

COLONIZING IN NEW YORK

State Superintendent of Election Says Organized Effort at Fraud is Now on Foot. MAYOR AND POLICE OFFICIALS WARNED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—John McCullagh, state superintendent of elections for the metropolitan district, today sent out several letters to the authorities of this city...

The past experience of this department demonstrates very clearly that the sources of the illegal vote are chiefly found in the pool rooms, gambling houses, disorderly houses, houses of prostitution, saloons run under the guise of hotels in order to evade the provisions of the excise law and dives of every name and kind.

McCullagh tells at some length details the successful prosecution of illegal voters and their sponsors after the election of November, 1899, and calls attention to the fact that the evidence in these cases showed that they were engineered by persons having official connection with the city government...

Mr. McCullagh then submits the addresses of over 200 saloons or other resorts alleged to be of the character mentioned and says that if prompt action is not taken by chief Deery in suppressing these resorts he will invoke the aid of the state authorities...
