will suffice:
The Fourteen years the principal of the shorthand and typewriting department of the Omaha Commercial college.
A court reporter for eighteen months.
Reported many setmons, lectures and political speeches.
"It seems a little out of place that I should be called upon, after so many years' experience in teaching and writing shorthand to enter into a public contest with a novice at this kind of work, in order to demonstrate my competency. However, if Mr. Ong is sincere in his challence and wants a test I assure him that he will be accommodated, but I do not care to enter into any school of standing ought to be willing to give $10 to the Galveston sufferers without having a contest over it.

hilo aught to be willing to give fib to the Galveston sufferers without having a con-test over it. I make the folling proposition: I will necure Prof John R. Gregg author of the Gregg system of shorthand, to give Miss Van Dusen and myself a thorough and complete examination. This examination is to consist of a test in writing, knowl-edge of the principles and a demonstra-tion of ability to impart this knowledge to others, and whatever else Mr. Gregg may see fit to require. If Miss Van Dusen passes the better examination I will play too do into the fund of the Galveston sufferers. If I pass the better examina-tion Mr. Ong is to pay the $1000 may use fit to require a signaranty that I will carry out this proposition. I ask Mr. Ong to place $15000 in the same bank as a guaranty that he will carry out the con-pay Prof. Gregg's expenses to Omahn, to give this examination, and is to be paid by the losec. T will let this money re-main in the bank for ten days. If Mr. Ong has confidence in his previous state-ments and wishes to demonstrate the su-periority of a three month's student as teacher over a teacher of fourteen years experience he should immediately cover this money, or else let the matter drop as I care for no newsnaper notorlety by having my name associated with his. "F. W. MOSHER." Benefit and the sume associated with this. "F. W. MOSHER." 13-572 30
