

RELIEF FOR BERLIN BOURSE

Election of McKinley Means Much to the German Financiers.

EXPECTED PANIC IS HAPPILY AVERTED

Had Bryan Won There Would Have Been a Scourge of Ruin to Borrowers from the United States.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—German bourses were completely dominated last week by the election in the United States and Wall street's interpretation of it. Financiers here had been arguing that, since a reaction here was started in April by the decline in stocks and iron prices in the United States, the election's effect upon business would be strikingly confirmed. This view has been strikingly confirmed. The large sales of iron in the United States last week attracted much attention, causing unusual firmness in German iron shares and giving a great impetus to American railways.

Financiers here express satisfaction with the outcome of the election, interpreting the result as favorable to the German money market. The Vossische Zeitung says: "The immediate future of the European money markets depends upon whether America will prolong the loans made to us or will withdraw considerable sums from us. Should the latter result have been caused through any doubt with respect to the financial policy of the United States the German market particularly would have experienced no slight stringency toward 1907. Mr. McKinley's re-election means for us an avoidance of panicky returns in the money market."

Heavy offerings of discounts from the manufacturing centers carried the private rate yesterday to 4 1/2 per cent. The Reichsbank statement made an unfavorable impression and the rise in money depressed financial markets. The large issues of 30 would be made early next year. Cologne's 2,000,000 will be subscribed November 20 at 95% and Anatolian railway a stock November 15.

Statistics of nine months' foreign trade show an increase of 4,982,000 000 marks, or an increase of 2,399,685. The export figures for the same period are 3,252,000,000 marks, or an increase of 1,542,000,000 marks.

BEST BUSINESS DAY OF YEAR

London Brokers Report Wednesday to Have Broken All the Previous Records of 1900.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Interest on the Stock exchange centered in Americans, a very large number of which were sold today. The public showed a revival of interest, beginning early Wednesday, mainly on New York buying. Prices went up by bounds and for many brokers Wednesday proved far and away the best business day of the year.

British and continental holders hardly realized the situation. They contented themselves with taking profits in New York and accepted all stocks offered. Consequently, while prices fluctuated, the under-tone of the market never lost firmness and the net result of the week was that prices went from two to six points higher and closed even above the best quotations given in the flush of Mr. McKinley's victory. Yesterday's buying was largely on British and continental accounts.

Baltimore & Ohio preferred rose 3/4; Denver & Rio Grande shares 2 1/2; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, 2 1/2; Union Pacific, 1 1/2; Norfolk & Western common, 1 1/2; Northern Pacific common, 1 1/2; Chesapeake & Ohio, 1 1/2; Erie firsts, 1 1/2; Reading firsts, 1 1/2; Atchafalaya, 1 1/2; Santa Fe, 1; and others from 1/2 to 3/4.

The situation in Americans from the British point of view is thus summed up in the financial column of the Sunday Times: "The remarkable progress which the United States have made during the last three years will now proceed at an accelerated pace. The situation in sound, with plenty of money, every element of activity in trade, increased profits, greater earnings and better dividends for railroads. America will continue to buy and Europe to sell. Europe will buy later on."

The boom in Americans is due partly to the other markets, although consols were lower. Owing to the firmness of money the war loan recovered to par. Home railroads were mostly higher. South African mines, after improvement, relaxed and closed lower, but firm.

The hardness of money is not surprising, as the Bank of England has taken £5,000,000 off the market within a week. The payment of the last installment of the war loan absorbed another £2,000,000, while £2,000,000 will be needed this week for the treasury bill and exchequer bonds. Yesterday's demand for money was brisk, rates for call money ranging from 3/4 to 4 per cent.

Manchester Market Conditions. MANCHESTER, Nov. 11.—Market conditions here continue to improve. There is an increase of inquiry and some actual business is noticeable in all sections.

LIFTS LOAD FROM BUSINESS

Election of McKinley Means More Than a Mere Party Triumph.

STEP FORWARD FOR THE REPUBLIC

Verdict of the Voters Accepted as a Earnest of Our Intention to Keep Along the Safe, Conservative Way.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Henry Clues, head of the banking house of Henry Clues & Co., writes of the situation in Wall street:

"The country has passed through another of its quadrennial periods of anxious waiting. The political campaign has been a long and arduous one. The quality of the nation's motto, the preservation of public order, the liberty of corporations in respect to the exercise of their rights, the authority of the federal government in relation to the management of the national money, and the maintenance of the public peace, are the issues which the election has brought to the front. The magnitude of the political struggle upon these much debated questions has been such that the country is delivered from angry and threatening divisions which have threatened its unity and domestic harmony. We seemed to have reached the end of the ways in respect to policies that must determine the political future of the nation; and the people upon a basis of settlement, peace, and domestic order, and the strength that grows with peace and order."

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Female Drammer"

A string of credible vaudeville turns and witty dialogue, with a semblance of dramatic purpose through the whole, goes to make up the musical extravaganza "A Female Drammer," which opened a four nights' engagement yesterday at the Boyd. Johnstone, the originator of the title role, has yielded the part to Helen Byron, a capable substitute. Miss Byron has a well trained voice of good quality and depicted herself otherwise in a pleasing fashion.

Miss Nellie O'Neill, who is featured on the program as Carrie Cash, the cash girl, does what her part calls for, but is not particularly deserving of heavy faced type. The only surprise which she held in store was unfurled in a number of acrobatic feats. Harry Ladell was fully competent to act as her partner in a series of dancing and singing numbers, the former being worthy of mention.

The most thorough entertainer in the cast was Willis P. Sweetman, probably at the head of the list in negro dialect work, and possessing in addition a mellow voice. Sweetman's "coon talk" is better than the reality and his work adds a zest to the whole performance. The Imperial quartet, over which he wields the baton, also have the sweetness of voice peculiar to the Afro-American. Near Piggan, as corner Steve, the horn-blower, makes himself even more insipid than could be desired and certainly lives up to the full capacity of his part. There is a chorus made up of a dozen well drilled young women who sing acceptably and render one number on some such hidden instrument as a tin-toothed comb in a way which gained favor.

Orpheum

Although there are no 11,000-a-week headlines on the bill at the Orpheum for the week ending today, the entertainment is above the average in quality, and all the acts, with a single exception, are thoroughly enjoyable. In point of merit the precedence must, of course, be given to the Naxos, who present their delightful sketch, "The Naxos," which has been the most successful ever seen on the vaudeville stage, and which gives Mr. Nawn an opportunity to appear in the role of a simple-minded Irishman, a character in which he shows to better advantage than any other comedian on the stage today. The act is deliciously funny and the acting is admirably done. Westman and Wrenn present a rural skit which is neither conspicuously good nor irredeemably bad. Arthur Goff's comedy, "The Naxos," is a very nice selection, all of them being admirably done. Master Goff has a future before him as a comedian if he persists and is willing to study hard and faithfully. Patrice has a wondrously good sketch, "The Naxos," which is a very nice selection, all of them being admirably done. Master Goff has a future before him as a comedian if he persists and is willing to study hard and faithfully.

Troceadero

The appearance of one or two more burlesque troupes of the variety represented by T. W. Dinkins' "Vagabonds" and the "Little Egypt Extravaganza company," the one having closed a week's engagement at the Troceadero last week and the other opening for the week yesterday, and burlesque in Omaha is doomed to a speedy death. The popularity of this class of amusement has been attested by the splendid crowds that have greeted those companies which have had some merit in their presentations and at least mediocre ability on the part of their actors, but in the two cases cited it would be straining a point to dominate any part of their performance as above the level of the cheap music hall.

Madsen in a Fighting Humor

Bellevue Foundryman Undertakes to Whip Foundryman Baldwin with Usual Results. Herman Madsen, a foundryman, became so strong from the effects of red liquor that he tried to clean out the house of J. W. Kent at 605 North Fourteenth street Sunday night. He was getting warmed up to the work when Emergency Officer Baldwin arrived and placed him under arrest. As soon as they were outside of the house Madsen demanded to see the officer's star and while he was unbuckling his coat to comply with the request, the foundryman took a smash at him and started to run. Baldwin overhauled him shortly after firing a couple of shots. Madsen still showed signs and had to be knocked down several times before he would submit. When he arrived at the station his face was badly swollen and he was bleeding from a number of bruises, though none of them are serious. Madsen was charged with being drunk and disorderly by using profane language and threatening to fight, and assaulting an officer.

Coated

Look at your tongue. Is it coated? Then you have a bad taste in your mouth every morning. Your appetite is poor, and food distresses you. You have frequent headaches and are often dizzy. Your stomach is weak and your bowels are constipated. There's a reliable cure: Ayer's Pills. Agents: All Drugists.

Today take Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively prevents pneumonia and other serious results from cold. It may be too late tomorrow. Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha; Dillon's drug store, South Omaha.
