

ing all the sealskins that were formerly sold for $135.00 and up to $1.75.00 at $98.00 tomorrow. They are all this season's stock —every garment is elegantly lined and well made.

Epecimen Instance of the Riot of Robbery and Murder in China's Capital.

SCENES SKETCHED BY AN AMERICAN

Cold-Blooded Bayoneting and Loot-ing by the Ailied Vanguard of Civilization in the Land of the Heathen.

chief of the allies. According to the ac-marshal took offense at the expressions of the American commander and returned the letter. Thereupon General Chaffee modified the phraseology employed, the field marshal accepted the amended letter,

The exact words employed by General searched the vast vocabulary of the English strength to condemn the orgie of murder and robbery indulged in by the allied China. Some idea of the extent of the looting of Pekin may be had from the following letter written by James Reed Hull, correspondent of the Minneapolis Journal:

When I recall my experience during the certain events. Much has been written in regard to the cruelty of the Japanese and Russian soldiers, and yet there is much about to recount will give a fairly good left to tell. The two incidents which I am idea of what the soldiers of the two greatest powers in Asia are capable of doing pack train from Tung Chow to Pekin. The packers were Chinese coolies who had been impressed by the Russians. Our road lay through the cornfields. The air was close, being filled with dust, and the sun's the packers began to groan under their utes. The Chinese were just on the point in the corn, when a Cossack came gallop-

"For the love of the 'little father.'

with foam and his rifle in his hand.

chambers of their rifles.

pursuit of you and only a mile away."

Prodded with Bayonets.

The shrill order for the packers to re-discontent in low murmurs. They had not

One day I was riding with a Russian when in hostile territory.

forces of the civilized powers operating in ]

and the incident closed.

locting of cities by the allies. The field to move forward.

a full dress pattern. The goods are worth up to $2.50 a yardentire pattern on sale tomorrow for ......

later we were moving up the road at a pace the famed Ming dynasty, and carried fire carried on openly about the town, for manding officer, whose territory lay next shots fired in our rear and turning in my blood on the Chinese throne after decap- found in Pekin? saddle I saw a troop of Chinese cavalry itating the last of the Ming emperors. In Everything one would associate with the tend the French district a short ways into halting 300 yards away on a little knoll. 1860 the British and French looted and Orient-articles that have been the envy ours for the sake of "compactness." Some of the cavalrymen dismounted and be- burned the summer palace of a descendant of the world for centuries, that neither gan to fire at us. Orders were given to of the first Manchurian, destroying all in money nor love could purchase; articles our guards not to answer. Several of the its path and as a final blow looted Pekin that would upset the mind of the enthusipackers were wounded by the Chinese fire. and butchered thousands of its inhabitants. astic collector and connoisseur of curios,

The Russians immediately stripped off the cue and put the Chinese to rout.

This condition of affairs existed for sevcounts, General Chaffee wrote a warm surly Slav, with a scowl darkening his and, although looting went on just the same, it was on a different scale. Americana Also Cruel.

regained their packs and the march was resumed. I was riding in the rear when I noticed one of the oldest packers, a man who must have been at least 60 years of age, fall beneath his load. A guard, with Chaffee are not known, but he might have an imprecation, pricked the exhausted man with his bayonet. The old fellow struggled language without finding words of adequate to his feet and trudged on. I watched him staggering along for a time and finally suggested to the guard that I be allowed to carry the old coolle's pack. The soldier consented and the pack was handed to me. The moment the coolie was relieved of his load two soldiers grabbed him roughly by shoulders and threw him roughly to one were shot.

side of the road. Then they began to prick recent campaign with the relief column him on the chest with their bayonets. The in China I shudder at the mere thought of old men shrieked for mercy. The captain, "Kill the fool!" he cried to the corporal The corporal lunged at the Chinese twice before his bayonet point found the looting. heart. The old man fell to the ground, shivered and died. I reined in my horse, let the train pass, threw the Russian pack into the corn and rode after my com-

He did not have the heart to put the men Another day, while on the march between Chan Chia Wan and Pekin with a rays beat mercilessiy upon us. By noon Japanese field battery two of the artillerymen and myself went into a melon patch heavy loads. The captain in command that had been sighted from the road. While gave orders for the train to rest ten min- we were searching for ripe melons one of

of removing their packs and the Russian Chinese peasant hiding in the corn nearby. the death penalty or not.

Five minutes later another soldier found crops. hasten," he cried. "Chiuese cavalry is in a Chinese boy whom I judged to be about 5 years old, hiding in the corn. I interpassing in except commissioned officers and Japanese got but little. The Russians made There was a French Red Cross nurse ceded for the little fellow's life, but the with the train, who shrieked with fear and "Japs" only grinned and shook their heads. leot. bundled herself into her rickshaw with One of then, grabbed the boy's queue and little grace. The guards, who had been ly- held him up by it, while another bared ing in the corn smoking cigarettes, sprang his arm, drew his short sword and with would have yielded each one an independ- most cases obtained by single-handed efto their feet and slipped cartridges into the one strong stroke decapitated the child. ent fortune fort.

The little head rolled among the melons The English System. and the Japs sat down in sight of it to discuss a melon. Horrified and sick at heart, I rode away. sume their loads rang out. Some of the more fatigued rose slowly, expressing their

"Kill the Fool!"

hearing his cries, ripped out an oath.

Tragedy in a Melon Patch.

him out into the open and before I had an

one sircke of his artillery sword.

in charge.

panions.

guards were about to seek shady nooks. He caught the old man by the queue, pulled ing madly up the trail, his horse covered opportunity to interfere beheaded him with

The coolies, still trembling with fear,

Sacking of Pekin.

insubordination by prodding the dissatis- the thirteenth century the Mongolians, or tingent. ned packers with bayonets. Three minutes western Tartars, overran China, then under After these sales commenced, loot was Americans to guard. The French com-

PEKIN LOOTED TO A FINISH later we were moving up the road at a pace the lamed Ming dynasty, and carried fire carried on openly about the town, for manding officer, whose territory my next to ours, being apprised of the whereabouts up. The coolies were trotting along, bend-ing low under their loads, their bare backs Manchu Tartars established themselves in take it from me?" to ours, being apprised of the value of the value of the treasure by his Chinese interpreter, called upon Chaffee and with marked pomacks and bayoneted the wounded men. great wrong and found a partially deserted rough Russians from Siberia, sons of con-When our position was most perilous a city of great wealth. The strictest orders victs, sleeping on furs such as the "white troop of Japanese cavalry came to the res- were issued against looting, but the lust father" himself does not possess, and some for loot seemed to have seized the whole of these maltreated robes had embroidered

Ladies' Warm Slippers,

29c, 39c, 59c, 75., 89c, 98c. $1.50

The Russian captain in charge of the allied army and men risked reputation and in their brocade exteriors the crest of the Recent dispatches from China gave an pack train, with poor grace, thanked the hope of promotion in the mighty rush for imperial family of China-the five-clawed inkling of the friction that recently pre- Japanese officer who had led his cavalry riches of the Chinese capital. It was only golden dragon, sacred in Chinese eyes. valled between General Chaffee, com-mander of the American forces, and Field is very strong between Russians and Japan-mander of the American forces, and Field eral Ma's cavalry before the flight of the counts, General Chance wrote a warm shirty shirt, much a conder for the train eral days and then a change came. Those imperial household from Pekin, but several in command began to regain their reason of the larger chests containing jewels of inestimable value were taken by the Russians. The storerooms of the dowager's private palace were entered and despoiled If a Chinaman with loot was caught in that part of the city guarded by the British officer remarked, "to the queen's. American troops he was usually put to taste." Silver bullion was found in great death without even so much as a trial. In quantities, the Japanese getting the larger other parts of the city, guarded by the share of it. Coins are rarely used by the troops of other nations, he was given his Chinese of the interior provinces. Trade life and allowed to take such things as in the interior is invariably carried on with were necessary for his personal comfort. small pieces of rough bullion varying in The Americans were the only ones who value from 75 cents to $5. A few gold bars made use of the death penalty to punish now and then appear in circulation. This looters and on account of the fact that it primitive method of exchange placed the was very difficult to discriminate between Chinese at a disadvantage, when it came to the looter and the man who was carrying concealing their wealth. It was quite imaway his own property many innocent men possible to keep from the prying looter's eyes a room resembling a coal-bin piled to

To Lieutenant Kilbourne of the Four- the ceiling with silver shoes-"sysce." This distinguished himself by his work in the the name is applied to the silver places besanitary department of Manila, was given cause in the olden time in China before the district. His orders from General Chaffee and bargains made by doling out so many were to put to death all Chinese caught shoes full of silver. Hence when the govbeen caught in the act of taking clothing. customs and laws of antiquity.

The Japs Were "On."

At first thought it would seem that the to death for so trivial an offense, especially The Japanese, who have had spice in after he learned that they had taken the Pekin from time immemorial, knew where severe measures used by the Americans clothing to keep themselves warm during the largest deposits of silver were con- were the best, but, as a matter of fact. the cool nights. He reported the matter cealed-that is, Baron Yamanguchi and it was quite the contrary. The richer to General Chaffee and asked for instruc- General Fukushima did-and they acted ac- Chinese had fled, leaving a great quantity tions. His orders were finally modified to such an extent that it was left to his own when they took immediate possession of the had no intention of reclaiming. The my "Jap" companions discovered an old discretion whether he would make use of imperial mints and proceeded to cart off Boxer disturbances and mob law which that the diamond alone was worth at least the silver to the Japanese legation, where, were in full force in Pekin just previous $600. The ring was mutilated, but the stone A portion of the American contingent was when I left Pekin, there were three large to the arrival of the allies had left a was unharmed.

of Agriculture, whither the emperor used wealth will oventually find its way into pers, and many of these, through sheer Unique, indeed, was that dinner given in to go every three years to pray for good the treasury at Tokio and help to defray necessity, stayed behind to welcome the Philadelphia the other day, where a justice The guards at the entrances to the expense of maintaining the Japaness relief column. Thousands, it could be the temple had orders to search every one army in China. Aside from the silver the plainly seen, were straving. Old men and torical portraits was invited to sit down women, shriveled and filthy lepers, others with a score of guests, each of whom rides to confiscate articles that appeared to be the biggest haul of jewels. The British, by suffering with infectious diseases peculiar his own particular hobby. One's hobby was In this manner vast quantities of the auctioncering of loot, were more than to China, sat along the line of march, engraving, another's was autographs, anvaluable silks and furs came into the pos- recompensed for the hardships of the cam- humbly begging for alms as we entered other's was precious stones, another's was get up and offer me a seat when I go insession of the officers, the sale of which paign, but what the Americans got was in the city. According to every law of hu- original manscripts, another's was stamps, manity, this suffering multitude should and so on through the whole category of

French "Did" Chaffee.

Once we had a treasure amount to food and raiment themselves. Therefore, It yielded a gain to the men as well as 3,000,000 Spanish dollars in our hands, be- the quartermaster's departments could has a spoon that cost him $19,000. Years voung girl, and she makes a perfect guy the officers. An auction was held at the sides the finest collection of porcelain not well afford togive anything to the ago he was offered that sum for his share of herself. She's 57 if she's a day. British legation. At this plunder that had ware in China, worth as much more, but suffering Chinese. So a famine came, and in a Mexican mine. He refused, and a 1 suppose some men would laugh at mo This is the story of the recent sacking failen to the share of the British was sold. Chaffee allowed himself to be duped out the Chinese, driven to desperation by day or two inter the property was flooded because I think so much of Tabby, but I understood the cossack's words and were of the Chinese capital by the allies. Chinese These sales took place daily for two weeks. of it by the French. This treasure was to starvation, naturally sought the historians record similar occurrences in the The proceeds were equally divided among be had in the Pekin home of Li Hung tected food and clothing supplies left by ruined the property. Out of the ore on the house than a man with a nasty old pipe ing us. The guards put an end to this thirteenth and seventeenth centuries. In the companies comprising the English con- Chang. The house or palace was on the the refugees. For this reason Chaffee bank Mr. Gross had a silver spoon made, and a three day's growth of beard. outskirts of the territory assigned to the made a great mistake when he decreed and that is all he has to show for his don't have to sew anybody's buttons on death. It is sad to say, but nevertheless dozen, acquired in a similar way, that cost true, that on one or two occasions, poor, him $10,000 aplece. half-starved coolies, suffering from ex-posure sought refuge in houses in the F. J. Smith, the well known politician American district only to be turned out and ex-sheriff of Emmet county, Ohio, go at......

is circulating a petition to clear his At the time it didn't seem so heartless record in the civil war which reveals a for battle was in the air and death was romantic statement of facts. In the early liable to come to any one of us at any 60s his older brother, Garrison E. Smith ply with the French request, never dream. moment. We had all become quite ac- of St. Clair, was enlisted in Company H, customed to viewing decomposing hodies. Fourth volunteer infantry, When he was I had seen dogs and pigs in the Philip- to start his wife was sick unto death and The allies came to Pekin to revenge a rare ermine and sable robes. I have seen French soldiers were on guard at Li Hung pines tearing at rotten human flesh with Flavel J., by consent of the officers, took Chang's palace, and the silver was being as much gusto as if regaling themselves his place, served and was mustered out removed to the French cathedral. Subse- on rare bits, but not until I went to Pekin under the name of his brother, Garrison E. quently it was distributed among the did I behold cannibalism resorted to in Smith. His petition asks that the record be corrected to carry his name.

For Hourseness.

Dillon's drug store, South Omaha.

from Saigon and Tonquin made their garlic remained in Pekin for the purpose of It would appear that a man's life may stews in vases of great antiquity without lotting and a great many of these had twice be put in jeopardy for the same ofeven the faintest idea of the sacrilege previous knowledge of the rich stores of fense. Howard Curtis Benham of Batavia, they were committing. Out of old bowis loot; but in most cases they didn't reveal N. Y., was charged with poisoning his wife, mander of the American forces, and Field Marshal von Waldersee, commander-in-chief of the allies. According to the ac-dapper little "Jap" role away and the dance on every hand it was almost too much to ask men to keep hands off. watery claret. And in course of time the was over with. Then it was too late, guardians of his infant son bring suit to better part of the collection was reduced for highwaymen were abroad, who would prevent Benham from taking possession of to fragments. When affairs became more just as soon spit a Chinaman as eat a good the property for which the crime is said to settled, inquiries were made for the Li dinner. These highwaymen were re- have been committed. The only issue in Hung Chang collection, and the story of cruited from all classes. Anyone with a this new suit is as to whether Benham did its destruction became public property, white face was eligible to become a ban- or did not kill his wife, and a curious much to the discomfiture of the French dit, then a most profitable role because situation will develop should the present commander, who, by the way, considered it only required an hour or so of careless case go against him.

come upon a rich Chinaman and relieve | Dorothy Creede, 5 years old, living at San Francisco, is to receive $3,000,000 from looting was the punishment given Chinese sisted to measure the distance through Nicholas Creede, the Colorado millionaire, providing she leads a proper and virtuous > life until she is 20 years old. Fich are the terms of the will. Little Dorothy's life Benj. Ingerson of Hutton, Ind., says he thus far has been as romantic as novel. had not spoken a word above a whisper for She is the granddaughter of a California months, and one bottle of Foley's Honey pioneer named Walker, but her father comand Tar restored his voice. It is used mitted suicide when ill luck fell on him. largely by speakers and singers. Take no and the mother was thought to be on her > substitute. Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha: dying bed when Creede stepped in and adopted the girl baby. She made his home happy for one year. Then he died and willed her his fortune. She is now in her mother's charge and is to be carefully reared so she may fulfill the conditions of Creede's will.

Does Your Wife Suffert

Ladies suffer terribly from constipation. ick headaches. Cascarets Candy Cathartic give quick relief. Keep a box handy. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

Reveries of an Elderly Spinster.

Chicago Tribune: Anyhow, it's my own fault.

I've had plenty of offers in my time. That's more than that sneaking Della Hykes can say.

Men used to rave about my complexion. It hasn't changed so much.

I've never seen a man that was worth sitting up till after midnight either with or

I could have had Hal Quinby if I had wanted him, but who would marry a man that had swallowed his chin?

don't have half as much trouble as Mag Sputterwell has, and she's only been married ten years. Looks 100 years old. Still, I don't like to see impudent men side a street car. I take the seat, but I look daggers at 'em.

There's some married women that don't want to acknowledge they're growing old. Colonel George P. Gross of Kansas City Mrs. Higgsworthy tries to dress like a QUAINT FEATURES OF LIFE. After working as a locomotive engineer on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for just half a century Joseph West of Cumberland, Md., has been retired on a pension at the age of 75. In all the years of his employment he never received the slightest injury. never had a wreck of any consequence and at no time was a man of his crew killed.

Thomas Gaither of Hancock Station, Md. killed four big porkers that had been fed on the refuse from a dining car. While making the sausage a hard substan, e stopped the grinder. When removed it proved to be a beautiful solitaire diamond ring. It was sent to Baltimore for inspection, and came back with the information encamped within the walls of the Temple chambers piled high with "sysce." This large percentage of the population pauof the supreme court whose hobby is his-

have been relieved by the allies. But at hobbies.

that time the soldiers were in want of and, although it tried him sorely, he carried was minted in the form of a shoe. Such is only drawback being the desire of the out his orders until one day a patrol the custom today. This is a fair example of guards and wandering soldiers to make brought before him nine coolies who had the desire of the Chinese to adhere to the them surrender their more valuable articles. American Measures Too Severe.

caught in the act of looting in their district. In the Japanese district the Chinese were given to understand that they were privileged to loot and in fact they were protected by the Japanese guards while doing so. What was more natural for a Chinese

teenth infantry, a young officer who had word is the Chinese for women's shoes, and receiving the protection of the guards, he the office of chief of police of the American government mints existed debts were paid executions took place before the Chinese

Kilbourne was a good soldier, ernment mints were established the sliver districts they were allowed a free hand, the learned to avoid that portion of the city guarded by American soldiers. In other ## called upon Chaffee and with marked pocovered with perspiration. There were some Pekin and placed a prince of their own What were some of the valuables to be liteness and great deference requested the permission of the American general to ex- next morning and shot.

on sale-

designs-worth $1.00-

for .... .... .... ....

Chaffee expressed his willingness to coming that he was being hoodwinked, and the next day our patrols were shortened himself quite a connoisseur of pottery and loitering in sparsely guarded districts to all ancient Chinese ware.

One of the most striking features of the him of his load and, incidentally, if he relooters by the allies. As has been said his heart with a sword's point. before, the Americans shot all Chinamen looter than to wander across the Japanese border into our territory, where, instead of was promptly placed under arrest and shot without the semblance of a trial. Several

French. Alas for Li Hung Chang's beauti- order to maintain life. ful recollection of porcelain. The marines Unquestionably many lawless Chinese