B-M823 26

THIS is the day of specialism. The young man who is the best posted in his bustness receives the best salary. Our school offers an education in electricity and steam engineering which puts young men at the top in the least possible time and expense. Not a correspondence school, but a practical school of science. Term begins November 10, 1900. Night and day classes, Call or write at once to Northwestern School of Engineering, Office, 462 Woodmen of the World bldg., N. E. cor. 15th and Howard streets.

THE young man without a technical training is likely to remain an ill-paid, mediocre mechanic; the young man who is best equipped in his trade or profession draws the best salary. Take a practical course in electrical or mechanical engineering at the Northwestern School of Engineering (not a correspondence school). Office, 402 Woodmen of the World bldg., N. E. cor. 15th and Howard streets. B—M825 26 and of justice, but will not be applied when it will wrong an innocent party and where the one invoking the dectrine has been grossly negligent.

No. 879. Young Men's Christian Association of Omaha against Douglas county. Appeal from Douglas. Affirmed. Opinion by Helcemb, judge. Filed October 18, 1900.

1. An intention to use property occupied for business purposes at some uncertain time in the future for purposes which will render it exempt from taxation under the laws of the state will not preclude its being taxed under the general revenue laws so long as occupied for such business purposes.

2. Statutes providing for exemption of property from taxation when used for purposes therein mentioned, being an exception to the general rule of taxation and in derogation of the equal rights of all, are to be strictly construed.

3. The Young Men's Christian association of Omaha, being organized and incorporated for educational, charitable and religious work, owned certain real estate, upon which was erected a building, used by it for the purpose of carrying forward the object of its erganization, except the first floor thereof, which was rented for business purposes, the rents being applied to the work of the association. Held, that the portion of the property occupied for business purposes, the rents being applied to the work of the association. Held, that the portion of the property occupied for business purposes was not used exchangely for educational, charitable and refigious work, and therefore not exempt from faxation under the general revenue laws of the state.

No. 11356. Zimmerman et al against State ex rel Bauman. Error from Gene. Affirmed. Opinion by Sullivan, judge. Filed October 18, 1969.

1. The officers of a school district cannot refuse to execute a valid order of the district electors involving the expenditure of money on the ground that the taxes levied for the expenses of the current year cannot, until they have been collected, be made the basis of contracts for such expenses.

2. Taxes levied at the annual school meeting held just prior to the commencement of the school year constitute a fund against which warrants may be drawn.

3. School District against Stough, 4 Neb., 357, distinguished.

4. Where the electors of a school district have, in a lawful manner, ordered the remaoval of their school house, and the funds in the treasury, together with the taxes levied for current expenses, are sufficient to moet all district obligations incurred or contemplated, the order is valid and its execution will be enforced by mandamus.

5. Where a school beuse is less than three-fourths of a mile from the geographical center of the school district, a bare majority vote "is void for uncertainty, and is also void for want of power in a mere majority to change such school house site.
