Three bids for the steam heating plant at the Corrigan school were opened by the KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—The case against sconard H. Imboden, who in September. 29. was sentenced to the penitentiary for Board of Education last night and as there Leonard H. Informer, who in september. 1829, was sentenced to the pendentiary for ten years for conducting a "wild cat" bank was today dismissed. Imboden had ap-pealed to the state supreme court, which recently decided that there was not suffi-tent evidence produced to warrant courde-tion. When the case was called today for retrini the prosecuting attorney, having secured no new evidence, decided that it was useless to proaccute the case further. Imboden was charged with starting the Planters' bank in Kansas City without capital and with forging a draft for $15,000 to obtain capital. Imboden formerly lived at Dailas. Tex., and is well connected. He has in the last fifteen years been connected with numerous fand and hoom schemes in Texas and Kansas. the secretary was instructed to readvertise.
