

JEFFCOAT GETS THE PLACE

Nomination for Congress by the Second District Republicans Settled.

MOREARTY ABANDONS HIS OBJECTION

Contest Started by Him Allowed to Go by Democrat When Voted Before Secretary of State Porter.

LINCOLN, Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Secretary of State Porter today declared against the nomination of the second congressional district of Nebraska...

L. V. Gage, representing the faction which nominated Jefferson, a week ago in a democratic caucus...

Chairman of the committee and secretary of State Porter, in a public hearing, he was asked to nominate the candidates on the populist state ticket...

The case is being prosecuted at the expense of the fusion campaign committee. The brief filed today was prepared by A. S. Tibbets of this city and M. F. Harrington of O'Neill.

Certificates of nomination of Paul C. Burhans by the prohibitionists for congressman in the Fourth district and A. C. Sherman by the fusionists for congressman in the Fifth district were filed with the secretary of state today.

Anti-Thompson Men Will Hold. The anti-Thompson element, led by C. O. Wheldon, J. B. Struble and F. M. Hall, have arranged to hold a mass meeting in the Oliver theater Tuesday evening, October 10.

Secretary of State Porter has prepared a sample form of ballot to be certified to the various county clerks. It is similar in most respects to the unofficial ballot prepared and printed under his direction several days ago.

The Educational council and the Superintendents and Principals' Association of Nebraska will begin a four-day convention in this city tomorrow evening.

At the first session President P. Dowling will read a report dealing with the work of private schools and Miss Lillian U. Stoner, representing a special committee, will submit a report concerning normal schools.

MINNEN, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Minden has passed through a war between the refiners of petroleum, which resulted in a drop in the price of kerosene...

Previous to 1898 Minden was supplied with illuminating oil by the Standard Oil company. That year the Schofield Oil company entered the field, quoting a lower price than the Ohio company, the difference being in the freight rate, the latter company laying down the oil at railroad rates, while the Standard company charged full local rates.

As soon as competition entered the field the Standard declared war, two firms, the members of which are ardent supporters of Mr. Bryan, being employed by the trust to handle its product. The price of oil was reduced to 3 cents a gallon by the trust representatives. The other merchants entered and decided to patronize the competing company. They have continued to sell oil at 12 cents a gallon until this week, when the Standard Oil company declared the fight off and consented to divide the territory with its competitor, rates being restored all around.

Minden people have taken advantage of the opportunity to study the methods of the Standard company and the actions of Bryanites in fighting monopoly.

KILLS HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW

Wife-Beater Near Holbrook Meets Death at the Hands of the Woman's Brother.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Carl Bartenbach was shot and instantly killed by his brother-in-law, Herman Keilbeck, last night at the home of the latter, two miles south of Holbrook. Bartenbach and his wife have been frequent quarrels. A year ago he was arrested for wife-beating. He and his wife were having another of their frequent troubles yesterday. In the evening, to escape the wrath of her husband, who threatened to kill her, she fled to the home of her brother, a half-mile distant. Following her there, Bartenbach was met at the door by Keilbeck, who shot him through the heart. The weapon used was a shotgun. Keilbeck went at once to Holbrook, giving himself up to the officers. The coroner and sheriff left Beaver City early this morning for the scene of the tragedy. Public sentiment is entirely with Keilbeck, who is a respected and prosperous German.
