District Court Notes. The trial of the suit of Andrew Nealey, colored, against Jacob Neumayer, proprietor of the Neumayer hotel, was completed in the district court yesterday afternoon and the case given to the jury about 2 o'clock. At 10 o'clock last night the jury brought in a verdict giving Nealey $20. Nealey sued for $7,000 damages for being refused admission to the dining room at the Neumayer hotel one day last January. Following the Nealey-Neumayer suit the case of Mike Kadel against George Kassing was commenced. In this suit Kadel asks for $1,000 damages for alleged libelous statements made by the defendant concerning him. Both parties are residents of th German settlement in York township and Kadel contends that by reason of the libelous statements made by Kassing concerning his (Kadel's) moral character he has been ostracized in the community.

Oskaloosa is Improving. GRINNELL, Ia., Dec. 7.-(Special.)-In addition to the new $50,000 government building secured by Congressman Lacey and a new $25,000 jail, the city of Oskaloosa is planning for still other improvements. One is to be the erection of a lighting sixteen miles of electric road threading the streets of the city and extending to Leconta via Beacon, two flourishing suburbs. This last project has not yet reached a stage of absolute certainty, but is to be submitted to the people of the city and there seems to be no reasonable doubt but that it will be accepted by the citizens. This will mean the investment of about $300,000.
