Smith Deliberately Fouls Walcott.

HARTFORD. Conn., Sept. 24—Joe Walcott and "Mysterious" Billy Smith fought at the colliscum tonight, the fight being scheduled for twenty rounds. At every stage of the fight Walcott proved himself to be Smith's superior. He fought him all over the ring, landed at will and at the end of the ninth round Smith had received so much severe punishment that he complained of his left hand being bad and wanted to quit. Johnnie White of New York, the referse, refused to allow him to do so and in the tenth round Walcott went at Smith hammer and tongs, administering terrific right and left swings to the stomach and head. Smith, who had fought foul in some of the earlier rounds, realizing that he was no match for Walcott, deliberately fouled him by holding, whereupon he was disqualified and sent to his corner by the referee and Walcott was declared the wilner.
