Fight for the Mid-Road Party's Name in Supreme Court Now.

MOTION FOR A HEARING COMES ON TODAY

Judge Will Give the Popocrats a Chance to Show That They Are Entitled to Something the Law Plainty Denies.

Lincoln, Oct. 2—(Special)—The supreme court is in session. Among the most interesting cases filed today is one carried up from the district court of Lancaster up from the district c county, objecting to the ruling of Judge Heimes, who issued a writ of mandamus a short time ago ordering Secretary of State Portor to allow the mid-road populists a place on the official ballot as "populists."

The case was carried up by J. H. Edmisten in conjunction with secretary Porter, notwithstanding an endorsement by Judge Helmes on the bill of exceptions to the effect that the law under which the case was brought permits of no appeal from the district court. The judgical endorsement further stated that the bill of exceptions was correct as in the evidence, but is never the record in the case, as the law makes no provision for an appeal.

The court permitted the docketing of the case and set 10 o clock temogray motion to advance the bour for hours for hourse and set 10 o clock temogray motion to advance the bour for hourse a motion to advance the bour for hourse a motion to advance.
