There is nothing in the title of "A Georgian Actress" to give one a clue to it is not until one reads it that he discovers that it is a romance of the time of George III. It tells of the life and adventures of a fair young actress and the scene is laid in England and America. Itis a well written and interesting story.

Another story having to do with people of the stage is "Ada Vernham, Actress" by Richard Marsh. This new book by the author of "Frivolities" deals with the inside life of the London stage. The character of the heroine is wonderfully drawn and the story of her struggles and successes is of absorbing interest. It is a book that is bound to attract attention.

FOR LADIES ONLY.

Humanity Bustrated by Over Eight Hundred Beautiful Wax Models. Last Tuesday a great number of ladies ook advantage of the matince to visit the "Wax Works" on Sixteenth street and all expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the exhibit. This is, without a doubt, the finest collection of wax specimens representing normal anatomy that is in the United States. Every model is a work of art and being scientifically correct much valuable information can be obtained during an hour's visit to the institution. It is run for instruction, not for amusement, riosity. The very best ladies in each city visited have given it their hearty endorsement and have patronized it in crowds. Tomorrow afternoon and evening (from 3 to b) will be reserved for ladies exclusively and there will be a lady demonstrator present to explain the different models to vis-
