POLICE GET PACKAGE THIEF

Recover Three Hundred Dollars Worth of Stolen Property and Arrest "Fence."

As a result of the arrest of Charles Clark, allas "Kid" Mitchell, on a charge of sitealing packages from the delivery wagons of various express companies, over $390 worth of stolen goods have been found by the police. Most of this loot was uncarthed in a pawnshop near Tenth and Farnam streets. The pawnbroker, who served as a "tence" for Ciark, was in jail two days before he would admit having the goods in his possession. During the last two months every express

Saturday afternoon the Adams Express company notified the police station by 'phone that a package had just been stolen from one of its wagons near Fifteenth and Dodge screets. Officer Baidwin of the bicycle corps, being assigned to the case, "scorched" to the scene and arrived in time to find a little boy who had seen the theit committed. Just as the driver entered a business house to make a delivery, said the boy, a man walked up to the wagon in a very business-like way, took out a large package and hastened with it into the Central hotel on the opposite corner. Baldwin traced the thief to his room and found him unwrapping a package, which contained a suit of clothes. "This is a nice suit," said Baldwin, feeling the fabric between his thumb and finger. "Yes, I just had it sent up from the tailor's," answered Clark.

"Let's see if it fits, try it on." "No, I haven t got time now." But Baluwin was very much interested in matters sartorial just then. He thought he seems to be taken by democrats in the legimight have to order a fall suit soon and wanted to see what kind of work that tatior did. So Clark, despite his protests, tried on the suit and tried to conceal the fact that

As for the national ticket, another poli tician remarked that it would not surprise him a bit to see South Omaha give a ma d jority for McKinley.
