High School Plans.

Members of the Board of Education are endeavoring to ascertain the wishes of the people in relation to the class of building it is proposed to erect on the Hoctor site week from tonight the architect will be instructed to prepare plans for a High school building. It is the intention to draw these plans so that one or possibly two wings may be constructed, leaving the main portion to be erected when there is money enough in the treasury. It is barely possible that when the plans are placed on exhibi tion the people may want the entire building erected at once and in this event it will *714.00 be necessary to vote ponds.

This would leave the cost of the main portion of the structure $50,060. It is stated that returned to the city today from his trip the school district is in a very fair financial condition at present. Special Agent Appointed. In compliance with the request of City Attorney Lambert that a special agent be appointed to procure evidence in the cases against the city now pending in the dis trict court the mayor has appointed W. N Kelly to the position. Mr. Kelly will report to the city atterney and for the next month or two will devote his entire time and attention to the collection of evidence to be used in the courts. In all damage suits against the city evidence will be procured as soon after an accident as possible in order that the legal department may put up the proper kind of a fight in the courts. Where a decision in a damage suit goes against the city an appeal will be taken to the surreme court. It will, it is stated, be the policy of the administration to carry every case to the court of last resort, instead of making settlements, as has been the custom heretefore. Feeding Sheep Corn. As South Omaha is the greatest sheep market on the river it may be interesting to those concerned in live stock to know that Wyoming flock masters are preparing to feed corn to their shee

ter. It is stated that already one mercantile firm has contracted to deliver 2,000,-000 bushels of corn to sheepmen. This product will be stored in wool warehouses at different points in the state. It is conended by breeders of sheep that corn can be fed in small quantities on the range during bad weather. This feeding of corn, it is stated, will be a cheap insurance against loss for want of sufficient range feed. Some dealers predict that the feeding of corn during the winter will tend to stiffen the prices of sheep in the spring. Up to and including Friday last 1,156,873 bead of sheep had been received at this marke since January 1.
