Two messenger boys, each with a "rush" telegram in his pocket to deliver, gave a little object lesson in civility yesterday at the Franklin school. Thirty-sixth and Franklin streets, and were arrested for it. The professor said the demonstration came in all right during the recitation of the class in physics, but that the light flashes were an annoyance to the pupils in other branches.

The boys perched themselves upon the fence which surrounds the campus and by means of pocket mirrors threw two powerful shafts of sunlight into the various school rooms, taking pains whenever possible to direct them into the eyes of the teachers. The janitor was sent out to abate the nuisance, but the boys mounted their wheels and easily outstripped him, only to return and resume operations. Finally a telephone message was sent to the police station. Officer Reigleman of the bicycle corps was soon upon the scene, when the entire school took a recess to watch the face between the officer and the miscreants. It was an uneven contest. Reigleman overhauled them, stacked the three wheels by the roadside and returned with his quarry. No complaint will be filed against the boys. At the principal's request their parents were notified as to their conduct.

Made Young Again. "One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner of Dunsmuir, Pa. "These are the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at Kuhn & Co.'s drug store."

Announcements of the Theaters. The second edition to the album of Orpheum celebrities will be given to the women who attend the souvenir matinee today at the Orpheum. The subject for this picture is the beautiful "vixen" with Auburn Hair. The indications are that the biggest matinee crowd of the season will be present. This week's delightful bill has been a great magnet; more people have attended than for any single week so far this season. This respect does not seem destined to last long as favorite Jessie Bartlett Davis and six other good acts will be the attraction for a week, commencing tomorrow.

"At the White Horse Tavern," Charles and Daniel Frohman's latest comedy, will open at the Boyd Sunday afternoon for five performances, including a special matinee Tuesday afternoon, election day. Frederic Bond and thirty people are in the company.

Dance Tonight. Washington hall, Eighteenth and Harney streets, July Eight's lively ball this evening. Clark's union orchestra. A grand good time for you. Yes, seats 25c. Welcome.

THE MESSANGER BOYS HAVE FUN. Throw Flashes of Light Into School Room by Means of Pocket Mirrors.

TAX RETURNS SHOW INCREASE

Schedules Now in Commissioner's Hands Contain Personal Property Not Previously Listed. Deputy tax commissioners who were employed to assist the commissioner in making assessments on personal property called serve only forty days and many of them have completed this time and turned in their schedules. Whenever it was possible all schedules left with individuals to be filled out were collected. Many of them could not be secured and Mr. Fleming is anxious that taxpayers turn in such schedules without delay. Unless the schedules are put in the commissioner's hands he will be compelled to make assessments on last year's returns.

TALES OF THE INSURANCE MAN

The Winning of Sandy McTague. Sandy McTague, contractor and civil engineer, had been caught in the wreck of falling bridge timbers and was winding up the affairs of his life in short order. He had been a fairly successful man, a money maker and a money spender and this latter quality had brought up the subject of his worldly goods, for McTague was a man of family. "Never mind, boys," he said, "this old world hasn't used me so bad after all. I've had me ups and downs and in wan of the ups I had me life insured in a good old company that has stood the test of time and paid dollar for dollar on every claim. I've kept me policy throo thick and thin and this day it's as good as a poor when in the mill. I'll keep the wife and babies from the poor house when I am gone. Byes, it's the biggest winnin' I ever made." And with a soft smile upon his rugged face old Sandy McTague had crossed over to the other side. Only another one of life's lessons, but some of us are slow to learn. The Equitable offers a splendid investment while you live and safe protection to those you leave behind. Better let us tell you about our Gold Dabenture Endowment Policy in this strong, old company. It has stood the test of time and "time at last makes all things even."
