"The Eleventh Hour," Lincoln J. Carter's scenic comedy drams, is to be the attraction tonight at the Dohany theater. The play is calculated to piease everybody. An especially fine feature of the seenery is that in the last act giving a photographic reproduction of a well-known millionaire's mansion on Michigan avenue, Chicago, in which the gorgeous drawingroom is portrayed with all its costly brie-a-brac, tajestry and hangings. The ingroom is portrayed with all its costly brie-a-brac, tapestry and hangings. The cast of this play is said to be far superior to anything Mr. Carter has ever sent out.

The city council is anxious that this portion of Pierce street should be paved this year and for this reason will, it is understood, concede to the wishes of the property owners. The situation on Pierce street as to the curb line is a somewhat peculiar one. When Pierce street was paved from Stutsman street to Oak street with brick a number of years ago the curb was moved back to make the street wider. FREMONT WINS FOOT BALL GAME, the Husky Nebraska Punters. With their team somewhat demoralized through accidents in previous games the who have been traveling in Europe for Council Bluffs High school boys had to go down in defeat yesterday afternoon at the Driving park before the foot ball players from the Fremont, Neb., High school The Nebraskins proved to be too much all round for the local team and won easily with a score of 16 to 0. The game was considered marred by the crowd treapassing over the gridiron, which interfered with the play. The game was not marked by any brilliant plays on either side.

In the first half Fremont kicked off to Council Bluffs' five-yard line and the locals lost the ball on downs. McDonald scored the first touchdown for the visitors and Connell the second. No goal.
