

FIGHT ON BROOKLYN GROUNDS

Catcher Robinson of St. Louis Assailed by Gaffney.

MANAGER MCGRAW UPHOLDS HIS PLAYER

Game Declared Forfeited to the Spectators as a Result of Pitching and Philadelphia Also Won Their Games.

Brooklyn, 9; St. Louis, 0. Pittsburgh, 5; New York, 2. Philadelphia, 5; Cincinnati, 7.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 19.—Today's game between the Brooklyn and St. Louis clubs ended in a row in the third inning and the umpire declared it forfeited to Brooklyn by a score of 5 to 0. In the third inning a grounder, Walker, was thrown badly to the plate. Farrell slid under Robinson's hands and was declared safe. Roby jumped up and after throwing the ball at Gaffney rushed up and struck him on the chest with his bat. The umpire swung his mask at the player, but grazing his nose. He ordered the big catcher out of the game, but he refused to go and McGraw backed him up. After waiting the customary time Gaffney declared the game forfeited and McGraw withdrew his men. McGinnity and Jones were the opposing pitchers and the game promised to be interesting. Brooklyn had scored a homer in the first and another in the third on Farrell's double, McGinnity's sacrifice and the play above mentioned, while St. Louis was blank, although they gave indications of hitting hard, having made five hits to two for Brooklyn. The 3,000 spectators received their money back.

Pirates Still Winning.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The New Yorks beat another game to Pittsburgh this afternoon owing to the fact that McGinnity, who pitched good ball from beginning to end, outwitted Lew Burdette.

PLAYED THEIR CARDS WROG

Speculators at Hawthorne Suffer Regular Waterloo by Sticking to Form Charts.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The feature of today's rather mediocre card at Hawthorne was the defeat in the third race of Dewey McMillin, the much touted "speed marvel," at her favorite distance. After leading by three lengths in the first race, she was overtaken by the three-quarter mile winner, Sily and Lady Curzon to beat her out for first and second money. It looked like a case of fatal mismanagement. It was, however, Beale, although this was the first time she had been asked to go in the third race. The all night rain made the course a perfect sea of mud and form players say:

62 DAYS ALONE ON THE OCEAN.

Sustained by Grape-Nuts Food.

Captain Blackburn who sailed from Gloucester, Mass., in a small boat 29 feet over all, for Gloucester, Eng., in June, 1859, carried with him, by order of his doctor, a variety of different foods, also a little olive oil to prepare them. "Conspicuous among these foods the doctor named Grape-Nuts Food for Grape-Nuts food. Having found Grape-Nuts food so wonderful in its invigorating and nourishing effects, the captain, upon his return, acting on the advice of his physician, continued the use of the food, steadily gaining in health and strength."

Capt. Blackburn and the physician, whose name is omitted as a professional courtesy (a well-known doctor in Gloucester, whose name can be given upon application to the Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.) look upon Grape-Nuts as the most perfect form of food known, and especially applicable to the use of those who are subjected to long continued exertions, fatigue and exposure.

"Although weakened by the continued drenching, fatigue, and exposure, he made the voyage successfully, which his physician says would have been a relief impossible but for Grape-Nuts food. Having found Grape-Nuts food so wonderful in its invigorating and nourishing effects, the captain, upon his return, acting on the advice of his physician, continued the use of the food, steadily gaining in health and strength."

Viaduct Repairs Ordered

When the attention of General Manager Kenyon of the Stock Yards company was called to the condition of the plank on the Q street viaduct yesterday he stated that repairs must be made and that the viaduct has been sent for and also some heavy stringers. As the stringers must come from Oregon there may be some little delay in relaying the flooring of the viaduct. It is the intention of the Stock Yards company to place this bridge in first-class condition before winter sets in.

In connection with this bridge complaint is made that the stairway leading down to Hammond's and Swift's is weak. This work will be done by the plating of the houses mentioned for the accommodation of employees and must be repaired by them.

South Omaha News

The first important republican rally of the present campaign was held at Twenty-fourth and N streets yesterday afternoon. The rally was held in the evening and was attended by a large number of citizens. The speakers of the evening were Dr. Sampson Pope and R. W. Richardson.

After acknowledging the situation offered by Dr. Pope said that the country is on the eve of an important election. He said that the republican party should remember the times of 1896. He then went on to explain the conditions which existed prior to the election of McKinley and said that it was a question with the laboring men whether the present prosperous condition of the country would be maintained into the immediate future which prevailed prior to the inauguration of a republican president.

In speaking of President McKinley Dr. Pope said that the president had been called upon to decide more important questions than any other president since the days of Lincoln and that he had met them with singular ability and courage. "I do not believe," said Dr. Pope, "that the people of this state will turn down a gallant soldier like William McKinley for a good political cause. I believe that the people of this state will stand by him even if he is a republican of the state, will you?"

Next the speaker called attention to the fact that the shops and factories are now open and that there is plenty of work for all, especially in this great packing country. He said that the laboring men should be satisfied with their position and that the republican party should not be divided by party lines.

Chairman Richardson spoke on general lines for a few moments after Dr. Pope had concluded. Both speeches were well received. The object of holding an open-air meeting was to reach the class of the people who would not attend a meeting in a hall. The meeting was a success in every respect and the music by the quartet and the band was greatly appreciated.

Important changes in municipal government will be made on October 1st. The volume of business transacted here is shown to a great extent by the sales of stamps at the postoffice. During the month of August the receipts amounted to $2,273.33, an increase of $1,283 over the receipts of the month of July. Last month's receipts at the postoffice stand next to the highest in the history of the office. So far this month the receipts exceed those of last September and it may be that this month may be another record breaker.

The Good Templars will give a social at Modern Woodmen hall on Friday evening next. Allen W. Jones and wife, Eighteenth and Missouri avenues, announce the birth of a daughter. Clark, one of the mailing clerks at the postoffice, has returned from two weeks' vacation. W. S. Darbyshire, a mail carrier on one of the residence routes, is taking a two weeks' vacation. Inspector Jones reports a case of scarlet fever in the residence route of the city. E. C. Price, formerly general manager of the city, is in the city yesterday, shaking hands with his many friends.

Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben Getting Up in Courtly Graces and the Lilies.

Ak-Sar-Ben's den was cleared last night and many of the faithful of his knights danced to the strains of hand music. There was not the glamour about the affair of a full dress event and the charm of the music was absent. But the knights danced and promenaded and bowed and curtsied just as courtly and just as gracefully as though the object of their attention were the king himself or one of his feminine subjects.

The occasion was a rehearsal on the part of the knights of the promenades and dances which will be presented at the grand court ball next week. Some of the figures to be introduced will be new and the knights felt the need of practicing them. And then, too, they sought to familiarize themselves with the requisite curtsies and salaams which must be made by them when the king appears. The special figures in which the knights will take the lead promise to be especially attractive and the advance rehearsal assure that they will be faultlessly rendered.

BURLESCUERS GIVE BENEFIT

Troceadero Has Special Matinee, the Proceeds of Which Are Donated to Galveston Storm Sufferers.

Mayor Moore appeared on the stage of the Troceadero theater Wednesday afternoon. He was not arrayed in the habiliments of an aspiring thespian nor did he do a "turn" calculated to entertain, so the mayor was not entitled to consideration as "one of the profane." He presented himself before the glaring footlights for the purpose of expressing thanks to a fair-sized number of citizens for their attendance at the benefit given for the Galveston sufferers.

Mayor Moore was as felicitous and as much at ease standing before a crowd of theater-goers as though he had been making a general address or an address from a public platform and his contribution to the afternoon's program was quite as entertaining as anything else. He gave prominence, however, to the gratification it gave him as well as Manager Rosenthal and others interested, for the generous contribution of Omaha people to help their unfortunate fellowmen who were victims of the Galveston disaster.

The afternoon's program consisted entirely of specialty numbers. All of the specialty artists who are appearing with Watson's "Oriental Burlesque" at the Troceadero appeared and a number of local aspirants for theatrical honors assisted. Until reports are received from those who sold tickets for the benefit the exact sum realized cannot be stated.
