Like all successful originators--we have many imitators--but thus far we stand alone as the leaders and promoters of men's fashions.

We copy after no one! Year after year we have raised the standard for tailoring higher and higher--with lower and lower prices--till we have brought the price for superior made garments within the reach of all.

We want you to place your order for Fall garments here. We shall strive hard to merit your permanent patronage.

Polite salesmen will aid you in choosing--but will not urge you to buy. That's not our way. We invite you to inspect the Fall fabrics.

TIM TELLS TEARFUL TALE

Police Court Reporter's Understudy Relates a Pathetic Story.

TRIED TO WRITE IT HIMSELF, BUT FAILED

Italian Fruit Vendor Brings the Woman of His Choice to Omaha and Then Death Claims Her.

Tim Ormsby has been so busy serving meals to the city prisoners and rubbing up the chinaware and silver service that he hasn't had much time to devote to reporting. He has, however, managed to round up one story upon which he makes this report:

"It's one of these sad yarns, full of tears, with folks sniffing 'n' leakin' all through it," he began. "I tries to write it myself, see? I sets down here an' writes five cigarettes on it, but it reads like a coroner's report to a grand jury, so I tears it up. Mebby you can do better. I'll tell you."

"Say, did you ever notice that young chap what sells da banaan 'n' da apple out here at Sixteenth and Webster streets--the right pretty boy with the moustache and the eyes? No? Well, he's been holdin' down that corner for five years. Every one knows him. He's one of our lovable fellers, with a face that reflects the sunny skies of Italy. I've got that? Be sure and work that in."

SUIT FOR YOUNG MAN'S FALL

Father Asks Damages from Saloon Keeper for Corrupting the Morals of His Son.

Thomas Donlan has called four saloon-keepers to account for the downfall of his 15-year-old son, Thomas, Jr. The defendants are Gustave Stepp, Julius Engdler, Lars and Hans Neilson, whose place of business is at Thirtieth and Spalding streets. Before the youth began to frequent the saloon his father says he was a docile and obedient boy and stayed at home nights. Within the last year, however, Donlan says it has been impossible for him to exert any influence over his son.

THE HOME IS IN NEED OF REPAIR

The home of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Forty-third and Jackson streets, though only partly finished, has been occupied by the sisters and their wards for several weeks. Much work remains to be done to make all floors available for their intended uses, and the grounds must be graded and fenced. The financial resources of the sisters are exhausted and they are obliged to appeal for assistance to the generous people of Omaha, who know and appreciate good deeds. To start and systematize the movement in aid of this public charity a meeting will be held at the convent at 5:30 p. m. Sunday, September 10, at which Bishop Sheen will preside. All persons interested in the work carried on by the sisters are requested to attend.

H. E. HUNTINGTON FOR PRESIDENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.--Third Vice President Stubbs of the Southern Pacific company has returned from New York. Mr. Stubbs is of the opinion that H. E. Huntington will be elected president of the company. "In view of Charles H.
