Rev. James Ahearne of South Omaha, who claimed $1,000 damages from the city recently as a result of his buggy being upset on Broadway near the Illinois Central tracks, sent in a communication in which he offered to compromise for $50, the actual damages he had sustained to his buggy and himself. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee.

Sidewalk Contract Approved. The contract with John M. Hardin for the laying of certain brick sidewalks was approved.

City Engineer Etnyre submitted his re port on the Bolin sidewalk contract and the condition of the walks laid under the contract which was awarded in July, 1898, and it was referred to the committee of the whole, which will meet Thursday afternoon and inspect the work.
