Ex-Governor Stone of Missouri Tries to Steal Republican Glory by Declaring that the Democrats Always Favored Expansion.

Oct. 8.—Several thousand the republican party for raising and expendpersons, among whom were many women, braved the elements tonight and attended the democratic mass meeting at Music halt Rain fell in torrepts during the early part of the evening. The attractions as announced included ex-Governor William J Stone of Missouri, Former Senator A. P. Gorman of this city and a number of wellcnown local speakers. When Chairman James Smith called the meeting to order he introduced James D. Richardson of Tenuessee, chairman of the democratic congressional committee. Mr. Richardson explained o the audience that he had visited Baltimore unexpectedly and was not prepared to make a speech, but stated that he had been requested to read to the assemblage a letter which had been received from "Maryand's favorite son" the Hon. Senator Gorman's letter was written at Laurel, Md., and it opened with an expression of regret at his inability to attend the meeting owing to his ill health. The senator then declared in part as follows:

The democratic platform aptly and truly says that "the paramount issue of the campaign is the burning issue of imperialism." When that shall have been disposed of we can devise and formulate legislation for just taxation, the regulation of combinations of capital, which injuriously affect the individual, the manner of choosing United States senators, upon the details of which questions men of the same political faith now differ.

The attempt by the republicans to make

That question was four years ago the logical product of conditions which no longer exist. The phenomenal addition made to the volume of gold since 1895—an amount equal to if not greater than all the coin in circulation on the first of January of that year—removes the question from the domain of controversy. This condition, together with the immense balance of trade in our favor, has been brought about by natural causes, which the ingenialty and enterprise of our people have utilized. For the republican party to claim it as the fruit of its virtuous and enlightened statemantship is too preposterous for serious consideration.

For Bryan and Stevenson.

The sole hope of arresting the present rescklers progress of imperialism, with its concemitants of large standing armies and growing lust of acquisition, is in the triumph of the democratic ticket next month.

The terror of imperialism is a bogey. I mean American imperialism. It has been tried for an hundred years. It was presided by Washington, it was tested upon an enormous scale by Jefferson, it was put in operation by Monroe, Jackson, Polk and Pierce. All gave it their sanction, all of them to the great glory and power of our country pursued the same path of imperialism which is now being trod by President McKinley. American militarism, which Mr. Bryan so much fears and from which he prophesies such dreadful results, was also tried by Jefferson in Louisiana, by Jackson in Fiorida, by every administration in newly-acquired territories from time to time with no other result than their pacification, the restoration of peace, the opening of courts and the protection of life, liberty and property of the citizen. A prophet who attempts to fool the perple by holding up as untried the theory demonstrated by results and upon that theory predicting the reverse of what history has established insults the intelligence of every person familiar with the marvelous growth of the United

Mr. Bryan does not deny the wonderful prosperity of our country and of our people; he does not promise any better returns to the farmer, or to the manufacturer, or the merchant; he does not promise any greater employment or higher wages to the employe; he does not promise the exploitation of new enterprises and the conditions which make money plenty, by new additions to the productive powers of the country, and therefore a larger employment and a greater distribution of money. The country is to be no better than it is today or was yesterday or was by his election, even on his own showing upon his own prophecy and promise. ind promise.

The only party which has ever attempted to meet the trust issue is the republican party. It enacted the Sherman anti-trust iaw, which is the only effective law upon the books on that subject. It passed the constitutional amendment in the house of representatives with every democratic vote except seven against it. I look in vain in Mr. Bryan's speeches for a definition of a trust or how to control it.

Outside of agriculture eight-tenths of the business of the country is transacted in corporate form. The reason is that the tremendous competition of our times requires great capital to successfully conduct these enterprises. This capital has to be the result of the contribution of many. Any legislation or action preventing the operating of these plants would throw eight-tenths of the skilled labor out of employment and produce the most disastrous

Chicago Favors New Creed.
CHICAGO. Oct. 8.—The presbytery of Chicago decided today to recommend to the general assembly the preparation of a supplementary creed. The report of the committee making the recommendation was made by a vote of 89 to 18 after a discussion lasting five hours. Three attempts were made to amend the report of the committee. One, by Rev. D. C. Marquis of the McCormick seminary, was in the form of a substitute recording the presbytery as against any change. Rev. William R. Notman offered an amendment favoring a new short evangelical creed and Rev. John Joseph A. Vance urged a complete and full supplemental creed. Both amendments and the amendment of Dr. Marquis were defeated by a substantial majority, the presbytery showing at all times in the discussion that it was in favor of a new creed, or at least a substantial change in the present one.

ROOSEVELT NOW AT ST. LOUIS

insted Those Great Men.

EAST ST. LOUIS, III., Oct. 8 .- Governor Roosevelt tonight concluded his tour of Illinois, speaking in this city to the largest audience assembled here since the McKinley-Bryan campaign of four years ago. Various republican organizations of this county and St. Louis vied with each other in doing honor to the vice presidential candidate. Governor Roosevelt betrayed no token of weariness, notwithstanding he had made speeches at many towns in the state en route, the most notable of which was at Springfield. There the governor refrained from discussing finance, trusts and such topics, he said:

He sacrificed himself in death that his people should know not only liberty but the union that symbolized order as well. Fundamentally every great question that arises can be solved by following his advice. Lincoln came into prominence by his great debate with Douglas when they were opposed against each other, but when the honor of the flag was at stake Douglas turned and upheld the hands of his great rival. So we have a right to appeal to

My time and labor will to the utmost possible extent be devoted to assisting the state and national committees in the organization of the forces of hostility to the new and dangerous doctrines exploited by President McKinley in the acquisition and forcible occupation of the Philippine islands and their government as a colony.

My opposition to this sinister and absorber the election of Bryan, and the greatist danger of this is that no one thinks there is any danger of him being elected. I believe Bryan is honest. He is the more dangerous for being so. He has a solid south back of him and stands on a platic from the car windows and each leaning for ward waved his hat in salutation. Colonel Bryan and Judge Yates, however, had held quite an extended conversation and the women of the respective parties exchanged courtesies and bouquets.

There is no democratic party today. It is now known as Bryanism, and down our ward waved his hat in salutation. Colonel Bryan and Judge Yates, however, had held quite an extended conversation and the women of the respective parties exchanged courtesies and bouquets.

The Roosevelt special arrived here at 11 o'clock, three hours behind time, and the greatest that must necessarily court back of him and stands on a platic from the car windows and each leaning for ward waved his hat in salutation.
