GENERAL CHAFFEE IN A WARM CORNER

An Incident Made from a Human Skull Recalls a Stirring Border Incident - Chaffee's Rescue from the Apaches.

On a writing desk in the Minneapolis office of a retired army officer of gallant record is a peculiar incident. Close scrutiny develops the fact that the receptacle for ink is a section of human vertebra, white from exposure to the weather, made of a single polished wooden board. It is highly valued by its owner, for it is a memento of a fight wherein he participated—a fight such as soldiers rarely know, one of the hottest in the history of the west.

South Omaha News.

sum. After the men had been missing some days inquiry was set on foot. It is said Goveles has not been seen since Sunday.

That Missing Bond.

That missing gas bond is causing the officials considerable uneasiness. A careful examination of the records of the city council Monday night, however, showed that the bond of the Omaha Gas company, in the sum of $5,000 to indemnify the city against loss by reason of excavations, was ever accepted by the council.

Stampede of Horses.

The stampede had been alarmed and had fled in the direction of one range. The two Sigby brothers had about 100 valuable horses and had taken time to gather them up from the range. The band was being held in front of the ranch house, ready to be driven away, when down the valley came the thunder of hooves.

Carnival Talk.

A great deal of interest is being manifested by business men in the proposition of the Commercial club to hold a carnival of some sort here next year. The committee appointed last Friday by President Flynn is composed of business men and will get to work at once upon plans for a celebration.

Bohemian Building Association.

Some day this week articles of incorporation will be filed at Lincoln by an organization to be known as the Bohemian Building and Loan association. These are the officers of the new company: Philip Zalinka, president; Joseph Sterba, vice president; Frank J. Fille, secretary; Frank Koutsky, treasurer. The directors are: J. M. Tobias, Frank Benak, Don Hlovka, Philip Zalinka, Joseph Dvorak, Michael Volence, Vlach Novak, James Sterba and Frank Thustus.

Council Meeting Tonight.

The city council will meet in adjourned session tonight. While nothing of great importance is looked for it may be that several matters of interest will be sprung. It is reported that Judge Montgomery will tender his resignation as city attorney, that W. C. Lambert, one of the best known attorneys in the city, will be appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Lambert has made a specialty of municipal law and is considered entirely qualified for the position.

Big Receipts Looked For.

From reports received at the stock yards yesterday it is predicted that the receipt of cattle this week will be very heavy and preparations are being made accordingly. Range cattle have been held back to some extent on account of the fire condition of the grass, which curiously the cattle are therefore in much better condition than formerly. A heavy run of hogs and sheep is also looked for.

Few Vacant Rooms.

City Clerk Shrigley has succeeded in locating nearly all of the nine registration booths and the list will be published in a day or two. When it comes to selecting election booths some difficulty will be encountered as there is a scarcity of vacant rooms or buildings. It is feared that tents will have to be used in the First and Fourth wards as so far suitable rooms have not been secured.

Magie City Gossip.

A meeting of the Board of Education is called for tonight. Mrs. B. E. Wilcox, who has been quite sick, is reported as better. Coal dealers have been notified of an advance of 50 cents per ton on mine run coal. Federal Labor union No. 712 will give a ball at the city hall on the evening of October 25. It is expected that bricklaying on the new Corrigan school building will commence today. John P. Schultz, republican candidate for state senator, leaves today for a campaign tour through the country.
