Iowa's Great Exposition Proves a Money-Making Institution.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS ARE SUBMITTED

President and Secretary Make a Fine Showing to the Farmers' Institute at its Second Day's Session.

DES MOINES, Dec. 12.—(Special.)—The closing day of the Iowa State Farmers' Institute and State Agricultural convention was marked by the reading of a few papers and the reading of the reports of the officers of the society having in charge the state fair and supervision over county district fairs.

President Johnson, in his annual address, referred briefly to the conditions which combined to make the fair of 1900 a greater success than any of its predecessors.

The reports of officers were referred to proper committees for approval. A resolution mildly approving the proposal of the Mississippi river and recommending that the government put all forest reserves under control of the Department of Agriculture was passed.

H. W. Byers of Harlan county presented the resolutions, which congratulate the people of the whole country on the prevailing prosperity, and especially the prosperity of the farmers of Iowa, who are doing business on the present good times basis.

The secretary will be elected tomorrow and Van Houten will probably be re-elected. The Iowa Horticultural society was in session today.

A Few Reasons Which are Rapidly Making a New Catarrh Cure Famous.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new Catarrh cure, has the following advantages over other catarrh remedies.

First: These tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or any other injurious drug and are as safe and beneficial for children as for adults.

Next: Being in tablet form this remedy does not deteriorate with age, or an exposure to the air as liquid preparations invariably do.

Next: The tablet form not only preserves the medicinal properties, but it is so far more convenient to carry and to use at any time that it is only a question of time when the tablet will entirely supersede liquid medicines as it has already done in the medical department of the United States army.

Next: No secret is made of the composition of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they contain the active principle of Eucalyptus bark, red gum blood root and Hydrastis, all harmless antiseptics which, however, are death to catarrhal germs wherever found, because they eliminate them from the food.

Next: The use of inhalers and spraying apparatus, besides being ineffective and disappointing is expensive, while a complete treatment of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets can be had at any drug store in the United States and Canada for 50 cents.

be so accommodating to his patrons hereafter as to keep the United States post office open on Sunday. Some of his patrons begged of him to have the postoffice of the village kept open for a short time each Sunday and after consulting with attorneys as to whether or not he had the right to do so or was under obligation to do so accommodate the postoffice patrons he decided he would do so.

For several months the Des Moines Jobbers' and Manufacturers' association has been trying to devise some plan by which a reduction in freight rates can be secured. It is thought one has finally been found. It is proposed to organize a transportation company, which shall take care of the shipments out of and to Des Moines, thus securing a large portion of the freight business of the city, after which it will be offered to the road which will offer the best rates for it.

At 3 o'clock this evening Mrs. Broadbent, the wife of the Richardson divorcee, was given such sensational testimony against Mrs. Richardson, was shot in the back of the head and will probably die. She claims she was shot by a man who came into her room, but there is a suspicion that it was done by the assassin on account of the notoriety of the case.

Judge McPherson, in the United States district court, today decided that John Kluge, marshal of the town of Colfax, must go to jail for three days for contempt of court. Kluge was charged with violation of the liquor laws and in order to prevent a trial arrested and confined in jail one of the leading witnesses in the case. He claimed that the arrest was done to protect his own life, but the court decided that it was done to defeat justice.

FLAMES CONSUME CONVENT

Fort Dodge Nunnery, School and Fine Catholic Library All Totally Destroyed by Fire.

PORT DODGE, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Sisters of Mercy convent and parochial school were completely destroyed by fire early this morning, with a total loss of about $12,000. The insurance was $3,500. At the time the fire was discovered there were ten people asleep in the building, some of whom narrowly escaped with their lives. Sister Mary Catherine, the superior, was awakened by the light of the fire shining in her eyes. On arising to investigate she found the cupola of the school building in flames. She hastened to ring the school bell, considering that the quickest method of giving alarm, but as she grasped the rope it crumbled to ashes in her hands. The inmates were then aroused by Sister Catherine and some barely escaped as the flames burst into their rooms.

WOULD CORNER CRAB MARKET

Sioux City Doctor and a Chicagoan Undertake to Monopolize Supply of Soft Shells.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—To corner the softshell crab market is the somewhat important task undertaken by H. H. Sears of Chicago and Dr. A. Perry Bowman of Sioux City. Mr. Sears, who formerly was manager of the Chesapeakeyster company in this city, is now in New York dickering with fishing concerns which produce the softshell crab supply. It is declared the scheme is being backed by $300,000 capital and that the prospects for its succeeding are bright. It is asserted that 90 per cent of the product already is assured the promoters of the enterprise. It is yet a little early for softshell crabs, but Messrs. Sears and Bowman desire to be in on the ground floor.

FARMER'S FATAL MISTAKE

CRESTON, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special Telegram.)—W. D. Johnson, of Highland township, succumbed this morning. He placed the muzzle of a shotgun in his abdomen and kicked the trigger with his foot. Imaginary impending financial ruin provoked the deed. Mrs. Johnson says she has lived in fear of her life for the past few days, and suggested that both would be better off dead. James was in splendid circumstances.

WANTS IOWA ACRES RESURVEYED

ONAWA, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—Farmers whose places adjoin Blue lake, near Onawa, are much concerned over an application filed in the land office at Washington by J. Callahan, grantee of Monument county of all swamp land within its boundaries, for a survey by the government.

for a survey by the government. The tract in question lies in townships 83 and 84 and comprises some of the best farms in the county. In his petition Callahan states that though a part of the tract is rolling prairie land it was included in the "swamp and overflowed" acreage, as contemplated in the act of September 28, 1850, and shown by the government plat. Callahan further claims that the earlier survey was a cheat to the government and prays that the land be now resurveyed, platted and thrown open to entry as provided by law.

FIX BAIL FOR MRS. HOSSACK

Justice of the Peace Ross is Now Trying to Determine the Right Amount.

INDIANOLA, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—Mrs. Hossack, in jail on a charge of murdering her husband, will be released on bail as soon as Justice Ross fixes the amount. The indictment against her was taken at the coroner's inquest was submitted to him and he has decided that it is proper to admit the defendant to bail, but has not yet been able to agree on the amount. There is no doubt that Mrs. Hossack will be able to give bail in any reasonable amount.

The prevailing sentiment in Warren county is turning somewhat in her favor as the people consider more carefully all the evidence in the case. It is now generally rumored that the chemical analysis has shown that the blood on the shirt was found the day after the murder, and which was supposed to have been the weapon used by the assassin, is in reality not human blood, but that of a chicken and that the weapon of the assassin has never been found. If the verdict of the jury will have been made for the defense.

ADDITIONAL COUNCIL BLUFFS

SENTER CASE STILL UNDER WAY.

Judge Green Comes Back from Red Oak and Resumes the Hearing.

Judge Green returned from Red Oak yesterday afternoon and held a night session at Council Bluffs. The case against the trial of Thomas R. Senter was resumed. The defense introduced some strong evidence in support of the alibi it is endeavoring to establish. C. A. Dewey, agent of the Keokuk and Western railway at Memphis, Mo., and other employees of the same railroad testified as to the shipment of stock by Senter on the dates he is alleged to have been in Council Bluffs.

C. H. Lawton, cashier of the Southland County National bank of Memphis, testified on October 1, 1900, that he charged Senter with his bank and asked an extension of time on a note that was due that day. Interest in the trial is increasing and the court room last night was densely crowded. It is expected that the case will go to the jury.

A. J. Jackson, cashier of the First National bank of Morrison, Ill., and W. H. Bull of Rockfalls, Ia., who claim to identify Senter as a man who worked for them for a large sum of money on a bogus land deal in the city of Council Bluffs, were called to the stand. They were accompanied by Sheriff C. C. Fuller, who has with him a warrant for Senter's arrest. Both Jackson and Bull insist that they are positively sure of their identification of Senter.

REPRESENTATIVE FARMER MAKES RESTITUTION

CRESTON, Ia., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—A case of troubled conscience and restitution is reported by Ailyn Bros., bankers of Mount Airy. Twenty years ago, when the bank was under the management of Morris & Ailyn, a Rice township farmer on deposit $100. One day he went into the bank and drew from the deposit the full amount of $100. Some time later he drew out the remainder and by mistake was paid the full amount of the check, $100. For twenty years he had been using the $100 for his own purposes. The bank last week related the incident to Mr. Ailyn and wanted to pay back the money with compound interest. It amounted to $30. Half the money was sent to Mr. Morris' widow, at the request of the repentant farmer, and the other half was retained by Ailyn Bros.

The accident occurred while the mother was at her house. The child's father was killed by falling off a bridge at Webster City about a year ago.

Stone, for a continuance of the case of the state against him for the larceny of property belonging to the state, while he was employed at the Iowa hospital here as foreman of the industrial department of the institution. The continuance of the case was made on account of the illness of Attorney W. F. Kopp, who is the principal counsel of the defendant.
