LINCOLN, Oct. 22.-(Special)-if the plans of the county central committee are carried into effect President Jacob Gould Schurman of Cornell university will deliver the closing address of the republican campaign in this city on the evening of October 29. ### Farmers Are in the Fight.

Reports received at the headquarters indicate that interest in the election is not configed to the city, but that the farmers in the country precincts are aroused and impatient to record their votes. A thorough poil of Lancaster county shows gains in every precinct and if all of the republicans polled vote on election day the republican plurality will exceed that of any election in the past four years. Chairman Cochrane has devoted special attention to the work in the country precincts and he looks for as good returns from them as from the city precincts. Ordinarily the country falls a little behind, but this is easily explained by the fact that populism all over the state is stronger with the farmers than with any other class.

It is on this theory, too, that the managers of the fusion campaign have been basing their efforts in behalf of the fusion tickets. They have centered their fight on the legislative licket and are making practically no effort to gain votes for the other fusion candidates. Poynter's name has not been mentioned by the fusionists during the campaign and it is conceded now that be will run far behind the state ticket in this county. Many of the candidates for scouring the county that their places were filled by the committee. No Lincoln man could be induced to accept the fusion nomination for county attorney and to make the ticket complete a Havelock man was named for that office.

Story of Sherman's Life.

John Sherman was born at Lancaster, O. May 10, 1823. He was educated at Howe's academy and was admitted to the bar May 11, 1844. He was married August 30, 1848, to Cecilia, daughter of Judge Stewart, at Mansfield, O. He was a delegate to the national whig conventions in 1848 and 1852.

From December 3, 1855, when he took his seat in the house of representatives as a member of congress from Ohio, until April 26, 1898, when he retired from publie life, he was a man of prominence in national affairs.
