

WEDDINGS AND GOOD CHEER

Fairfield-Woolworth Nuptials Are the Event of the Week.

MANY HOSTESSES AT HOME TO FRIENDS

Anti-Christmas Season is Filled with Minor Events and Society Drags Out Its Yule Log Against That Occasion.

The Fairfield-Woolworth wedding was the only really formal occasion of the week, though there were a number of elaborate teas and "afternoons."

Numerous though they have been of late, no two Kensingtons have been just alike. The announcement varies in the most satisfactory, affording as it does such opportunity for discussing these all-important affairs.

The modern Kensington is no longer an affair for women exclusively. Of late the men have been dropping in at the last, after the Christmas things have been carefully tucked into the workboxes.

During the fine days of the last week the golfers have not been idle, but have proved every footing. This may account for the few formal affairs, for when society plays golf it does little else.

The marriage of Miss Woolworth and Mr. Fairfield, which was solemnized at Trinity cathedral on Tuesday, though simple was one of the most beautiful weddings that has ever taken place in Omaha.

The church was screened from the body of the church by a tall partition of southern smilax, leaving only the arch through which Mr. How and Dr. Bridges ushered the sixties.

The bride's gown was of heavy ivory satin with trimmings of hand-made silk lace. The bodice was of lace with a yoke of tulle, chiffon and sleeves of lace and satin.

The long and impressive double ring ceremony was used, Dean Fair reading the betrothal and Bishop Williams the marriage service. During the ceremony the bride and groom were kneeling and into the chancel, where the party met at the altar.

THE LITTLE SICKNESSES

Which Grow Into Big Ones. A little cold in the head is a trifle, but if neglected it hangs on from week to week and gets into the throat and lungs it is no longer a trifle. It is then no longer a slight cold, but the beginning of chronic catarrh.

Do not make the mistake of thinking you have no catarrh because the head and nose appear to be clear. If there is cough, tickling in the throat, soreness of a sense of oppression in the chest, you have throat and bronchial catarrh. If the appetite is poor, nausea, gagging and disgust for food, especially in the morning, you have catarrh of the stomach.

The surest and safest treatment for every form of catarrh is an internal remedy which acts especially on the blood and mucous membranes.

Such a remedy is the new catarrh cure, which is sold everywhere by druggists under name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, a medicine in pleasant, convenient tablet form and containing all the best and latest specifics for catarrh, whether located in nose, throat, bronchial tubes or stomach.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed of Sanguinaria, guaiaccol, red gum and similar antiseptics, which destroy the germs of catarrh in the blood, and no one who suffers from any form of catarrh and has seen the uselessness of sprays, douches and powder will ever go back to them after trying so convenient, pleasant and harmless a remedy as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and one which gives relief in so short a time.

Even in cases where catarrh has affected the senses of smell and hearing, these tablets accomplish a cure, because the blood being cleansed of catarrhal germs, the mucous surfaces of the nose and throat no longer clog the respiratory passages with catarrhal secretions. All druggists sell full sized treatments of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets for the nominal price of 50 cents, and the results daily use of them will effectually cure this troublesome and dangerous disease.
