PEKIN, Nov. 19 .- (Via Shanghai) -The meeting of the foreign envoys has unexdeveloped a point of difference which has brought the negotiations to a temporary standstill. The matter will be referred to the home governments. The had no more dynamite and then gave up conference adjourned without fixing a date the task of forcing open the door. for re-assembling.

It is said that the difference is such as will possibly cause considerable delay. Li Hung Chang is known to have approached unofficially certain ministers with a view of ascertaining the likelihood of the powers reducing the punishment of Chinese officials to degradation by banishment, but it is understood that he received no encouragement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. -Adolph L. Roeder. Fatalities of From One to Five Reported formerly well known as a wealthy man, interested in mining ventures, was examined in supplementary proceedings today by Julius Lehmann, attorney for a market company of Denver, Colo. Judgment against Roeder for $500 for meats delivered to him while he was living in Denver had been obtained in the city court and the order for examination was granted by Judge Fitzsimmons of the city court passed by the legislature of 1885, which Mr. Roeder said he had no business now, having lost all his money. He had been been connected with the Empire Ventilator company and many mining ventures. Between 1889 and 1896 he was in the Beta. Robet Mining company and lost $40,000. He was interested in the Rice-Aspen Mining company of Colorado, making from $150,000 to $250,000. He lost all his money he said, owing to the passage of the Sherman act, which ruined his business. "The largest amount I made in any year," said Roeder, "was $259,000 in 1890. My brother, A. B. Roeder, is married to a daughter of John E. Searles, of the American Sugar Refining company."
