History of Hundreds of Others.

"This is the history of hundreds of socalled Coxeyites in the last four years; is fact any of them with a trade might have done as well as I if they had wanted to work. And to my certain knowledge they "-General appreciate that wages are high and work plenty and they are not going to vote to bring about any change." Kelley spoke of his visit here in 1894, when he piloted 2,085 men across the river pm to Council Bluffs. "We didn't have a bit am of trouble getting along." he remarked with a smile, "everybody was glad to speed us out of his particular neighborhood. Of course we failed to get the public roads bill through, but there was some consolation in the river and harbor Ticket Offices Southeast bill. Out on the coast everything looks republican and we'll do a little better for McKinley in California than we did four years ago. The coast is strong for expansion, because it is bound to give the Pacific slope commercial opportunities." Mr. Kelley is on a well earned vacation just now and will visit his mother and other relatives in Chicago. The state committee is anxious to secure his services for a short speech-making tour in Nebraska and it is probable that an arrangebraska and it is probable that an arrange ment will be made.
