GENERAL MANDERSON IS BACK who will be, in the next generation, among the leaders of England and probably some DEAVER ANSWERS HITCHCOCK STOLE SLEEPER'S GARMENTS NEBRASKANS ARE COURTEOUS day the premier, the Hon. George Wynd-Replies to the Charges Made Against Sam Bussey Arrested for Taking the ment by the Voters.

"occurred at Carlton, where

The

Enjoyed His Trip Abroad, but is Glad to Be | mons and is also under secretary of war and Home Again.

MANY INTERESTING THINGS

Was Present at the Opening of Fall Courts and the Installation of New Chief Justice.

After an absence of more than two the prominent members of the English bar months, the greater portion of which time and the judges of England's great courts. abroad, General and Mrs. They are so much like American lawyers WHO SPORT Charles F. Manderson returned Sunday and judges that had it not been for their morning to their home in this city. They strange wigs and gowns I would have felt Jeft Omaha the latter part of August and that I was among members of the profeswent directly to Saratega, N. Y., where sion on this side of the water. They were General Manderson delivered the annual all immensely interested in American afaddress before the meeting of the Amer- fairs, asking many questions about our ju-Ican Ear association. September 5 they dicial system, our manner of conducting set sall from New York and exactly two elections and the probabilities of the fumonths elapsed from the time of their ture. salling until their embarkation on the return voyage. The sojourn of General and Mrs. Manderson abroad was a particularly enjoyable one. Few of the points of interest on the continent were missed in their travels and to make the trip the more enjoyable Germany and France is as great, but in it. they were fortunate in meeting many friends from the United States and forming many new acquaintances. The latter was particularly the case with General Manderson, who was everywhere greeted with a cordiality of welcome and enter- of France than it is of Germany, and were tained in a manner that was, he avers, by no means anticipated. In speaking of some of the observations of his trip General Manderson #mid:

"I can say, as every true American says might have provoked a general European when he returns from a trip across the water, that I come back a much better Amorican and fully satisfied with the conditions on this side of the big pond. This is particularly true since the news of the splendid republican victory assures a continuance of those policies which insure the recognition by every country that ours is greatest nation on earth, the wealthtest, inhabited by the most contented people and governed the best

war

Foreign Sentiment Has Changed.

"I was abroad eighteen years ago and I notice now a very marked change in the They are now according us the rank that not a factor to be ignored in commerce, fashion. These and other diplomatic apdiplomacy and all that is incident to a position at Paris, in my mind the greatest the world has ever known, showed our supremacy in many lines. It was very gratifying to me as an American to know that we had taken more prizes than any other nation, France only excepted.

"There is a heartlness of greeting and welcome on the part of every Englishman Croker-Tammany city government, and to that is very charming to a citizen of our great republic. As an indication of this feeling whonever the stars and stripes are shown upon the streets of London that flag creates almost as much enthusiasm as the Union Jack of England. In France and through continental Europe generally, but more particularly in France, there is a feeling of -1 hardly like to say antagonism. and yet a feeling of discontented cuvy. caused undoubtedly by our tremendous inroads upon their industries and from the fact that we are rivaling them in many lines of manufacture and capturing our fair share of the markets of the world.

"My trip abroad was caused by ill-health that followed a severe sickness in the spring. The sea voyage, the travel and the relief from care and work have done me past. Owing to an accident which befell ham. He is a member of the House of Comwas spokesman in Parliament for the Salisbury ministry during the late war in South Africa. "The night before I left London I was tendered a dinner at Brooks' club, the old NO TROUBLE WITH THEIR AUDIENCES historic club known to all readers of Engligh history, the dinner being given by Sir William Kennedy, chief justice of the Committeemen, Too, Were Above the high court of England. There were present Average of Those Ordinarily a number of the judges of the higher courts Met with During an Elecand it was to me a most interesting occation Contest. sion. These functions gave me an excellent opportunity of meeting and conversing with Campaign speakers from all parts of the othity who have paused at the republican headquarters on their way out of the state have remarked without exception upon the ourteous treatment accorded them by Nebraska crowds. The task of confronting in sudience more or less hostile and inlined to be boisterous is the most difficult and delicate which the "spelibinder" is alled upon to meet. The resources of the orator are often taxed to the limit in seuring a hearing and many are the clever oups which such a stress has called forth. "It is evident that with England we have Probably the most indefatigable cama strong commercial rivalry, but it is a genaign worker in Nebraska this fall was E. erous rivalry based upon good feeling and Flich, a well known Chicago attorney. that desire for fair play that is a characterwho spent six successive weeks in the istic of the Anglo-Saxon. Our rivalry with state and presided at thirty-six gatherings. Mr. Fitch has a frank address and a way so far as the Germans and French are conof making friends so that his troubles with cerned, there is no feeling of generosity and audiences were few. they would get the better of us in the con-"As narrow an escape as I had from test by any means within their power, fair being driven from the platform," remarked or unfair. This is more emphatically true Mr. Fitch, there was a well-defined precedent that t not that the exposition of this year had no republican should hold an outdoor meetompelled France to be on her good being. The republican committee had rehavior I have no question but that she would spected this sentiment, owing to expehave stirred up a quarrel with England that iences in the past, and had arranged for my gathering in the opera house. building is said to be the largest in Thayer "The United States has been particularly county and has a capacity of 700, but there fortunate in its diplomatic representatives. were still 800 left outside when the hall

Strong Commercial Rivalry.

Mr. Choate, our ambassador to the court of was packed. St. James, is most acceptable and has a per-Why He Didn't Speak. sonality that commands and will retain friendship, not only for himself, but for the "I suggested that I speak from a cracker country which he represents. General Hor- box in the square and the committeemen ace Porter in Paris has proven himself equal said they were willing if I thought I could to the emergency during a mest trying handle the crowd. I managed to find a period, for the sympathies of France were wagon seat and 1,560 people were gathered entirely with Spain and the feeling of ant- on three sides of me. Hefore I had gotten mosity of the French people toward United my feet adjusted to the swing of the States citizens is even now most pronounced. springs I saw signs of breakers ahead. feeling of nations abroad toward America. Ambassador White at Berlin is well liked There was apparently an organized gang by the German people and has conducted the of several hundred disturbers massed near is justly ours and recognize that we are affairs of his great office in a most admirable the center of the audience. "'Gentlemen,' I remarked, 'this will be pointments show the wisdom with which the thirty-third speech I have delivered in condition either of peace or war. The ex- President Mckinley has grappled foreign af- the state this campaign and I want to express my personal obligation to you Ne-

"When I discovered that I could not reach braskans for the friendly spirit with which ticket agent or write Jos. Teahon, Trav-Nebraska in time to vote I concluded to stay you have received me.' I thought maybe in New York on election day to see the that talk would get them, but it didn't. methods in vogue there. Fifth avenue had "This ain't the thirty-third speech been defaced by unsightly poles that had you're going to make,' one young farmer been placed at frequent intervals by the cried, 'because you ain't going to make it.' "There was a chorus of approving yells plant them the street paving and the side- and shouts for Bryan, so that the prospect walks had been disturbed and greatly dam- didn't look over and above inviting. I From these poles were stretched ban- started in as mild as I could, but I hadn't r.r.ed. ners bearing insulting inscriptions and the gone far when my voice was drowned by republican parade of the Saturday night be- concerted cheers for Bryan, which lasted fore, nearly 100,000 men strong, marching several minutes. I waited cheerfully until through the rain, had been compelled to pass it was over and went on. The rioters tried under these banners. Upon them were such it again before long and I thought by this inscriptions as these: 'They may make us time the game was losing a little of its march for McKinley, but they can't make us zest.

"So I said to them earnesily when the vote against Bryan;" 'This is a trust parade and not a republican parade;' 'McKinley's tumuit subsided: 'Boys, I don't mind your theering for Bryan, but it is only fair play name is on my coat, but Bryan is near my to wait until I have made my point." That seemed to touch them finally on the right

Decent Democrats Inceased. "The republican procession of Saturday

organs. They need help occasionally

When the Lease Expires.

tonic and system regulator.

know will have passed away.

heart, God bless him."

spot and they agreed with some more cheors. night, I was informed, marched under these "For two hours after that arrangement banners without disturbing them and the I spoke to those 1,500 people and at every great good. I feel much better than I gratuitous insult offered every man in the passe the republicans would cheer for have at any time for two or three years parade by the brute, Croker, greatly in- McKinley and the democratic mob would censed the decent democrats of New York huzza for Bryan. So we had a nice lively the steamer I was abcard homeward bound and really prompted a great many of them meeting and I afterward met a number of I reached New York too late to get home to vote the republican ticket, in whole or in the uproarious ones, who proved to be

Him by the Popoeratie Campaign Speakers Given Honorable Treat-Editor.

OMAHA, Nov. 19 .- To a Long-Suffering | Ren Hake, a hotel clerk, and a companion Public: It appears that the World-Herald started out Saturday night to have a good will never tire of dishing up fakes about time and they had it. Sunday morning me. The latest is an overflow edition to- found them in Jeff Seymour's saloon a day telling what a bad man I am. I do 323 North Fifteenth street. Hake slep not think the people of this state will soundly under a table and his companion think a fight upon me by Nebraska democ- was still drinking at the bar. Let Corracy is anything new in Nebraska politics. nish, the bartender on duty, and Sam I am denounced as an unfit person to serve Bussey were also in the saloon. While upon the Douglas county canvassing board. his victim shored and wheezed, Bussey They say I am a "man without means." took off Hake's overcoat, coat and vest, If that is true I know of no law that bars then put his own vest on the sleeping man a poor man from occupying any position and appropriated Hake's overcoat and vest he is capable of filling. After a time the latter awoke and realized Mr. Hitchcock and various other candi- that he had been robbed. A complaint dates have charged that I have been prom- was made at the police station and in a ised an office by Mr. Rosewater and that I short time Bussey was arrested at the am employed by him. Neither of these State hotel by Detective Drummy. He was charges is true. I have not been promised charged with larceny from the person. anything by Mr. Rosewater and have asked The clothing were recovered. By order of him for nothing. I would just as soon Chief Donahue the saloon was closed and work for Mr. Rosewater as anyone if I the proprietor will be prosecuted for viowere in need of employment, as he always lating the Slocumb law. The bartender, pays fair wages. Cornish, was also arrested by Drummy and It is not an unfair count they fear, but will have to face the charge of being an a fair count. Mr. Haverly asked me to go accessory to the crime. on the catvassing board because he thought

I was competent and honest, and I think Frank Kressl of 1505 Dominion street rehe knew no one could buildoze me. They ported the theft of an overcoat to the think by their tactics to frighten me so police Sunday. Kressl was taking a mornthat I will, in order to prove that I am ing stroll through the lower Third ward fair, give them the best of the count and fell in with Tim Hurley, an overcoatwherever differences arise. It won't work less hobe. Tim was arrested by Patrolwith me I shall perform my duty as 1 man Story, but in the meantime he had should and be perfectly fair. I will stand "ditched" Kressl's coat and it was not for the right when it appears, no difference recovered.

which side it affects, I will see that they get all that is coming to them, but no Mrs. T. Briddleman of Parshallville, Mich. more or no less. Let it be understood that was troubled with salt rheum for thirteen the writ of mandamus issued by the district years and had tried a number of doctors court upon trumped-up affidavits only comwithout relief. After two or three applicamanded the board to do what it intended tions of Banner Salve, her hands became to do, that is, comply with the law, can- better and in a short time she was entirely vass the returns in public. I know of no cured. Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha: Dilparty in this country that counts ballois lon's drug store, South Omaha.

Clothes Off Ren Hake's Back in a Saloon.

or election returns in secret except the democratic party. Respectfully D. CLEM DEAVER.

J. Odgers of Frostburg, Md., writes:

WINTER TOT TIST RATES.

DIED.

Because Its Good. had a very bad attack of kidney complaint and tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which gave me immediate relief, and I was perfectly cured after taking two bottles." Take no substitute. Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha; Actor's Liver Pills. Instatter's Bitters. 1000 offey's Mait Whisky ... Now on sale, good returning until June 1 owder ie Powder

Spey's Cream Iagnet File Ontment chrader's Fig Powder. uteura Soap uvenie Soap ackers Tar Soap em Catarrh Powder. 'inkham's Compound Perana Bar-Ben

***************

NOVEMBER EXCURSIONS.

Any man or boy

FAT OR LEAN. TALL OR SHORT. THICK OR THIN. WHITE OR BLACK

Provided he is Not Deformed

Can find a perfect fit in our clothing department. If a litle alteration is necessary, how easy 'tis done.

We don't desire to hore you, or claim too much of your time by long lists of products, textures, styles, etc., We simply ask you to compare our garments with other dealers'. Don't be guided by the dazzling appearance of the surface.

Look at the inside as well as the outside, examing the sewing, try the stitches, see that the butons are not glued on but thoroughly adjusted. Pay strict attention to quality, material and trimming.

SUITS AND FURS

Two big stocks purchased. The entire stock of a large cloak and suit manufacturer, and one of the most prominent furriers in New York City. They will not permit the use of their name, but the goods are here. What do you care about the name. The warm season in New York City made it hard on the manufacturers and easy for our resident buyer to purchase goods at his own price. They are here and plenty of them. You will be more than pleased.

100 ladies' fashionable high class suits, silk lined, never made to sell for less than $35, $40 and $50, on sale here at $15, $18 and 119 suits, silk lined throughout, bound with velvet, blouse and double breasted styles, the greatest values in America at $6.98, $8.98 and $10.00.

> Ladies' jackets at less than they were ever sold for.

1000 jackets, Skinner's satin lined throughout. made of Washington mills kersey, the best in the world, worth $10 to $15, on sale at $6.98. 219 ladies' box coats, made of West of England kerseys. Skinner's satin lined throughout, others ask you $18, we will sell them at $10.

Ladies' box coats, Romain lined, velvet collars, others ask you $12, we sell them for $6.98.

400 jackets, sill, and satin lined, made of elegant

6.75

5.00

6.50

7.50

7.50

.50

.50

2.50

10.00

1901. Special tours to Florida, Cubs. Key

UNION

PACIFIC

PLO'S PICTORIAL

Dillon's drug store, South Omaha.

Omaha, Neb. See C. F. Harrison's special real estate and cast my bailot for the republican ticket. However, my vote counted, as I was paired with a gentleman who would have voted as straight a democratic ticket as 1 am in the habit of voting the republican ticket.

Accident at Sea.

"The accident which came to our steamer. known. the St. Paul, might have been fraught with "The New York election passed off very serious consequences, but fortunately it did nothing more than-delay our arrival quietly and while the Tammanyites firmly believed that Greater New York would give in New York by nearly two days. At the a majority of from 60,000 to 100,000 for Mr. time of the accident both propellers of the big twin screw steamer were doing valof elaction I went, on the invitation of Corfaut service during a severe storm, which had lasted for nearly twenty-four hours, uelius N. Blies, to the headquarters of the republican national committee and sat there The gale was terrific and the sea very nearly all night with prominent republicans high. About 8 o'clock in the evening there was a severe shock to the ship that caused of the states of New York, New Jersey and meetings daily, and was never obliged to her to tremble in every part, followed by Connecticut, listeting to the cheering news, a whirring noise, and almost instantly the After the enthusiasm over the returns from engines stopped and the vessel proceeded New York and other eastern states was for a time simply from the momentum of over the news began to come from the west and everyone was overloyed to find that her headway. It appears that the starboard propeller struck a derelict, or great Cook county, Ill'nois, which, it was expected piece of ice, and broke the shaft, and shaft would give a majority for Mr. Bryan, had and propeller both went to the bottom of gone for McKinley with a good round majority. It was midnight before anything the sea. This caused the engine on the definite was received from Nebraska and as starboard side to break from its fastenings, the returns showed great republican gains the cylinder heads blew out and the engine, running wild as it was, would prob- in Bryan's own state and that his own precinct had given a majority of 103 against abby have knocked a hole in the bottom him, the rejolcing was very great and conor the side of the ship had it not been for the chief engineer, who was on the gratulations one to the other were hearty upper deck, shutting off the steam of all and frequent.

"Every lover of the state should rejoice the engines by what is known as the emergency wheel, with which, fortunately, the St. Paul was equipped. The result was now by the side of lowa, Illinois, New York, that we had to come the rest of the way Ohio and the New England states, rather with but one propeller and made the voy- than by the side of Arkansas, Alabama, South Carolina and Texas. The regret was age, in the vernacular of nautical men, 'on one lost.

would probably cast its vote for Mr. Bryan "Of the eight weeks that elapsed between the time we left New York until and that Senator Wolcott, who had made we returned all but two were spent in such a slpendid fight, would be defeated, sight-seeing. These two, of course, were but there was well grounded hope for the passed on the water and, as a matter of future in the fact that Bryan's majority in fact, there are many sights of interest to the silver state had been brought down from be seen while occupying your time with 134,000 to about 30,000.

a sea voyage. We landed at Southampton and ran up to Winchester for a day. was very quaint and we were delighted with its charm and the interesting old cathedral. From Southampton we sailed for Havre and reached Paris on the night of September 12. One week we speat in the gay French capital and then went to Geneva, following with the usual trip through the mountains and lakes of Switz- less one. It is quite a stretch of time. erland. We visited Berne, Lausanne, In- It might be said to be a railroad arrange terlaken, Lucerne and then proceeded to Milan, Italy, and from there to Verona and Venice. Then Munich, Vienna, by way of Prague, to Dresden, Berlin, Nuremberg. Frankfori, Mayence, down the river Rhine to Cologne, Drussels and then to London. We spent a week in London and were at Stratford-on-Avon for one day.

Magnificent Court Opening.

Central trains will be running between "I was very fortunate in London in being Albany and Boston without steam, electhere at the opening of the fall courts and tricity or liquid air. The single rail tracks witnessing the ceremony that, without will cross no highway or avenue at grade change, has been had for hundreds of years. | Hoston will be contiguous to Albany by I went with Mr. Choate, our ambassador, the existing schedule. The New York to the lord chancellor's reception in the Central's chief competitor will be the House of Lords and there met all the Aerial Transit Co., cutting the journey prominent barristers, queen's counsels and down to a matter of minutes and affordjudges of the high courts of England. It ing an unsurpassed bird's-eye view of the was a magnificent sight, attired as they Berkshire Hills.

were in the official robes of their office. When the lease expires the Boston been From there I went to the Inus of Court joke will have been inurned for centuries; and saw that interesting affair which oc- the anathematizing of the anti-imperialcurs once a year, the judicial procession. ists will not be entirely abandoned, but From there I was conducted to the High nearly so, the Albany capitol will be ap-Court of Justice and witaessed the core- proaching completion and the image montals incident to the installation and venders will show the bust of Receveli swearing in of the lord chief justice, Lerd in their Parthenon Lobbyists may arrange Atherstone, who is the successor of Lord with the cashier at the state house door Russell of Killowen, and there heard the for the influence of such legislators as have enlogies on Lord Russell pronounced by not been engaged. the attorney general and lord chancellor.

upon

When the lease runs out in 2898 Maphat-"Another very interesting day for me was itan may have rapid transit and fair local at luncheon at the Carleton house, given me government; but good citizens should not by the embassy, at which I met a young expect too much all at once .- From the man prominent in England's politics and Detroit Free Press.

part. Mr. Bryan proclaimed in New York: more hilarious than maliciou 'Great is Tammany and Croker is its Compliments Committeemen prophet!' And his affiliation with this cor-"Not only were the crowds intelligent rupi element unquestionably did him great and orderly, but the county committeemen harm throughout the who'e country and parmanaging the small divisions of the camtimularly in the east, where this ignorant paign were much above the average of their and dominating brute, Croker, is well They were apparently republicans sort. who had been drawn into the fight because they believed they knew the truth and wanted to spread it. I may say they were a more worthy lot than I have met in any state during my stumping experience Bryan it fell far below 35,000. The evening in the last three presidential campaigns." Secretary of State George L. Dobson of Iowa also testified to the universal courtesy of Nebraska crowds. He spoke for three weeks in the state, often appearing at two pause for any period by a hostile demonstration.

HARD O'L FINISH

Sherwin-Williams Co.'s VARNISHES like heir paints, are of superlative quality. They are put up in SMALL cans-as well as large ones. There are varnishes for FUR-NITURE and varnishes on purpose for Then there is the beautiful FLOORS. 'HARD OIL FINISH."

Half-pint can Family Paint ..... Half-pint can Varnish Stain ..... 25c Half-pint cans Screen Paint ..... 150 and be exceeding glad that Nebraska ranks Quarter-pint cans Enamel Paint ..... 20c Quarter-pint cans Bicycle Enamel..... Half-pint cans Buggy Paint ..... 25c Half-pint cans Bathtub Enamel ..... 60c Half-pint cans Oil Stain ..... 150 very great election night that Colorado One-pint cans fine Varnish ...... 40c One-quart bottle Saunders' Ruby Floor OII 40c ....... One-pound can Shinon Floor Wax .... 50c

> Call for Color Card. Sherman & McConnell Drug Co.

New Location, 16th and Dodge. OMAHA, NEB.

1502 FAR'AM STREET. BURLINGTON STATION. IOTH AND MASON STS. TEL. 128.

HAYDEN BROS Selling the Most Clothing in Omaha.