At Tal Yuen Fu, Shansi, June 27-Miss Coombs of the Shayong (independent Baptist) English mission, England. The evidence of her death is a letter in German, dated July 6, and seen by Mr. Stevenson of the China inland mission, in which it is stated there was a riot June 27, in which Dr. Edwards' hospital was destroyed and Miss Coombs killed (by being thrown into the burning building.)

It is believed that all of the missionaries who were in Tal Yuen Fu at the time of Miss Coombs' death were massacred on the 9th of July. There were there only thirtyone names, six short of the number said to have been massacred, according to Chinese official reports, but it is known those living at places near to the capital were urged by the local officials to take refuge in Tai Yuen, because (as they afterward said), they were unwilling to kill the missionaries, and sent them to Yu Hsien, the governor, to butche Supposed to have been killed at Tai Yuen Fu, July 9-Rev.
