TAMMANYITES GIVEN GLUT OF ICE TRUST

Remarks of the Governor Concerning the Virtuous Mr. Croker and His Own Special Monopoly Make His Auditors Cheer.

speeches, yet he finished his day's work in of Jackson." splendid shape, his voice at tonight's meetings being loud and clear. The crowds the new opera house for the addresses and were good. The three largest places the party was driven there in carriages dressed a large outdoor meeting, and at walked on the stage. He said in part eral speeches, the action of Aguinaldo in issue in this campaign accepting $400,000 from the Spaniards to cense hostilities and his subsequent action in resuming the war against Spain.

At Oneonta the governor stated that he appealed to them for the continuance in power in both state and nation of the administration which they now knew. The governor referred his hearers to the object leason made by the government of the state with the times of 1897.

Appeal to Civil War Veterans. At Otsego the governor referred to the fact that some of the crowd wore the Grand Army button and appealed to them to support the government in civil life as they had in the days of the civil war. At Unadilla the governor had only proceeded a short way in his speech when he was interrupted by a shout, "What's the matter with the trusts?" "The ice trust?" queried the governor.

The governor said:

by an individual who kept calling out o clock when the train pulled out of the "Hurrah for Bryan!" at intervals. Perceiv-station and started up the Catskill mouning his condition the governor at first paid tains. man.

Great Crowd at Arkville.

PINEHILL, N. Y., Oct. 28.-At this place there was a spiendid gathering, with ban- Newburgh and George J. Smith of Kingston ners and flags. The governor referred to went with the party from here. a banner which was being upheld in the crowd. "I see here on your banner, 'No Fifty-cent dollars for us.' That is an issue of which we have a right to appeal to every republican. I would like to ask you

At Arkville the governor left the train term of office and said for the first time during the day's trip and took his place on a platform erected for him. There was gathered the largest crowd of the day, augmented by a reception by killing the patient.

I will join most heartily in any honest, and bitterly denounced the administration's policy in regard to those islands.

Funeral of Charles Dudley Warner.

him was eighty-six one-hundredths, or the Bryanite, said: "I am tempted to ask today about an ounce and a half, comparing the population to the size of the army.

GOVERNOA GROWS SARCASTIC

Popocratte Shouters for Bryan Given Rebuke that Drives Them to Their Holes.

STAMFORD, N. Y., Oct. 23.-Governor Roosevelt and his party reach Stamford at 12:55. Considering the size of the village a large crowd greeted them. A short stop vas made at Roxbury, a few miles below

The old way: the hale and nearty way of living was a dinner pill after a hearty meal.

Neglect the pill and you have the new way of indigestion and dyspepsia. You can eat without repenting by taking one Ayer's Pill afterwards.

J. C. AYER COMPANY, Practical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla Ayer's Agus Cure

Ayer's Hair Vigor Ayer's Cherry Pectural Ayer's Comatons

ALL ABLAZE FOR ROOSEVELT and the governor had been angered by a rosumed Mr.

"Hurrah for Bryan" said the governor. "Why do you hurran for Bryan? When any man says 'hurran for Bryan' I always feel like asking, 'Why?'

A roice-"They can't answer." That's it, because Mr. Bryan has an and stated, "A ton of oratory is not worth nounced that Mr. Croker is the prophet of Tammany hall and the state is why they hurral for Bryan. "Again, why hurrah for Bryan? For the prospect of cutting in two the nation's debt by the simple process of cutting in two the nation's honor. Is that a good reason for saying 'Hurrah for Bryan?' Why don't you hurrah for Aguinaldo? You will give NORWICH, N. Y., Oct. 23.-Governor the greatest possible comfort to every Roosevelt finished the second day of his Malay bandit who is shooting at the flag if New York state campaign in Norwich to- you help or aid the Bryanized democracy night, speaking to a large audience. He in any way. I make a distinction between traveled today 159 miles and made fourteen the Bryanized democracy and the democracy

The committee at Stamford had secured stopped at today were Stamford, where he An audience that tested the capacity of the spoke in a hall; Oneonta, where he ad- house greeted Governor Roosevelt as he dressed a large outdoor meeting, and at Bloomville. At Bloomville he said:

I want to call your attention to a little incident that occurred last might in New York. I think you can sometimes know a man by the company he keeps. There was a Bryan meeting last might in New York, in Cooper Union, I think at that meeting the morning papers report that the people who were most enthusiatically cheered was proper to cheer for one if you cheer for the other. It was proper to cheer the man who has been striking at our soldlers New Link of a party that relies on that aind of support, symbolized by the man who cheered Aligeid and Aguinaldo. One of the speakers is reported to have spoken of Aguinalde as a great apostle of freedom, and a few months ago a certain Bryanite alluded to him as a second George Washington. You may yot be familiar with Aguinaido's history, so I will give it to you briefly.

Continuing he reviewed, as he had in several speeches, the action of Aguinalds in accepting $400,000 from the Spaniards to

NOT WORRIED BY DISTURBERS

Roosevelt Able to Stand It If Men Can Stand the Replies They Get.

KINGSTON, N. Y. Oct. 22,-Despite the under the republican party. He asked his serious strain of the numerous speeches service which is suspended when a presihearers to contrast the hard times of 1894 made yesterday Governor Roosevelt found dent is inaugurated until he can fill the his throat in excellent condition this morn- offices with his friends and is extended by ing when he arose. He had declined the the president when he is about to retire, in numerous invitations to rest at private order that he may protect his friends in houses and slept on the special train at office. I believe that a system of civil "the noisiest place," as he described it. service might be devised wherein appointsince he began his trip. It was at the ments would be made upon merit and junction of the West Shore and Ulster & wherein the appointees would hold for a Delaware roads, and moving engines and fixed term and not be dependent upon the trains were frequent. The governor rose will of an appointing officer." early and breakfasted before the start for the mountains, which was scheduled for 9 central committee met Mr. Bryan here, and o'clock. He was inclined to laugh over a few minutes after 9 o'clock he left in a the numerous interruptions at outdoor special train for Rockville, where he made Now I have just been through Kentucky. Everywhere I went I was introduced on the platform by gold democrats, once by a silver democrat and three times by exconfederate generals. Wherever I have been I have found democrats supporting its just as republicans support us, because they feel this is an unusual contest. Some of these men in Kontucky who are standing with us today were not with us four years ago. They are with us now because they find the right of personal liberty which must underlie all free governments is involved, and so we find not only gold democrats, but sliver democrats with us.

At Sydney the governor was interrupted points yesterday. Relating to the one the first of a series of speeches in a tour At Sydney the governor was interrupted duce the same kind of disorder. It was 3 "Our friend there is not a bigotedly sobet ferent railroads. Fifteen speeches will be tumn attire. Captain Joseph Dickey of serious illness of his son.

Industry Home Too Leadly. PHOENICIA, N. Y., Oct. 23.-The Roose velt train made its second stop at Shokar every sound democrat just as much as to and here to about the entire population of the place the governor said to take the prophecies of Mr. Bryan made four years ago. The first time a man fools you it is his fault, the next time it is your fault. So if you get fooled now, it is your own fault.

At Pleischmann's there was the first band of the day and a big crowd. The governor said to benefit the wage worker and give him a better share in the prospertiy. So do I have but a moment there and I want to call your attention to one phase of the contess. Mr. Bryan says he wants to benefit the wage worker and give him a better share in the prospertiy. So do I have but a moment and asked his hearers to keep things from going downward, repeating his familiar.

The governor said:

I wish the hum of industry over these averages to a chance to speak creferring to a steam whistle which was tooting loudly in a manufacturing establishment near the depot.) I have but a moment here and I want to call your attention to one phase of the contess. Mr. Bryan says he wants to benefit the wage worker and give him a better share in the prospertiy. So do I have but a moment here and I want to call your attention to one phase of the contess. Mr. Bryan says he wants a better share in the wage worker and give him a better share in the wage worker and give him a better share in the wage worker and give him a better share in the wage worker and give him a manufacturing establishment near the depot.) I have but a moment here and I want to call your attention to one phase of the contess.

words about workmen's interests being his record on labor matters during his ernor Altgeld devoted most of his time

Bryan." The cheers were not given; in-The governor asked him to stand up and stead three cheers for Roosevelt were prostated to his hearers that their share of posed and given. The governor, turning to > why you hurran for Bryan?" "Because he has come here to aid Mr. Croker, because he gave the poor people ice this summer in New York," came back the

> 'Mr. Bryan gave the poor people ice?' asked Governor Roosevelt in a surprised "Do you mean you believe that! If tone. you do, I don't wonder you can hurrah for Bryan or anything else."

"I don't. I like him: he amuses and interesta me-

The governor then went on to may be appealed to republicans and democrats alike Doom of Free Institutions. and asked them to distinguish between the names of things and the things themselves an ounce of performance." BRYAN TALKS TO THE CLERKS

Assures Them He Will Not Let Them Out If He is Elected President.

WASHINGTON Oct. 21-W. J. Bryan spent an hour and a quarter at the national apital today. His train arrived over the hasapeake & Ohio ratiroad from Virginia 7:55 this morning, an hour late. the depot. A force of threescore policemen and detectives were distributed between the two depots to maintain order. As the train pulled in, amid cheers of the waiting crowd, ex-Judge W. M. Springer, former chairman of the house committee on ways and means, an old colleague and warm friend of the democratic candidate, stepped to Mr. Bryan's private car at the rear of the train and welcomed him. The two then passed down through the depot, followed by a large and enthusiastic crowd, and gradually worked their way to the entrance. Here an automobile was in islands. As the train pulled in, amid cheers of the the entrance. Here an automobile was in waiting and they were taken to the restdence of Judge Springer, opposite the capitol, where Mr. Bryan had breakfast. Colonel Isaac Hill, democratic "whip" of the house of representatives, was the only other guest. A few minutes before o'clock Mr. Bryan was driven to the Balti more & Ohio depot, where he made a brief speech from his automobile. He spoke on imperialism and civil service. About 5,000 people were massed about the deput, Talks of Intimidation.

it suggested that persons engaged in the peace treaty. "I did not sign it," replied tyil service who are opposed to imper-Mr. Bryan. "I was not president and there alisin will vote the republican ticket for would have been no such treaty signed if fear of losing their positions with the I had been president." government. Certainly there are not many who would prefer government employment under an empire to whatever risk might attend their employment under a republic. I am not much of an admirer of that civil

A delegation from the Maryland state

the element that created the disturbance at Alexandria, Va. The statement had Bridge Mr. Bryan addressed himself especmountains looked their prettiest in au- prevented from attending the rally by the he said, "that party stands for all these committee, presided and Mr. Woolley had port the democratic ticket, which was opan enthusiastic audience. Other speakers posed to them. of the evening were Volney B. Cushing of weeks of the campaign in Chicago and the to a discussion of the Philippine question

Wootley Continues on His Jannt. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 23.-John G.

ter. We are not going to eradicate evision of the day, augmented by a reception committee from Delaware county, that had come down to meet him. As the governor alighted and was being escorted to the stand he noticed in the crowd a man dressed in a military suit.

"What regiment are you in?" said the governor to him.

"I was in the Seventh regular artillery." the man replied.

"Come with me up here," said the governor, taking him on the piatform. The governor then said: "What I am going to say to you at this moment is due to what has occurred since I left the car. As I got off the car I met one of your fellow citizens, formerly of the Seventh regular artillery."

By all of Charles Dudley Warner took place this afterneon from Asylum Hill Congregational church, with Rev Joseph H. H. Twitchell, and things that ought to be improved, but said he would not join with Mr. Bryan in trying to remedy them by destroying everything in the country. The governor took in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and thing that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that there were evils in the country and things that the there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things that that there were evils in the country and things the building the ballet.

PINE HILL, N. Y., Oct. 23.—At Phoenicin the country and the well in the country and things the building the ballet.

PINE HILL

PITTSBURG, Pa. Oct. 23.—The convention of the National Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers of America today decided to make a movement at the most opportune time to secure a general observance of the eight-hour workday law it was also decided to extend their union to Europe and South Africa. There were fifteen of the large cities represented in the convention, which will probably remain in session all week.

Mr. Bryan's special arrived in Baltimore.

Enthusiasm in Baltimore.

The greeting extended to Mr. Bryan on his arrival here this evening, and during the meetings held inside and outside of Music hall, was limited in numbers only by the capacity of the places in which the meetings were held and in enthusiasm

To Look After Philippine Forests.

BRYAN SORROWS FOR NATION

HIS ELECTION NECESSARY TO SALVATION

Filipines Can't Sing "Star Spangled Banner" and America is Rushing Headlong to Destruction with None but Him to Prevent.

WASHINGTON JUNCTION, Md., Oct. 23. -Mr. Bryan's first stopping place in Maryland was at Rockville, in Montgomery county. He spoke there from a stand erected near the railroad station and ad-About 1.000 people were awaiting him at dressed a fair-sized crowd, which was only moderately demonstrative. His speech was largely a repetition of former arguments. He said in part:

Mr. Bryan discussed the army question committee of leading democrats of the state, said in part: headed by Colonel L. Victor Baughman, representing ex-Senator Gorman, national committeeman of the state. Mr. Bryan will make brief speeches in Philadelphia on his passage through that city next Thursday. FREDERICK, Md., Oct. 23 .- During his speech here someone in the crowd asked Mr. Bryan said: "Occasionally I hear Mr. Bryan why he had signed the Paris

Goo-Goos Can't Sing.

He then took occasion to explain his participation in the matter of the ratification of the treaty and said he had no apologies to make for it. Continuing his address, Mr. Bryan said: "In this town there is a monument erected in memory of him who wrote 'The Star Spangled Banner.' Do you know that when you vote for a colonial policy you vote to destroy that as the national hymn? A Filipino amended another commandment and says can't sing 'The Star Spangled Banner.'

Rain fell constantly during his meeting. Mr. Bryan was introduced by Colonel 1. Victor Baughman, whose home is at this place, and Colonel Baughman, as well as Mr. Bryan, was most cordially greeted. BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.-After leaving Frederick Mr. Bryan made five and tenminute stops at Bruceville, Union Bridge. New Windsor, Glyndon and at Westminster At Bruceville he talked concerning the Cuban war taxes. In his speech at Union ially to the trust question. At New Windsor Mr. Bryan contented Senater Jones Inhappy Because the himself with making suggestions regarding the various issues of the campaign, urging his audience to study the issues of the campaign and to vote as they believed to A stop of three-quarters of an hour had been arranged for Westminster, but the Woolley, prohibition candidate for prest- rain cut it short and Mr. Bryan talked for The trip for the day is 167 dent, speke to a crowd of over 1,000 per- only a few minutes. In his talk he advised no attention to him, but finally remarked miles and requires running on three dif- sons at Music Hall here tonight. A street his hearers that if they believed in trusts was before the senate parade preceded the meeting. Henry B. the large army and a colonial policy they made. The morning was beautiful and the Metcalf, candidate for vice president, was should vote the republican ticket, "for," policies." but, on the other hand, if they James A. Williams, chairman of the state did not believe in them they should sup-

Sees the End of Republic.

Maine, Oliver W. Stewart of Chicago, national chairman, and Samuel Dickle of Michigan.

The party will leave here at 7.30 tomorrow morning on a special train for a trip through Massachusetts.

Algeld Back in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld was the principal speaker tomage the Auditorium. The meeting was one of a series to be held during the final two weeks of the campaign in Chicago and the weeks of the campaign in Chicago and the meeting was especial to the people of the United States were of the receipt of my note. tory the people of the United States were even of the receipt of my note. to be asked to turn their backs upon these cherished beliefs and return to the old imperialistic theory of government. Cain, he said, was the first to put that theory in True American will tomorrow quote expractice, but instead of glorifying him, the President Cleveland as saying: "I am not Lord had put a mark upon him and dis- aware of having made any statement that graced him. Mr. Bryan predicted that if would justify the assertion that I am going this nation persisted in its present course to support Mr. McKinley. the punishment would come in time and Mr. Cleveland declined to make any said that if we attacked self-government statement regarding his position and the in the orient we will certainly suffer in words quoted were made in response to a our own country in the end. He said that suggestion from a reporter that a recent he had no doubt that if the questions letter of his relterating his financial views which were involved in this campaign could of 1895 was construed as meaning that he be submitted to the people upon a ballot intended to support Mr. McKinley in the of yea or no. 90 per cent would oppose the present campaign. republican theory, but he was not sanguine that so large a majority would be secured in the approaching election, where the vote would obey this biblical injunction of the meetings were held and in enthusiasm only by the ability of the immense crowds ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 23.-President to give expression to it. It was raining Schurman of Cornell announced today that gently but steadily when the special train New York State College of Forestry had bearing the democratic presidential candi-Now, gentlemen, I am going to speak of been asked to furnish six competent assist- date pulled into Union station an hour late something suggestive of that gentleman." ants to the Forestry bureau at Manila, P. 1. but this did not prevent the assemblage of

Mr. Bryan's special arrived in Baltimore

CULLED from the Field of POLITICS

Forecasts and polls without number are cided opposition to the foreign policy of hold of the people that Bryan was unsafe lished in the New York World of Sunday hope. last, is that New York state is placed in the McKinley column. Heretofore they claimed New York for Bryan. Instead of New York's vote, they give Bryan Illinois, indiena and Kansas, and put New Jersey, Delaware and West Virginia in the doubt-

The New York Herald poll, hased on reports of correspondents up to Saturday last, gives McKinley 281 electoral votes and Bryan 166. The Herald considers California, Washington, South Dakota, Kansas and Wyoming surely republican, Indiana and Kentucky uncertain, and New York republican by a plurality of 115,000.

The editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle (dem.) telegraphs from New York the first three days over 1896 of 2,683. On to his newspaper as follows: "Candidly the other hand, in the seventeen assembly York. On Saturday all kinds of inducements speaking, I think Bryan, to win, must win districts which voted for McKinley in 1896 were offered by McKinley supporters to without New York. In other words, Bryan, the net increase in the first three days' draw Bryan money into the hands of the to win, must win with a landslide. Speak ecufidentially to democrats, and they tell you Bryan has a fighting chance. Speak to republicans, and they tell you it is the 1896 Senator J. K. Jones, who occupied the luxurious bets. One of these was an offer unexpected that happens. Confident, they same relation to the democratic campaign to bet any part of $1,000, at odds of 3 to 1. would like to be; confident, I cannot truth- then as he does now, said: "We should that McKinley would get 160,000 plurality in which voted for Bryan four years ago show ducted." a net increase in their total registration for registration is 26,052."

(lacking only one ward of Queens), adds up to 540,692. Compared with the figures of the first three days in 1896, Manhattan, the Louisville, Ky., says:

fully say they are. There is a most de- have won but for the conviction that took New York state.

given out at various campaign head- the present administration. There is none that if he should be elected the mances of quarters. A significant feature of a fore- less a decided opposition to Bryan's finan- the country would be subjected to profound cast given out by Congressman Richardson cial views. The best that can be held out disturbance, that values would be unsettled. ex-Governor Stone, managers of to democrats is that there is an element of confusion and universal uncertainty created Bryan's campaign in New York, and pub- doubt in the campaign that is not without by the executive and the oppressive hard times indefinitely continued. . . . The distrust was unconquerable, and it was Commenting on the registration in fatal." In the four years that have elapsed Greater New York, the New York World since then, the Chicago Times-Herald asks. (dem.) says: "The three days' registration has Bryan said or done a solitary thing that for the whole city, including Manhattan, would tend to dispel the "unconquerable the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond mistrust" that he was an "unsafe" leader

A New York correspondent, writing from "The election of a Bronx and Brooklyn show an increase this president of the United States excites only a mild interest among the voters of Ken-"As to which of the two parties has gained tucky this year. The election of a govby this generally heavier registration can ernor, however, is of keen and vivid inonly he conjectured. It may assist rational terest to every man who has a right to go speculation to note the fact that the nine- to the polls, and it is upon this state issue teen assembly districts of New York county that the campaign is now being con-

The betting has entirely collapsed in New stakeholders, but there was nothing done In fact, in the last hope of getting a bet Immediately after Mr. Bryan's defeat in down, the men with McKinley money offered a crowd of fully 10,000 people about the A parade was formed and Mr. Bryan drove at its head to the Hotel Dennert, where he dined with several democratic leaders, including Former United States Senator Gorman, Governor John W.

Smith and Mayor Hayes of this city. Mr. Bryan's first speech was made on a planform erected outside Music hall and the plaza surrounding the stand was crowded so far back as Mr. Bryan's voice could possibly be heard. He was introduced by Mayor Hayes. He concluded as follows:

If a man threatens to discharge you because you vote the democratic ticket tell him that if this country is as prosperous as republicans say it is you ought not to have any trouble getting another job. (Laughter.) And, my friends, if conditions are such that a man having employment does not go where he can get another job, if he loses his present job, then conditions are nothing to brag of in this country. When will you be stronger to assert and defend your munhood? When the trusts have the monopoly of all industries and when you have to go on your knees to the ground and ask some trust magnate for your daily bread it will be too late. I want to say this in conclusion, do not stop when you have voted the electoral ticket, but vote to send democratic plans.

When the evening of election comes I shall listen for the returns from this state and I hope that the returns will be such that I can sing 'Maryland, My Maryland.'

Nice Crewd Inside. It a man threatens to discharge you be-

Nice Crawd Inside.

Inside the hall the scene was an inspir ing one. Every inch of space was packed with sweltering, cheering, jostling humanity. On the stage were nearly all the old-time leaders of the party in the state including ex-Governor Whyte and Former and coupled with it frequent reference to Seenator Gorman, who have not thus far the subject of imperialism. Mr. Bryan is affiliated for more than a decade. Govunder the escort in his Maryland tour of a ernor Whyte introduced Mr. Bryan, who said in part:

If I were to take the ten commandments, to begin with I would call your attention to the charge that the republican party has amended the commandment. "Thou shalt have no other gods before Ms." and makes it read. Thou shalt have no god but money." Today the republican party believes in the dollar first and the man afterward if at all, and to show that this is the truth by citing you to the fact that in this campaign, which involves the rights of man and the liberty of the human race, the republican party has yet been unable to get before the people but the one question and it says that the only question is the money question is the money question.
On the trust question they have amended the commandment to make it read, "Thou shalt not steal on a small scale."

He took up the question of prosperity. denying that the laboring man was getting his share of it. He asked why people were lending money and not spending here. From this he passed to the question of standing armies, applying the same arguments as heretofore used by him. "The republican party," he said, "has Thou shall not covet thy neighbor's land uniesa it is valuable." The remainder of the address was devoted to imperialism and of the course of the administration toward the people of Porto Rico. Upon the conclusion of brough the eastern shore of Maryland. LETTER THAT NEVER CAME address Mr. Bryan drove to the steamer

Cambridge, upon which he will go to Claibern and thence on a flying tour

President Has Delayed Answering His Note.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 .- Senator Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee, made the following statement today: The instructions given to the commissioners on the part of the United States to agricultate the treaty with Spain in Paris in 1898 have hever, so far as I know, been

When the treaty was before the senate for ratification there was a great demand that these instructions should be made public. So great was the desire for information that many newspapers published what was claimed to be inside information about what these instructions contained. But for reason, and deubliess not an unimportant one, this desire was not gratified. The president in his letter of acceptance, quoted a part of these, as I understand, secret instructions. I addressed him in a note October 5, calling his attention to this

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 23.-The Trenton

Adlal Gets His Dates Mixed. BAY CITY, Mich., Oct. 23.-Owing to mixup of dates, Stevenson did not speak at would be indirect. He hoped, however, Saginaw tonight. In this city he addressed that the republicans who loved their party a large audience at the armory. He devoted his remarks to imperialism and trusts chastening their party in order to correct ignoring the silver question. His speech was substantially the same as the one he delivered at Grand Rapids on Monday night

Serious llis of Women

The derangements of the female organism that breed all kinds of trouble and which ordinary practice does not oure, are the very things that give way premptly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Uterine and evarian troubles, kidney troubles, ulcerations, tumors, unusual discharges, backaches and painful periods these are the ills that hang on and wreck health and happiness and disposition.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

has a wonderful record of absolute cures of these troubles - a constant series of successes for thirty years. Thousands of women vouch for this. Their letters constantly appear in this paper.

In a warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP and a single anointing with CUTICURA, purest of emollients and greatest of skin cures. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors, with loss of hair of infants and children, and is sure to succeed when all else fails.

COMPLETE EXTERNAL AND INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR EVERY HUMOR, $1,25. Consisting of Corricors Scar (life, to cleanage the skin of crucis and scales Curreurs Ottornant (200.), to cleanage the skin of crucis and scales Curreurs Ottornant (200.), to cool and cleanage the blood. A firenate Set to often sufficient to curre the severest Intensive with all also fails. For its often sufficient to curre the severest Intensive when all also fails. For its often to curre the severest Intensive when all also fails. For its Date and Curre. Comp., Sale Preps., Seston. "All about the Skin, Scalp, Hands, and Hair," free.

SEXUAL DEBILITY.

NOT A TEMPORARY STIMULANT

BUT A PERMANENT CURE

DOCTOR TOLSON, Specialist in Diseases of Men, of the State Electro-Medical Institute, 1308 Farnam St., Omaha, Neb.

Men, many of you are reaping the result of your former folly. Your manhood is failing and will soon be lost unless you do something for yourself. There is no time to lose. Impotency, like all sexual diseases, is never on the standarill. With it you can make no compromise. Either you must master it or it will master you and fill your whole future with misery and indescribable woe. We have treated so many cases of this kind that we are as familiar with them as you are with the very day-light. Once cured by us, you will never again be bothered with emissions, drains, prematureness, small or weak organs, nervousness, failing memory, loss of ambition or similar symptoms which rob you of your manhood and absolutely unfit you for study business, pleasure or marriage. Our combined Electre-Medical treatment for weak men which combines all of the curative powers of both medicine and electricity will correct all these evils and restore you to what nature intended—a hale, healthy, happy man, with physical, mental and sexual powers complete.

We also cure to stay cured by our combined Electro-Medical treatment and all associate diseases and weaknesses of men. Physicians having stubborn cases to treat are cordially invited to consult us. We charge nothing for private counsel, and give to a patient a legal contract in writing, backed by abundant capital, to hold for our promise. Is it not worth your while to investigate a our that has made life anew to multitudes of men?

Varicocele, Stricture, Syphilitic Blood Poison, Nervo-Sexual Debility

If you cannot call at our office, write us your symptoms fully. Our home treatment by correspondence is always successful.

Reference: Best Banks and Leading Business Men in this City.

CONSULTATION FREE. Office Hours: From 8 a. m, to 8 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 12 p. m. STATE ELECTRO-MEDICAL INSTITUTE.

