HANNA COMES TO NEBRASKA
Ohio Senator Will Make Twenty-Four Addresses in the State.

WILL NOT DUPLICATE ROOSEVELT TOUR
Chairman of National Committee Will Combine His Efforts to Eastern Part of State—Last Meeting in Omaha.

Senator MAURICE A. Hanna will be more generous with his voice in Nebraska than was at first hoped for by the state committee, making twenty-four addresses in his brief stay instead of four, as at first announced. As soon as the state committee discovered that Senator Hanna would be willing to labor unsparingly it set such a high price for him as has never been exceeded even by Colonel Roosevelt.

The county committee which has charge of Senator Hanna's reception in this city is already laying plans to give him a royal welcome. It is not considered wise to attempt another such street spectacle as that which greeted Roosevelt so soon after that occasion and a reception will probably be arranged in his honor instead. It is expected that Mr. Hanna will prefer to rest in the two hours before the meeting and to very formal demonstration will be made.

The meeting in Omaha will be held at the Capitol avenue pavilion and will be addressed by Senator Frye in addition to the speaker of the evening. The present intention is to give the first speech to Senator Hanna in order that he may finish his night's work in South Omaha. There is no hall in the Magic City of adequate size and the senator may appear on two platforms there. It will be a hard night's work, but it will conclude the tour and Mr. Hanna will return to his duties in Chicago without delay.

Will Traverse Eastern Part of State.
Senator Hanna's Nebraska stops will not extend far into the western part of the state, his attention being confined to more thickly settled portions. It does not duplicate at any point the itinerary of Roosevelt, who penetrated as far west as North Platte and McCook. "It will be a good deal easier for Hanna to make fifteen speeches a day than one long address," remarked a state committee man. "It's exactly the same as exercising your arm for five minutes and then resting for a half hour, rather than to give it exercise for two hours with a rest all day. That's the secret of Roosevelt and Bryan keeping their voices so much better than Cockran for example. Hanna's sixty-two speeches in the four days will exhaust him less than a half dozen ten-hour addresses."

Previous to his arrival in Nebraska, Senator Hanna will travel for two days in Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas. His Nebraska engagements are as follows:

October 10, Emerson, 9 a. m.; Valhalla, 2 p. m.; Waverly, 7 p. m.; Hastings, 10 p. m.; North Platte, 12 p. m.; Madison, 12, 4 p. m.; York, 4 1/2 p. m.; Plattsmouth, 7 p. m.; Council Bluffs, 10 p. m.; Omaha, 12 p. m.; Fremont, 2 p. m.; Wahoo, 12, 4 p. m.; Hastings, 10 p. m.; North Platte, 12 p. m.; McCook, 12, 4 p. m.; Lincoln, 12, 4 p. m.; Omaha, 12 p. m.; Fremont, 2 p. m.; Wahoo, 12, 4 p. m.; Hastings, 10 p. m.; North Platte, 12 p. m.; McCook, 12, 4 p. m.; Lincoln, 12, 4 p. m.; Omaha, 12 p. m.

POPULIST JURIST MAKES MISTAKE.
Admits to Republican Acquiescence About Prosecutors' Look Policy.

A Saunders county republican committeeman remarked humorously yesterday upon the error of Judge S. H. Sorghum, one of the two populist jurists in the county, in betraying his hopeless attitude to a populist republican. The republican was a democrat in the days of 1886 and was aware of his change of heart. The judge said to him after a tour of western Nebraska that the meetings were useless and the crowds small. "Unless the eastern part of the state gives us a heavy majority they'll stay out in the western part," concluded the jurist confidentially to the supposed democrat.

"Added to the glowing reports brought in from western Nebraska by republican campaigners," remarked the committeeman, "such a gloomy democratic report as this is significant."

DIES AND LEAVES NO WORD
Swedish Carpenter Shoots Himself in a Yard on Webster Street.

HAD BEEN ACTING STRANGELY OF LATE

Leaves Letter Giving Directions as to Disposal of His Effects, but Fails to Tell Why He Killed Himself.

John Nelson, a Swedish carpenter, living at 1014 Webster street, committed suicide Thursday evening by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun. The body was found in the front yard of that number about 6:30 a. m. yesterday by Mrs. Sward, a fellow boarder. It is believed that Nelson has been of unusual mind for some time, as his conduct has been strange and he was frequently overheard talking to himself.

The deceased was about 32 years old and unmarried. His only immediate relatives are two sisters and a brother, all of whom live in the city. He leaves no property save a $400 interest in a building and loan association, a $100 bank deposit and a small amount of money which was found in his pocket. He was a member in good standing of a carpenter's guild, No. 472, as evinced by two working cards on his person.

The body is now at the coroner's undertaking room, where it is being prepared for burial. No inquest will be held.

Made Desperate Preparations.
Finding himself alone at the Webster street boarding house Thursday evening, the family having gone to church, Nelson began the gruesome preparations for suicide. He loaded an old single-barreled shotgun, known as a "Zulu," with a buckshot cartridge, then sitting on the handle of a broom, he drove a nail into one end and repaired it to the front yard.

It was then about 9:20 p. m. The electric light at Twentieth and Webster streets was burning brightly but some shrubbery intervening between it and the yard, most of the green yard was in deep shadow. Nelson lay down upon it, placed the stock of the weapon between his feet and the muzzle against his forehead, then, looking the nail on the broomstick into the trigger, gave a push. There was a loud report and a thin haze of smoke hung over the prosaic form.

The neighborhood in which this occurred is densely populated, and that the report was not heard by at least a dozen families living in the immediate vicinity seems almost incredible, but it was only Dr. J. E. Morrow, who lives next door, heard it. He went out to inquire its cause, expecting to see excited people running hither and thither, but there was no one in sight. The street was deserted. Beyond the fact that nearly every house in the neighborhood was lighted at 9:30, he could see nothing.

The doctor might have thought his sense of hearing had deceived him had it not been that the air was charged with the odor of burning gunpowder. This prompted him to make an investigation. He walked around his own house, then crossed over into the yard of No. 1014. He must have passed within three feet of the body, but in the darkness it eluded his scrutiny, and he finally gave up the search, convinced that some political enthusiast had shot off a firecracker.

Family Misses Nelson.
When the family returned from church an hour later they discovered several unusual circumstances. Nelson was not in his room in the house, though a light on his door was burning. His bicycle, which he never failed to carry up stairs before dark, was still standing on the porch.

Next day morning when Mrs. Sward, one of the boarders, looked out of the front door the mystery was solved. There lay the body upon the grass, the gun by its side. The entire top of the head was blown away, the brain and several fragments of skull being scattered about. The coroner and police were notified at once.

Mrs. Augusta Johnson, Nelson's landlady, says he had acted strangely for several weeks. "He was a man who never talked much," said she. "His boys of late he has been mooping about the house moping to himself. There was something the matter with one of his arms, and he was despondent for it. He hasn't worked for a month or more."

A letter addressed to his brother, William Nelson, a lampighter, was found on a stand in his room, but it contains no direct reference to his suicide, being devoted entirely to a disposition of his effects.

Confesses to Big Robbery.
JAMES PLEASANT, Oct. 12—Bert Waite, 32 years old, who was arrested at Upper Lake on Wednesday, charged with robbing the president of the First National bank of Berkeley, has confessed to having robbed the United States Express company at Ravenna, O. Early in August last August, he was acting as agent of the express company at Ravenna, abandoned with over $4,000 in money and bank notes. Three days before his departure he withheld from delivery every package of value that came through his office. When he thought he had enough he took the train for the west and has since been the prey of sharpers.

IN IT TEN YEARS.
An Unconscious Slave to Coffee.
"I had not the slightest idea that coffee was the cause of my continued sickness for the last ten years until I quit its use and took up Postum Food Coffee. I never had a natural movement of the bowels during a number of years because of chronic constipation, and I was constantly under the influence of medicine."
"Very frequently, just after breakfast, a dizziness would come on, which would quiet me to lie down and remain absolutely quiescent until relief came. I was also the victim of severe headaches, and in several all the time. Two years ago last winter I suddenly secured to me that it was possible coffee was the real cause of my trouble."
"I therefore procured a package of Postum Food Coffee and began its use in place of coffee. At first I did not like it and found some difficulty in sticking to my resolution, but I persevered and soon discovered that I had not made it properly. When it is boiled long enough it has a delicious Java coffee taste and a beautiful, deep, rich brown color, altogether it makes a charming beverage."
"I soon grew very fond of it. In fact I liked it better than I did the old coffee. A very little change in my health secured and this gradually increased until in about two months I discovered a marked change began to manifest itself. The bowels resumed their natural functions and the old dizziness feeling disappeared entirely, also the headaches."
"This complete change in health fixed my mind permanently and forever, never, under any circumstances, to go back to a drug that had held me a slave for ten long years. A curious thing about all this is that people do not realize the cause of their troubles. They go on year after year, just as I had, in drugging themselves with something that holds them in a condition of sickness and they don't seem to wake up to understand what it is that is the cause of the trouble. If such people could bring themselves to leave off coffee and use Postum Food Coffee the trial would tell its own tale. Please omit my name. Name and address will be given by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich."

HOPE TO CARRY NICKELS TO VOTE.
Republicans Encouraged Over Prospects in Populist Stronghold.

"Since the dawn of populism, in fact, we have never been able to elect even a single republican," remarked a. J. Miller of Lincoln county yesterday. "Last fall, however, the republicans secured five of the county offices, which is a sure enough sign of better things in store. Today we have a McKinley club in the little town of Nelson of over 400 voters, a great many of them of course being farmers from the surrounding country. Among that number I know of thirty men other old Bryan enthusiasts of those some coming into their first vote who will vote the republican ticket without a scratch. Four years ago we could hardly muster a republican squad at a meeting, but now our hall isn't half empty at the weekly meetings. We keep our hall open all day with a man in charge to give out literature."

"I am in Omaha now to see if I can't arrange to have some big speaker come to Nelson before the campaign ends. We only want one address, but it ought to be a good one. Towne has been there for the funding jobs. We rely for the most part on personal work in Nebraska, but just the same we could stand for one good speech."

TREASURER CALLS FOR BONDS
Large Amount of Indebtedness to Be Wiped Out of Existence

November 1, the city of Omaha will for the first time in its history wipe out a large amount of its bonded indebtedness. CITY Treasurer Hastings has issued a call for $4,100 of funding bonds which were issued November 1, 1880. These bonds number from 1 to 121 and will be paid upon presentation at Knicker Bros' banking house in New York.

Heretofore the sinking fund has been used for paying interest only, but the collection of taxes was unusually large this year and enough money was turned into the fund to liquidate this issue of funding bonds. In 1872 these bonds were originally issued to provide for floating indebtedness. They bore 10 per cent interest and were called in 1880 when they were redeemed by funding bonds which drew interest at the rate of 7 per cent.

In the twenty-eight years which the city has allowed this $4,100 to remain outstanding interest to the amount of $145,420, or more than twice the principal, has been paid.
