

FIXES IT FOR FUSIONISTS

Secretary of State Porter Adjusts the Triple-Jointed Party Name.

INTENDED TO HELP OUT THE POPULISTS

Fear that Some Might Be Led Into Voting for the Mid-Road Candidates Brings About New Arrangement on Ballot.

LINCOLN, Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The fusionists have been made through the "Cleveland administration," he continued, "that have been made during the three years of the McKinley administration there would have been no necessity for borrowing money on bonds and we would have saved interest charges on the big block that Cleveland issued, which will amount to $24,000,000 during the entire life of the bonds."

The case of J. H. Edmiston and Secretary of State Porter against Taylor Fink of Chester county was argued and submitted to the supreme court this afternoon. This case is the appeal from the writ of mandamus issued by Judge Holmes of the district court, which ordered Secretary Porter to certify to the various county clerks the nominations of the populist party. The secretary has already given to the party the name "mid-road populist."

Decisions in the following cases were affirmed: Andrew against Turner-Frazier Mercantile company, Jefferson county; Gallagher against Globe Loan and Trust company, Douglas county; Richey against Austin, Dawson county; Bank of Gothenburg against Cover, Dawson county. Sheriff Clark returned to Kalamazoo county, Mich., this morning with Charles Eganston, wanted there for bank robbery. Before leaving Eganston admitted that he was the man who had robbed the bank. The authorities assert that Eganston has already incriminated himself by giving state's evidence against several men who were convicted and are now serving sentences in the penitentiary.

OPERA HOUSE IS CROWDED

Congressman Hopkins and Governor Dietrich Address Big Demonstration at Beatrice.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Hopkins of Illinois and Governor Dietrich addressed an immense audience at the Publick opera house tonight. The house, which has a seating capacity of 1,200, was packed almost to the rafters. The meeting was presided over by a torchlight procession of the Uniformed and Bluebonnet clubs of the city. Mr. Hopkins spoke of the democratic party now known as the Bryanites instead of democrats and in a forcible manner pointed out the weak spots in the platform of the party.

Mr. Hopkins was followed by Governor Dietrich in an impassioned speech, which was heartily and frequently applauded. Governor Dietrich's speech was a vote giver. There was a notable difference in the makeup of the two crowds assembled to hear Maubach and Hopkins tonight and it was a matter of record that the greater portion of the republican audience was composed of workmen, who expressed themselves as having no desire to listen to any more populist doctrine.

Hon. James Maubach addressed a fair sized audience in the Auditorium tonight on the fusion issue. The speaker, who is chairman of the fusion issue committee, called the small assemblage of people to order at 8:30 and introduced A. S. Tibbets, fusion candidate for the senate, as the first speaker. John H. Miller, also candidate for the senate, spoke next and the meeting was closed by T. J. Doyle, candidate for representative. All candidates their remarks to a bitter denunciation of D. E. Thompson.

C. O. Whedon and J. W. Johnson, who were reported as the principal movers in arranging for the meeting, were seen by spectators, occupying seats in an obscure portion of the gallery, but both left before the speaking was finished. The meeting was in every way a disappointment to the fusionists, who did not deny tonight that they were responsible for it being held.

FUSION MEETING FALLS FLAT

Lincoln Citizens Decline to Rally to Support of the Attack on Thompson.

LINCOLN, Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Not over 150 voters attended the Lincoln fusion mass meeting tonight and a large majority of those present were fusionists. The affair was widely advertised in advance and a meeting of the republican party was held at the same time. The republican party was composed of workmen, who expressed themselves as having no desire to listen to any more populist doctrine.

FUSION RALLY AT BEATRICE

Only a Small Crowd Shows Up to Hear Sovereign and Cyclone Davis.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The fusionists who had planned a calendar to be the gala demonstration of the Bryanites in this county this fall, for the past six weeks (the meeting has been largely advertised and hands and rain corps galore were hired to furnish music and entertainers for the occasion, but when the time came to hold the large crowd expected to arrive before noon failed to arrive, however, and the outside prospects were represented by only a few farmers who had driven to witness the show and listen to the speakers billed for the afternoon.

DEBS PLEADS HIS OWN CAUSE

Socialist Candidate for President Presents His Party's Aims and Objects.

DESTRUCTION OF COMPETITIVE SYSTEM AND SUBSTITUTION OF CO-OPERATION PICTURED IN A LARGE CROWD AT WASHINGTON HALL.

Eugene V. Debs opened his campaign in Omaha as candidate of the social democratic party for president last night at Washington hall, which was crowded to the doors to hear him. The stage was filled with sympathizers and there was little room left in the gallery. Mr. Debs was introduced by Joseph Ryan, chairman of the social democratic organization, who is also an old acquaintance of the candidate, and spoke for two hours and three-quarters, eliciting the closest attention, winning generous and frequent applause and meeting with but a single apparently unfriendly interruption.

WILL ELIMINATE ALL THE MISERY

Debs declared that democrats and republicans are but sections of the same party and in the final clash with socialism they will be together. The democratic party claims to have been regenerated, but it is believed that they are all getting back this year. Cleveland is in favor of Bryan, but the managers will not let him say so because it would hurt the cause. Bourke Cockran, Grolier, Hill and Carl Schurz, as well as servants of capitalism, are all for Bryan. The trusts don't care who is elected. There are a variety of issues every year over which to fight but socialism and this year there is a paramount issue. Neither platform mentions the word capitalism. It's the workmen over whom they are working themselves into premature graves. Imperialism, he declared, to be "the most ridiculous proposition of them all." The difference between the democratic and republican parties, so far as the workmen is concerned, he said, is whether the laboring man prefers to be shot by a regular soldier or a member of the national guard.

THOMPSON AND HARRINGTON SPEAK

WISNER, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The republican rally here last night, with "Mike" Harrington and the "Little Giant," W. H. Thompson, as the attractions. There were less than 200 voters at the meeting and one-third of these were republicans, bent upon hearing what the expert farmer and all standing room at the opera house was occupied notwithstanding the fact that the night was very dark and stormy. How much the audience was interested and how well the speakers catered them is evidenced by the fact that a man left his seat to go to the front to witness the two men it can be said that their speeches were good, both being well received and they were listened to attentively by the small audience.
