful, massive, aggressive governments, it is not a government that is strong enough to take care of our people and their interests that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government. It is not a government that is not a government.

What Hamilton Suggests.—The name of Hamilton suggests three thoughts that may be appropriate to 1900. First, a strong government; second, a just government; and third, a progressive government.