The speaker referred to the action of the president in the matter of the Anglo-Boer war, saying that the United States was the only nation to take advantage of the provisions of The Hague treaty to attempt to stop the war. He told of how the Hoer envoys fell into the hands of the democrats at Washington and of a statement by the treasurer of the relief fund showing that all of the money raised had been expended in high living with the exception of $14, which was to be sent to the widows and orphans.

The speaker here was interrupted by the arrival of Governor Shaw of Iowa, who was given an ovation as he reached the stage.

But One Issue in This Campaign.

Governor Shaw spoke for about threequarters of an hour, prefacing his remarks with a few pleasantries in a complimentary vein. He urged that every man when he goes to the polls to vote, should CHARGE be a statesman, just as the people will insist that the congressman of their choice shall be a statesman. As suggested by Mr Greene, there is but one issue in the campaign. It is not on questions concerning which there is no difference of opinion

DAVID CITY, Neb., Oct. 4 .- (Special.)-Yesterday was political day at the Butler county fair. Hon. Edward C. Fitch of Chicago was the first speaker. He spoke for one hour and in an eloquent manner discoursed good, sound, republican doctrine, supporting the administration of President McKinley. He was frequently interrupted by loud and enthusiastic applause.

Congressman Amos J. Cummings, a representative of the Tammany Democracy of New York, spoke for the fusionists. Mr Cummings made no attempt to answer any of the arguments produced by Mr. Fitch, but discussed briefly the crime of 1873, im perialism and trusts. Westing of Electricity My Belt is to supply this lost electricity. Dr. Honnett's Wymore held a mass meeting and indignantly protested against the bold scheme, which was for no other purpose than enhancing the value of property owned by a certain gentleman in an undesirable part of the city. The scheme was luckily discovered in time for the business men and others to frustrate it and ever since then the citizens of Wymore have had but little confidence in Mr. Stark, as will be shown when they cast their ballots on election day.
