 Wool Market.
 BOSTON, Nov. 25.—WOOL—The American Wool and Coiton Reporter will say of the wool trade tomorrow: The wool market has been rather more active the last week, the sales aggregating 4.750,000 pounds. There has been considerable quiet looking around for sill classes of wool and the demand has been strictly for consumption. Reasonable prices have been offered and have been accepted. The Wanskuck and Tarlington miles have taken some fair-sized lines of wool, as well as a number of the smaller of the smaller of the smaller business woold probably have been transacted had to been for the extremely unfavorable weather, which has militated against an active demand for goods. Advices from the west continue to indicate a very buillish feeing. Owners of wool and there is no pressure to sell wool and quotations are unchanged. The sales this week in Boston amounted to 4.175,800 pounds domestic and 550.000 pounds foreign, making a total of 4.725,800 against a total of 3.452.000 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and total of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a sole of 13.915.400 pounds for the previous week and a total of 13.915.400 pound
