PATRIOTIC PEOPLE CHEER NATION'S LEADER

President's Progress from His Home in Ohio to His Station at Washington Made Triumphal March by Fellow Citizens.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—President McKinley's journey from Canton today has been one continuous ovation to the twice-elected head of the nation. At every stop there have been great outpourings of the people, business has been suspended and many factories along the line have added their thousands of workingmen and workingwomen to those who have joined in enthusiastic greetings.

The president has appeared at each stop, shaking hands from the rear platform and making short speeches at the most important towns. Mrs. McKinley has received her share of the popular tribute, men and women struggling to present flowers. Patriotism, the flag and the volunteers' uniform have figured everywhere and the trip has been in the nature of a triumphal journey to the capital.

The start from Canton was made at 1:35 p. m. amid the boom of cannon, the screech of steam whistles and the clamorous well-wishes of the president's townspeople. Mr. and Mrs. McKinley occupied the private car "Olympia" at the rear of the train, giving a broad platform from which the president could greet the crowds and address the people. The presidential car had been beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, bound in ribbons of red, white and blue, giving a wealth of color.

Old Friends at Alliance.

An interesting incident occurred soon after the train left Canton. Many of those on the regular coaches were anxious to greet the president and he consented to see a delegation from Alliance, in his own district. He met the party on the platform, grasping each hand and talking familiarly of the struggle and victory at Alliance. One horny-handed veteran stood back in the crowd until the president spied him out with the familiar greeting: "Well, Tom, I'm glad to see you." The president remarked that 600 majority had hitherto been the high watermark at Alliance, but now they had rolled up 800.

"Yes, and the factory boys have gone wild," was the enthusiastic answer. "When the whistle sounded this morning, every man fell into line, with Tom Russell on horseback, four girls in white leading the procession and the town was crazy when we left." The president laughingly acknowledged the heartfelt manifestation of his neighbors and bade the delegation goodbye. The president made his first speech of the day when the train arrived at Alliance. The town turned out enmasse to meet him with bands and banners. Workmen from the potteries at Sebring came in their aprons bearing transparencies showing their majority. The crowd surged up to the train to the imminent danger of those in front.

Well Chosen Words by President.

When the president appeared there were deafening cheers, to which he bowed and smiled acknowledgement and then said:

"My Fellow Citizens: I have not failed to observe the verdict of Alliance given on yesterday (Long continued applause) and I cannot refrain from expressing to you, in passing my great appreciation of this vote of encouragement and support from my old friends and neighbors of Stark county. (Great applause.)

"I observe that majorities rise with prosperity (Great applause) and that the American people never fail to support the flag. (Applause.)

"I thank you and bid you good afternoon." (Tremendous applause and cheering.)

A short distance further on the train stopped at Sebring, a new town with huge potteries.

This place was built up, it is said, by the fostering of the American pottery interest. Business was suspended and the workingmen poured forth to join in the hurrahs. A big banner announced: "Sebring, 4 to 1 for McKinley." The president waved acknowledgments, but did not speak.

At the big factory town of Salem the smoke of many stacks hung over the city and myriads of workingmen and working women gave the place the aspect of a hive of industry.

Immense Concourse at Salem.

A vast concourse of people lined the tracks. The tops of freight cars were used as points of vantage. Little girls bore big American flags. The drum corps was uniformed as United States volunteers. A huge broom, draped with yellow ribbons, was carried at the head of the procession. Women struggled to throw bunches of chrysanthemums toward Mrs. McKinley. A young woman kept crying "Bryan" in defiant tones, but her voice was faint amid the din. The screech of the factory whistles was deafening. The president bowed his thanks and when order was partly secured he said:

My Fellow Citizens: It has been many years since I had the privilege of meeting an audience in the city of Salem, and I assure you that your greeting and welcome today give me very sincere pleasure.

You are here to celebrate a victory won, not by a single party, but by the people of all parties. (Great applause.) I go back to my public duties at the capital encouraged by your confidence, but deeply conscious of the grave responsibility which your action of yesterday imposes upon me. I can only ask of all my countrymen their sympathy and support in the solution of the great problems that rest upon the United States, and I am sure that all of us will humbly petition the guidance of that Divine Ruler who has never failed this government through all its vicissitudes from its beginning to the present hour. I thank you and bid you good afternoon. (Applause and cheering.)

At Leetonia and Columbina there were like outbursts, crowds besieging the president's car. No speeches were made, but the president reached down and shook many a horny hand.

A drizzling rain began to fall, but this did not deter big crowds from turning out at East Palestine, Enon Valley, New Galilee and New Brighton.

At Rochester 3,000 people braved the rain

MERCER GAINS IN COUNTY

Republican Congressional Candidate Sent to Washington with a Larger Majority Than in 1898.

The returns from Douglas county for the congressional ticket came in slowly Wednesday, but at no time was the result in doubt.

The total vote for Mr. Mercer in the county is 12,997; for his opponent, 12,066. Compared with 1898, this is a gain of 293 votes for the republican candidate, as in the last campaign he received 9,546 votes, against 8,850 cast for G. M. Hitchcock.

Reports from Washington county last night are that Mercer's majority in Washington county is 145, giving him a total of 1,616 in the two counties. Sarpy county will probably reduce this majority to 1,400.

Following is a showing of the total vote:

IT DOUBLES THE MAJORITY

Douglas County Largely Increases Its Vote for McKinley.

REVISED FIGURES ON GENERAL ELECTION

McKinley's Majority in the City Reduces to 1,093 by South Omaha's Unexpected Gain for Bryan.

By approximately twice the majority of 1896 Douglas county Tuesday renewed its allegiance to the republican party and cast its vote for William McKinley. The majority in the city of Omaha for the presidential candiate was 1,868, but this was reduced by the vote in South Omaha, where the fusion candidate made unexpected gains—unexpected alike by the managers of both parties. The result of this increase was to bring the Omaha majority down by 726 votes, leaving a majority of 1,117.

The official results of the county cannot be announced to an exact figure until the opening of the poll-books by the county returning board, which will probably meet the first of next week, for the reason that the election officers of the Fourth ward of South Omaha failed to make a return to the county clerk other than the poll-book, which cannot be inspected until the returning board meets. With this exception all figures given herewith have been compared with the returns of the county clerk. The vote for the leading presidential candidates is as follows:

A. C. HARTE IS RE-ELECTED

Republican Candidate for Commissioner in the Second District Wins with a Handsome Majority.

The election in the Second commissioner district, composed of the Second, Fourth and Seventh wards, was not a spirited contest, the election of A. C. Harte being a foregone conclusion. When the votes were counted it was found that Mr. Harte's majority was 568, within two votes of the estimate made by the republican candidate the day before the election.

As Mr. Harte is the sitting member his election will not, probably, change the make-up of the committees of the board.

FIRST FRUIT OF PROSPERITY

Southwestern Railroad Company Announces Early Building of Big Extension.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 7.—Chief Engineer F. A. Amolitor of the Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad today announced that since the presidential election is over the company probably will begin within sixty days about 175 miles of extensions. He announced that the line from Hartshorne to Ardmore, I. T., will be built as soon as preliminary legal matters can be arranged. The distance will be 120 miles. An extension to Rutherford, about 100 miles westward, will be built, enlarging the company's interests in western Oklahoma. This is the first authoritative statement in the premises.

Election in Porto Rico.

SAN JUAN, P. R., Nov. 7.—It is estimated that 75,000 republicans voted at the election yesterday for a commissioner to congress and members of the house of delegates. Not more than 200 federals voted. The election was exceedingly orderly.

There are no reports of disturbances. Communication with the interior is slow.

COMPOSITION OF NEW SENATE

Republicans Assured of Forty-Nine Votes and May Have More.

DEMOCRATS CERTAIN OF TWENTY-SEVEN

In This Estimate Nebraska and Delaware, Which Are Both to Elect Two Senators, Are Classed as Doubtful.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The senate, assuming that the state legislatures will fulfill their duty and choose senators to represent their states, will stand, on the basis of yesterday's election, 48 republicans, 27 democrats and 8 independents, with the legislatures in doubt in three states with the privilege of electing five senators at this time. The legislatures in doubt are Delaware and Nebraska, in each of which states two senators are to be chosen, and Idaho, with one senatorial chair to be filled. Among those classed in the independent column are Senators Stewart of Nevada and Kyle of South Dakota, who in the last congress acted with the republicans on all party matters; Turner of Washington and Harris of Kansas, who acted with the democrats, and Wellington of Maryland. The representation by states should be as follows:

MAJORITY FOR DIETRICH

Republican Candidate Carries Douglas County on His Road to Victory.

The appended table shows the majority given by Omaha for the republican and fusion candidates for governor. The contest for this office was particularly hard-fought, the Omaha end of the state house machine making strenuous efforts to repay the governor for past favors and to place themselves in position for pie by bringing in a fusion majority for this office. The result was that Mr. Dietrich ran behind the national ticket, but his majority in Douglas county will go to swell the total which, at this time, looks as though it would place him in the gubernatorial chair. By precincts the vote for governor was:

IT MEANS NATIONAL HONOR

Postmaster General Smith Sums Up in Few but Strong Words Meaning of Result.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith returned today from Philadelphia, where he cast his vote. He said tonight:

This overwhelming result shows that the deliberate judgment, honor and integrity of the American people can safely be trusted. The value of this result is not immediate effect and in its illustration of American character and stability cannot be overestimated. It is an evidence of the strength of American institutions. It assures the unbroken continuance of President McKinley's policies of national honor and greatness. We shall keep our prosperity at home and strengthen our pr
