

FLOAT NO. 1—"THE KING! THE KING!"
Ak-Sar-Ben VI, "He of the hundred names," To whose scepter bow the Ak-Sar-Ben knights for weal or woe.

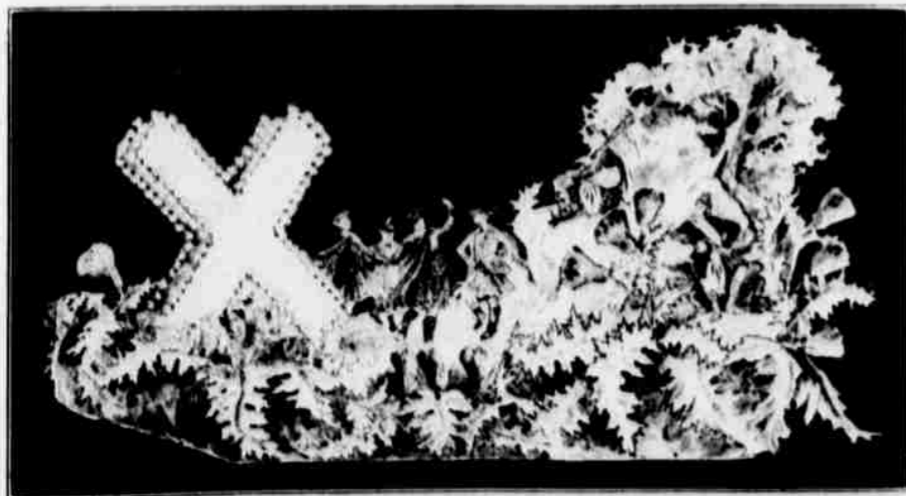

FLOAT NO. 2—"THE TITLE FLOAT."
On the broad Pacific, the stormy Atlantic, beneath the Southern Cross and in the Vast White North rest the "Isles of the Sea."

FLOAT NO. 3—"JAPAN."
The quaint kingdom that woke so suddenly from the sleep of ages. Here are shown the tea garden, the cherry blossoms, the chrysanthemums and the dainty people.

FLOAT NO. 4—"ENGLAND."
"The Mistress of the Seas," upon whose flag the sun shines ever. Depicted by the tableau of "St. George and the Dragon."

FLOAT NO. 5—"SCOTLAND."
The land of the "braw and canny Scots," the bagpipes, the plaid, the kilts. The float is decorated with the national emblems of St. Andrew's Cross and the Thistle.

Swift's Premium Hams

Cooked in any manner are always delicious.
Like Swift's Premium Breakfast Bacon and Silver Leaf Lard, there is no uncertainty about the quality. U. S. Gov't inspected.

I desire to inform the ladies of Omaha and vicinity that I have just opened a ladies' tailoring establishment at suite 523 Paxton Block. I make all kinds of ladies' garments complete, at reasonable prices. You can furnish your own material if desired. I take the opportunity of bringing to your notice that I draught and design patterns for each garment. I keep all high class fashion plates of foreign and domestic production. Models will be shown of street costumes and outer garments.

The Seal of Satisfaction

WHEN we deliver an order of printing we render full value for our charges, and also "satisfaction." The "satisfaction" is thrown in, as it were, just to gratify you and retain your patronage. We have only one way of doing business, and that is why every customer gets "satisfaction."
