Boxer Flanagan May Die.

Boxer Flanagan May Die.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—At the Industrial Athletic club tonight Steve Flanagan of Philadelphia, ex-champion bantam weight of America, fell unconscious in the sixth and last round of the contest with Jimmie Devine, a local boxer, and at a late hour tonight lies in a critical condition in a hospital. Flanagan's manager, isob Delay, and Jim Daly and others were placed under arrest, pending an examination of Flanagan's condition.

According to those at the ring side, Flanagan's condition, a second for it seemed to most of them as though no blow had been struck. Those sitting further back, however, thinking there had been a knockout, set up a cheer. Flanagan's manager and seconds jumped into the ring while Devine was standing by the prostrate boxer with a look of astonishment on his face. Flanagan was carried to his correr and all efforts to revive him failed, and he was taken to a hospital nearby, where the physicians expressed doubt as to his recovery.

At the hospital the case was diagnosed as physicians expressed doubt as to his recovery.

At the hospital the case was diagnosed as hemorrhage of the brain. The doctors could not say whether this was due to a blow or some other cause.

Some months ago when Flanagan was knocked out by Danny Dougherty, ten hours clapsed before the physicians succeeded in bringing him to. The opinion is expressed that Flanagan may have been seized tonight with an attack of vertigoternest Crowhurst was the referee, but up to a late hour had not been placed under

GET HUDYAN AND GET WELL.

HUDYAN is indeed splendid for all nervous conditions complicated with organic disturbances. HUDYAN creates robust, strong, healthy men and women. HUDYAN cures dull or throbbing pains in head-Fig 4; pale, emaciated or sallow complexions-Fig. 3; choking sensations or heavy feeling in chest-Fig. 2; weakness or palpitation of heart-Fig. 1, coldness of extremities-Fig. 6. These symptoms appear when the nerves that govern the heart are involved. It is a dangerous condition. Remember HUDYAN cures, and permanently.

The symptoms of nervous exhaustion are many and varied. Tremblings, dots before the eyes, hollow eyes, dark rings under eyes, pains in back, dizziness, tendency to faint, sleeplessness, horrid dreams, a fear of impending evil, despendency, all-gone, tired feeling, lack of energy. All these prove that the nerves and nerve-centers are weak. HUDYAN relives one and all the above symptoms.

Nervous conditions in women, complicated with chronic inflammations or ulcerations of the uterus and appendages, are promptly cured by HUDYAN. HUDYAN cures dragging or bearing-down pains, and mucous discharge. HUDYAN brings back the roses to pale, wan faces, HUDYAN-all druggists-50c a package, six packages for $2.50. If your druggist
