ASSAULT WAS PREMEDITATED

Attack on Governor Roosevelt at Victor, Colo., Was Planned Beforehand.

DISSOLUTE WOMEN JOIN LAWLESS MOB

Rough Rider Hit with Cross Covered with Gold Paper and Surmounted with Crown of Thorns.

"The assault made upon Colonel Roosevelt at Victor, Colo., was premeditated," said General Curtis Guild, who traveled with the Rough Rider through the west. "As our train pulled into the station we saw a number of men approaching the station on horses. Somebody in the party remarked that it was a receiving party and it was the hottest reception we have encountered anywhere. The riders charged on our party and it was necessary for us to form a foot ball wedge to repel them. Stones and sticks were hurled at us and drunken hoodlums made many attempts to strike Governor Roosevelt. Dissolute women joined the lawless mob and struck at Colonel Roosevelt with campaign banners. One woman hit Mr. Roosevelt with a cross covered with gold paper and surmounted with a crown of thorns. "When the speaking began the lawless element created a great disturbance and persisted in throwing all sorts of missiles. It was almost impossible to hear Colonel Roosevelt, but he spoke in spite of the confusion. Our party was attacked again on the way back to the station and it was with difficulty that we boarded the train."

BRYAN'S PLANS ARE UNKNOWN

Committee Doesn't Know Whether He Will Speak Here or Not.

It is not known around state democratic headquarters whether their candidate for president is likely to give a day to Omaha at the close of the campaign this year, as he has been accustomed to do in former years. "I would like to tell you that he will," said an official of the state committee, "but the truth is the state committee knows nothing about it. Mr. Bryan makes his own dates. He goes where he pleases and when he pleases and we can not tell until he announces his intentions whether he is likely to be in Nebraska at the close of the campaign or in the farthest east or west."

In the state campaign of last year Bryan spent in the last night before election in rounding up in the following at two halls in South Omaha and five in this city and an effort will be made by the state committee to induce him to repeat the local itinerary this year. Meantime fanatics are preparing to give Bourke Cockran the best hearing possible upon his appearance here October 8 in attendance for the disrespectful treatment accorded him when he spoke here during the campaign of 1896. It is predicted that the very men who sought to break up his Coliseum meeting four years ago will be given seats in the bald-headed row of the shouting column this year.

GOVERNOR SHAW'S OPINION

Iowa's Chief Executive Confident that President McKinley Will Carry the Doubtful States.

Governor Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa arrived in Omaha Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. His special car was sidetracked at the Webster street station and he and his party, which consisted of Judge J. P. Conroy of Des Moines, Captain J. F. Merry and General Byers, commander of the Iowa National Guard, were escorted to the Her Grand hotel by National Committeeman E. E. Hart of Council Bluffs, E. Rosewater and other prominent republicans. Since the beginning of the republican campaign Governor Shaw has been speaking constantly and has filled engagements in Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, South Dakota, Indiana, Nebraska and Iowa. His engagements in Wisconsin and Michigan were so early in the campaign that he was unable to learn much of the political situation. In all the other states he has visited the governor is confident the republicans will show greater strength than in the campaign of 1896.

"Missouri will turn in a vote for McKinley which will cause the democrats to open their eyes in astonishment," said Governor Shaw. "The republican committee in Missouri is making the first spirited fight in years. The campaign opened with a meeting at Sedalia and it was one of the most successful rallies ever held in the state. More than 1,000 members of the St. Louis Republican League club attended the meeting and over 800 Rough Riders rode in the parade. The speaking was in a large park more than a mile from the center of the town and the crowd was so immense that it was necessary to have speaking in four different places."
When asked concerning the political situation in Indiana, Governor Shaw said: "The republican committee sent me to several places in Indiana and told me that all of them were democratic strongholds. I was in New Albany, Bloomfield and other towns in southern Indiana where republicanism used to be unknown. The meetings were highly successful and committeemen told me that they were confident of great gains in the republican vote. I feel almost as confident that Indiana will be in the republican ranks."
"I was in several Kentucky towns and in talking with prominent republicans found that they feel sure of carrying the state for Yerkes, the republican candidate for governor. They do not expect, however, to carry the state for McKinley."
"Of course everyone knows Illinois and Iowa will give McKinley a larger vote than in 1896. It is a foregone conclusion that South Dakota will swing back into republican ranks again by a good, round majority. All the republicans feel sure of this and the great fight now is to swell the majority to 6,000 or 7,000. It seems that this great majority must be secured to elect a legislature which will oust Pettigrew and the republicans are all working to that end."

Charges Are Dismissed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The grand jury today ordered a dismissal of the charges which have frequently been made against the Traders Fire Insurance company officials.

POPULIST TICKETS GALORE

Their Different Organizations Given Place on the Official Ballot.

UNLESS SUPREME COURT INTERFERES

County Clerk Haverly Finally Decides to Give Each Faction a Run for Its Money Next November.

There is likely to be no lack of populist tickets on the official ballot in Douglas county if the present declared intention of County Clerk Haverly is carried out. There will be a fusion populist ticket designated as the "people's independent," a Deaver mid-road ticket designated as "populist" and a Morearty-Cline mid-road ticket designated as "mid-road populist." That was the announcement made by the county clerk yesterday after having listened to arguments on the protests filed against the two mid-road tickets.
E. F. Morearty and August Cline, who were formerly identified with the mid-road organization and who finally broke away and nominated themselves respectively for county attorney and congressman, are now in close communion with the fusion populists and democrats. Having held their snap convention and nominated a full ticket in advance of their former mid-road associates, they filed certificates of nomination with the county clerk about August 20, selecting the name "mid-road populists" in conformity with a decision of the secretary of state, which was to the effect that the middle-of-the-road populist ticket nominated at Grand Island was entitled to a place upon the official ballot, but that its proposed use of the name "populist" must be qualified by the word "mid-road." It was not until about September 28 that representatives of the Deaver or regular organization of middle-of-the-roaders, filed any protest against the Morearty-Cline ticket.
Meantime the regular organization fac-
