

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM IOWA.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis sells glass. 'Mr. Riley' 5-cent cigar. Gas fixtures and globes at Elby's. Fine A. H. C. beer, Naimayer's hotel. Dr. Stephenson, 309 Pearl St. Tel. 259. Schmidt's photos, new and latest styles. Cab. photos $1.50 doz. Williams, 541 Bldg. W. J. Hendricks, dentist, 129 1/2 Bldg. J. C. & W. Woodward, architects, 523 Bldg. W. E. Lewis sells monuments, 301 Bldg. W. E. Lewis, stone mason, 301 Bldg. Lempe's beer, Roenke's, 105 agent. Best beer, Bradwell, 1, 105 agent. L. A. Brittain left yesterday on a visit to Helena, Mont. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Fifth avenue, a daughter, Mrs. E. S. Smith, yesterday on a visit to friends. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howley left yesterday on a visit to friends. Get your work done at the popular Eagle laundry, 724 Broadway. Phone 157. W. C. Kater, undertaker, 21 Pearl street. Telephone 100. W. F. Graff, undertaker and licensed embalmer, 191 South Main street. Phone 258. W. F. Graff, undertaker and licensed embalmer, 191 South Main street. Phone 258. W. F. Graff, undertaker and licensed embalmer, 191 South Main street. Phone 258. W. F. Graff, undertaker and licensed embalmer, 191 South Main street. Phone 258.

PAYS FOR THE STREET SITE

Board of Education Turns Over Purchase Money to Owner's Agent.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION SUIT PROMISED

People Who Object to the Proposed Location of the High School Talk About Going into Court Again.

The purchase of the street property as the site for the new high school building was consummated yesterday morning by the Board of Education. D. W. Otis, as agent for A. W. Street, handed over to Secretary Ross of the school board the deed to the property and also a deed from Street to the city of Council Bluffs for the portion of Third street bounding the tract on the east side, which had never been dedicated, opened or graded. In return Secretary Ross handed Mr. Otis a draft on School Treasurer Haverstock for $3,500, the purchase price of the property. This action on the part of the Board of Education was unexpected, as it was generally understood that no further steps looking to the completion of the purchase of the street tract would be taken until the return of President Henry, who is in the east. The draft drawn by Secretary Ross on the treasurer lacks the signature of President Henry, but it is stated that Treasurer Haverstock arranged to cash all drafts in President Henry's absence on the understanding that he will sign them on his return. While no instructions were given at the meeting of the school board Monday, as to what Secretary Ross, he acted under orders given at a former meeting, at which he was directed to accept the deed from Agent Otis as soon as Mr. Street deeded the street to the city. The street having been deeded Secretary Ross saw no reason for further delaying the matter, so acting on these orders paid over to Mr. Otis the purchase price.

LAW FOR THE BROTHERHOOD

Fremmen's Convention Hears Report of Committee on Change of Constitution.

ACTION ON THE MATTER IS POSTPONED

Many Cities in the Country Make a Bid for the Next Convention—Grand Banquet Held in Des Moines Hotels.

DES MOINES, Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen heard the report of the committee on the proposed change of the constitution and by-laws, but no action was taken. Whether or not Des Moines or any other city than Peoria secures the national headquarters of the brotherhood will be decided when this question of the adoption of the revised constitution and by-laws comes to a vote. Harrisburg, Pa., sent a proposition for the location of the next convention. St. Joseph will have one ready for reading tomorrow, so it is said, and Indianapolis is to have another bid on the table of the secretary this week. Other cities are Louisville, Omaha, Detroit, Put-in-Bay and Milwaukee. No final action seems likely to be taken on any proposition before Friday and the election of officers will probably take place on that day also. The feature tonight was a grand banquet held simultaneously at the Sawyer, Kiwanoid and Iowa hotels in order to accommodate the great crowd. Late last night Frank Wallace, colored, was stabbed and probably fatally injured by another colored man. The man who did the stabbing escaped in the crowd who fled from the scene. The man who did the stabbing is under arrest in the Peoria county jail at Des Moines. He has confessed to the robbery and will be brought here for sentence. Snyder about eighteen months ago was sentenced by Judge Woolson to a term in the county jail at Avoca for bootlegging. When leaving the Peoria county jail he brought here a bottle of whisky, which he had been buying from him when he reached Council Bluffs. Judge McPherson partly heard yesterday the application of the Whisley Bros. Soap company against the Iowa Soap company for a temporary restraining order to restrain the defendants from infringing on a trademark. The plaintiff company manufactures a soap with the trademark "Old Country Soap" and the defendant company has placed the trademark "Our Country Soap" on a soap it manufactures. The plaintiff company has filed a motion for an injunction against the defendants from infringing on a trademark. The plaintiff company manufactures a soap with the trademark "Old Country Soap" and the defendant company has placed the trademark "Our Country Soap" on a soap it manufactures. The plaintiff company has filed a motion for an injunction against the defendants from infringing on a trademark.

MATTERS IN FEDERAL COURT.

Judges McPherson and Shiras Set the Government's Law Mill Grinding.

LOOK OVER NEW ROAD.

President Ellsworth and other officials of the Iowa Falls and Northern railroad, proposed to be constructed between this city and Iowa Falls, left the latter point this afternoon on their way to the new road.

DEATH RECORD.

Funeral of Mark Rorer.

COLUMBIUS, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The funeral of Mark Rorer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rorer, was largely attended. The services were held at the Congregational church, where Mr. Munroe preached the sermon. The interment was made in the Columbus cemetery and the long procession was escorted by the Evans Rifles, Company K, of which the deceased was a member. The company was out in full uniform under command of Captain Hoekstecker.

SHORTAGE IN THE TREASURY

Report on Funds in Johnson County, Iowa, Made by Expert Accountant.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—After several months of inquiry the report of an expert accountant Kierliff on the accounts of the Board of Central Iowa, which has been discovered, that the treasurer's office is short $12,216.61. This covers a period since 1892. In his report the amount of shortage under the term of A. R. Cherry amounted to $9,409.88, while the shortage during Maher's term in 1895 amounted to $2,806.73. The report completed by Kierliff today covers the collection of taxes for the years 1892, 1893 and 1894, and during that time he has discovered a shortage of $1,806.73. This last report completes the investigations of the case of Maher from the beginning of Maher's term in 1892 until the present time. It covers a period of eight years. During the years of Maher's incumbency the total amount of shortage is $10,216.61, while Cherry's total shortage was $9,409.88. The total amount missing for the eight years is $12,216.61. The report shows that the errors in Maher's accounts were made largely in the footings, although small amounts in some places had not been abstracted after collecting. All the errors were discovered by $1,806 of the shortage has been covered by cash by both Cherry and Maher. The above amount was found in the early part of Maher's term. The board of supervisors will meet at the call of the auditor and it is not yet known what action will be taken in regard to the new shortage.

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

Senator Dooliver Sees Improvement in the Political Outlook.

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

REPUBLICAN SKY IS BRIGHTER.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dooliver was at the Grand hotel yesterday morning for a short while on his way home to Fort Dodge from Atlantic. The senator was feeling in the best of health and expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the election next November. He said that everywhere he had spoken he had been greeted with large crowds and that addresses had been given close attention. Last week, he said, he had, he estimated, spoken to close upon 15,000 at the various meetings he had attended. His trip over this section of the state led him to have even more confidence in the result of the campaign, which he says will be a sure victory for the entire republican ticket. He said: "Iowa is all right and will roll up a bigger majority for McKinley, I feel certain, than it did four years ago."

WE CURE TO STAY CURED. Varicocele, Stricture, Contagious Blood Poison, Nervous Debility and all Reflex Complications and Associate Diseases and Weaknesses of Men by Our Electro-Medical Treatment, Which Combines all the Curative Powers of Both Medicine and Electricity.

DOCTOR TOLSON. Of the State Electro-Medical Institute, 1308 Farnam Street, Specialist in Diseases of Men. We want every man thus afflicted to honestly investigate our special Electro-Medical system of treatment. We invite in particular all who have treated themselves without success, and all those whose cases have been abandoned by family physicians and medical experts. We will explain to you why such treatment has not cured you and will demonstrate to you the safety, quickness and permanency of our cure. You can cure your case safely, quickly and permanently. Our counsel will cost you nothing, and will give you, by permission, to some of the best citizens of this city whom we have cured and made happy, and who will cheerfully vouch for our treatment as a professional standing. What we have done for them we can do for you.

VARICOCELE Under our Electro-Medical treatment this inidious disease rapidly disappears. Pain ceases almost instantly. The pools of stagnant blood are driven from the dilated veins and all soreness and swelling quickly subsides. Every indication of Varicocele soon vanishes. The blood is purified, the pulse, the power and the pleasure of Perfect health and restored manhood. STRICTURE Our Electro-Medical treatment dissolves the structure completely and restores the urinary system to its normal condition. It relieves the bladder, cleanses and restores the bladder and kidneys, invigorates the sexual organs, and restores health, the blood and the patient prepared anew for the duties and pleasures of life. CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON Our special form of Electro-Medical treatment of this disease is practically the result of our life work. It is endorsed by the best physicians of this and foreign countries. It restores the system, of physical and mental vigor, and restores to perfect health the victims of this disease. It restores the blood, the tissue, the vitality, and the patient prepared anew for the duties and pleasures of life. NERVOUS DEBILITY Many of you are now reaping the result of your neglect of your health. Your mind is failing and will soon be useless and to something for yourself. There is no time to lose. Impotency, like all sexual diseases, is never on the standstill. With it you can never get on in life. It will master you and fill your whole future with misery and indescribable woe. We have treated so many cases of this kind that we are familiar with them as you are with the very daylight. Once cured by our system you will never again be bothered with emulations, drains, premature loss, small or weak organs, nervousness, falling memory, loss of ambition, or similar symptoms which rob you of your manhood and absolutely unfit you for study, business, pleasure or marriage. Our treatment for weak men will correct all these evils and restore you to what nature intended—a hale, healthy, happy man, with abundant mental and sexual powers to complete.

REFLEX DISEASES Many ailments are reflex, originating from other diseases. For instance sexual weakness sometimes comes from Varicocele or Stricture. Innumerable blood and bone diseases often result from contagious blood poisons, or from the system, or physical or mental disease frequently follow impotency. In treating diseases of any kind we always remove the origin—we cure the cause. THE ELECTRO-MEDICAL SPECIALISTS OF THE DIFFERENT DEPTS. of this Institute by their special combined Electro-Medical Treatment are making many wonderful cures in diseases of the Nose, Throat and Lungs, Head, Heart, Stomach and Bowels, Liver, Kidneys, Rhe