Richard D. Creech. of 1062 Second Street, Appleton, Wis., says:

"Our son Willard was absolutely helpless. His lower limbs were paralyzed, and when we used electricity he could not feel it below his hips. Finally my mother, who lives in Canada, wrote advising the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I bought some. This was when our boy had been on a stretcher for an entire year and helpless for nine months. In six weeks after taking the pills we noted signs of vitality in his legs, and in four months he was able to go to school. It was nothing else in the world that saved the boy than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."-From the Crescent, Appleton,

TALE TOLD BY YELLOW BOOK

Complete Story of Chinese Trouble Laid Before French Parliament.

FRANCE URGED ACTION AS EARLY AS MARCH

Unwillingness of United States to Participate in Naval Demonstration Deterred International

PARIS, Nov. 9 .- The Chinese "yellow book," which was distributed in parliament today, shows that early in March M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, urging a combined naval demontration, in view of the agitation in China, was opposed by a majority of the powers. Lord Salisbury saying that in view of the uncertainty it was preferable to let the situation ripen, pointing out that the government of the United States had already declared it would not participate in a naval demonstration, which was contrary Count von Buelow, German minister of foreign affairs, under date of April 4, also thought the trouble in Shan Tung province bad completely calmed down.

M. Jules Cambon, the French ambassador at Washington, under date of April 5, replying to M. Delcasse's inquiry as to an American vessel, with British and German ships, being sent to the gulf of Pe-Chi-Lt, said the Washington government thought the growing agitation of the secret soto take the character of a joint demonrequested. Secretary Hay thought the nection with the recent yamen explosion

M. Cambon, on June 8, reported a conversation with Secretary Hay, who said Min-ister Conger was only instructed to do what was essential to protect American interests. Minister Conger did not desire to amalgamate his action with that of the European powers.

The most interesting dispatch in the book to Americans is the telegram which M. Delcasse sent to the French ambassadors at Washington and St. Petersburg on September 13, as follows:

The ambassador of the United States, at The ambassador of the United States, at my reception yesterday, was piensed to recall that since the commencement of affairs in China, France, Russia and the United States have acted together in perfect agreement. He believed that this accord will be maintained and that the United States will retire from Pekin on the same conditions as France and Russia. I told General Porter that the manifestation of this continued accord was calculated to influence the definitive resolutions of the other powers. Such is the opinion of General Porter, who believes Japan will be the first to follow the example.

The French minister at Tokio on September

15 announced that Japan would withdraw of Deputies at yesterday's session, after her unnecessary troops and her legation the Chamber had refused to vote the order to lay too much emphasis upon the infrom Pekin. The text of M. Delcasse's reply of the day in its entirety, was adopted by to the Anglo-German agreement on October 30 runs thus:

The government of the republic has for a long time past manifested the desire to see China open to the ecanomic activity of the whole world. This explains the speedy adhesion it gave in December last to America's proposition, which was dictated by the same preoccupations. The govern-

Sweet butter can't be made in a sour churn. The stomach is a churn. A foul stomach fouls the food put into it. When the food is fouled the blood made from it is fouled also. Foul blood means disease. Cleanse the churn and you have sweet butter. Cleanse the stomach and you have pure blood. The far reaching action of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach.

"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has "Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Rilen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co. Mass. "Prior to September, 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September, 1897, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

it made it the basis of its policy in the crisis whereto the common efforts of the powers tend to secure a satisfactory solution. Universal acquiescence to this principle appears to be given a sure guaranty of its observance and if, in spite of every expectation, it should be impaired, France

A number of other dispatches to and

A number of other dispatches to and from America are published, the text of which is already known. A long, graphic report from M. Pinchon, the French minister at Pekin, of the slege of the legations, includes the following abstract from his

During the night the Americans and Russians captured a barricade which the Crinese had constructed twenty-five meters from their own. It was necessary to carry it at the point of the bayonet, An American captain was wounded and two marines were killed. The Chinese lost heavily. The overation was brilliantly carried out and does great honor to those who took part in it. This barricade will henceforth by occupied by the Americans and Russians and appears to be one of our principal safeguards.

SIGNIFICANT SPEECH AT LONDON BANQUET

War Fever Prevailing in England is Sattrized in Gloomy Words by the Premier in Course of His Speech.

LONDON, Nov. 9 .- What is probably the most brilliant of all functions in England the lord mayor's banquet, took place this evening. It will be memorable even to Americans, by reason of the following remarkable utterance of Lord Salisbury, who, in the presence of 900 guests, including United States Ambassador Choate, the members of the British cabinet and many of the leading men in England, spoke as fellows of the American elections: "We believe that the cause which has won was the cause of civilization and commercial honor. We believe those principles to be at the root of all prosperity and all progress in the world. Therefore we claim that we have as much right to rejoice in what has taken place as the distinguished gentleman (referring to Mr.

Cheate) who sits at my side." This was followed by loud and prolonged cheering, which made the gold plate on rafters of the guild hall ring and ring

Lord Salisbury's incursion into the internal politics of the United States was preceded by an apology, in the course of which he said:

"One of the circumstances which has gratified me most during the last year is the very hearty friendly feeling displayed between this county and the United States. hope Mr. Choate will forgive me if there is an irregularity in my expression. It is quite wrong for a secretary of state to make any observations with respect to the internal politics of any other country; but I am seen to give up my office and in view of this abandonment, which is close at hand, I hope Mr. Choate will forgive me for expressing the supreme satisfaction with which all of us have heard of what has recently taken place in the United

Mr. Choate, replying a few minutes later to the toast of the diplomatic corps, declared that Lord Salisbury had stated with such truth, simplicity and earnestness the result of the election that he (Choate) would not attempt to add to it, although he would venture to congratulate the noble lord upon the fact that his remarks had been made after, instead of before, the election. (Laughter.)

War Fever is Satisfied.

Except in its reference to the United States the speech of the premier cast an extraordinary gloom over the gorgeous banquet. Following directly after the colonel commanding the city imperial volunteers. Lord Salisbury startled his hearers, who caught the drift of his remarks, by satirizing the war fever, although praising the courage of the soldiers, and declaring that the passionate admiration of military valor evinced by the populace must produce a change of attitude on the part of the cutside world when viewing English character

Then, with lowered voice and almost trembling accent, he went on to speak of the price of victory and the ravages of death. dealing especially with the queen's behe uttered a hope, almost a of the crifical condition of his daughter, against the Boers. Tears sprang to the eyes of women, and men moved uncomfortably in their seats. The silence and solemnity grew oppressive. Awakening from self-abstraction, premier reviewed the events of the last twelve months. Mr. Kruger and the empress of China, he went on to say, had forced war upon Great Britain. He maintained that the British War office deserved great credit for the way in which it had

"Despite nebulous and fictitious attacks we should be giad to improve all the defects of the War office," he continued, "and our utmost efforts will be devoted to that task, but I should rather deprecate any unnecessary examination into what has occurred. You will not add to the enthusiasm of your troops by doing so."

Ties of Mother Country and Colonies He dilated upon the strengthened ties between the mother country and the colonies during the year and poked fun at the delay consequent upon the European concert when dealing with China. It was not appropriate for him, he declared, to comment upon negotiations while in progress, but he said he would make an exception in the Anglo-German compact. "This." he renot all the powers allied. It is impossible tegrity of China and the powers should have expressed themselves in favor of these federal principles, for if they are achieved the issue of the China problem need not concern us very anxiously."

He maintained earnestly that the idea of invading China with "our scanty force," or of "approaching the stupendous task of governing China instead of leaving it to be governed by the Chinese," was most Possibility of War with France.

Relapsing into pessimism, Lord Salisury admitted that the trend of recent events has almost put an end to the hopes of the Russian emperor and others who took part in the peace conference at The Hague. The extraordinary speech closed with a fervid appeal to the people of England to maintain their defenses in such a perfect condition that "we shall not be ex-

"The supreme condition," exclaimed the premier, "is that no reform, no improve-ment is of the slightest value unless security against external interference is obtained by putting our defenses in such a position that no accident may happen beyond our borders that shall make our security doubtful."

The majority of Lord Salisbury's hearers believed that this warning, which was delivered in his most impressive manner, referred to the possibility of France's an-

HUDYAN REMEDY CO.— Gentlemen: For twelve years before coming to California in 1893 mine was a busy, tiresome life in active newspaper work; one in which a man can be more "run down" and not realize it than almost any other line of business on earth. Hard work along those lines, together with the rigorous Minnesota winters, had broken my health. At the repeated advice of medical friends I was induced to come to the Golden State for the recuperation which I so much needed. Climate had done much; but an attack of eczema about two years ago left me with an added weakness. After trying numerous tonics without apparent beneficial results, I was induced by the nature of Hudyan announcements to apply to you for relief. While I have not been inclined to put much faith in nostrums (for humanity is pren to apply the word "quack" to all such), yet I gave you the benefit of the doubt, and have profited thereby. I can truthfully say, that after taking your Hudyan and treatment I am now enjoying better health than at any time in the past seven years, and while still actively engaged in rewspaper work, there is a remarkable lack of "that tired feeling" so common to newspaper writers. My weight has not perceptibly increased, for it is not my nature, but my appetite is good, and I lies the allotted number of hours, and feel real strong in every way.

I have no hesitancy in recommending your Hudyan and treatment to those men who, through ill health or other cause, have become impaired in strength. By actual experience I know it is a good thing, and you can with confidence use my indorsement. Gratefully yours. Fraternal Brotherhood.
