HOBO HOLDS UP HIS HOSTESS

Ungrateful Tramp Steals from the Hand that Gave Him Bread.

FIND VAGRANT WITH COIN IN WEEDS

Housekeeper of South Side Prepares Feast for ill-Payored Stranger Who Gains Her Confidence by Petting Her Child.

A tramp, having saked for something to eat at the kitchen of Mrs. Joe Kwasniewski, 2927 South Twenty-cighth street, Sunday afternoon, was admitted and given a meal. After finishing his repast he drew a pistol, thrust it into the face of his benefactress. and demanded her money. As the woman dren, and as the tramp threatened to shoot to give him all the money she had-a $20 gold piece. The tramp then hastily withdrew from the house and made his escape.

This incident was at once reported to the police and during the next five hours several wagonloads of hoboes and suspects were brought in from the neighborhead, but thus far Mrs. Kwasulewski has been unable to identify the ingrate who robbed her. The found in a weed patch near Sheeley, rushon the way to the station several of these coats and hats, the object being obviously to disguise themselves.

Kwasujewski to the captain of police, a hobo of disreputable appearance knocked at the back door of her home about 3 o'clock ficiency in unirrigated western land. Sunday afternoon and asked for a cup of

"He said he hadn't had anything to eat for two days," she said. "I told him to Democratic County Committees Still come in and sit down, which he did. And then, as I was getting the coffee for him. my little girl came into the room and he patted her on the head and began remarking what a beautiful child she was. I came to believe he was a pretty nice sort of a man after all, and kind of pitied him, and so I boiled him soft eggs and fixed some potatoes and a piece of meat for him.

Tramp's Military Career.

"Well, he sat down to the table and ate what I had prepared, talking all the time ents of the new committee from achieving about how he had gone to the Philippines as a soldier and had come back on sick leave and was too ill to work, and all that. He was very deliberate about it, and I was getting pretty well acquainted with him. suggestion. The motion for a reorganizahad occasion to leave the room for a few minutes and when I returned I

" 'I'm sorry to do this, madam,' he said,

"I thought of screaming, but the thought added, 'If you make a loud noise, I'll blow vention comprises the following:

"I was thoroughly frightened by this time. I thought of my babies and the possible danger to them and then, scarcely knowing what I did, went to the dresser and got a $20 gold piece. It was all the money I had. I gave him that. He mumbled something, backed out of the door and in an instant was out of sight.

'As soon as I'd rallied somewhat from my fright I ran out and told one or two of ghbors. A couple of men followed in | no the direction the tramp had taken, but could see nothing of him."

Mrs. Kwasuiewski gives a fairly good description of the hobo. He was heavy set, of medium height, she says, with about a ten-days' growth of thick, stubby brown beard. He wore a tattered, greasy sack coat of some gray material, striped trousers and black slouch hat.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoca After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have."

FARMERS HOARD THEIR HAY

Rumors of Short Crop Induce Agriculturists to Wait-Reports of Damage Exaggerated.

The Omaha hay factors are facing a peculiar condition in the market for that commodity. Generally speaking the season has been favorable in the eastern and northern COME ON fields with a shortage in northwestern Nebrasks. This has created in the minds of the producers an idea that prices will be materially advanced before the next crop s harvested. As a result the farmers are holding their tock, and it is almost impossible for the dealers to fill orders. One Omaha house which had secured a contract for several thousand tons required two weeks to dewas baled, the farmers preferring to keep money can buy, was alone in the house, save for the chil- it in the stack until satisfactory prices TODAY IS THE SECOND DAY OF were offered.
