Southern Rider Makes Another Hurricane Finish in Boston Bicycle Races.

GOUGOLTZ IS COMPELLED TO LEAVE TRACK

Sturdy French Wheelman Has Bad Fall, Which Results in a Serious Fracture of the Kneepan.

BOSTON, Jan. 1-In hurricane style Bobby Walthour again finished first in another day. the second of the six-day bicycle race at Park Square Garden. Fischer's closing sprint was such a surprise that he caught the other riders napping and came very near finishing in first place. He had been plodding along behind the bunch when, at the pistol report for the last mile, he ped alled out into a good lead, making the others work hard to overtake him. The score at the end of the twentith hour and second day was as follows:

Gougoltz Loses Seventeen Laps.

Gougoliz, whose knees bothered him, dismounted at 2:07 to get a rubdown and lost seventeen laps. A number of times later he sprinted to win back the lost ground, closely followed by Downey, but the pair would gain half a lap on the bunch and then be caught again. The only excitement was the tumble of Fredericks, McEachern, McLean and Babcock at 3 o'clock. Mc-Eachern struck on a chair, injuring himself in the abdomen, but returned to the track later. McLean, Fredericks and Babcock were only off fifteen minutes. During the afternoon Ryser and Accoutrier retired from the contest, neither of them being able to continue. Excepting Downey, no rider remained on his wheel all the afternoon, ing. During the first hour Fredericks was behind the leaders. Walthour led at the end of the hour with 231 miles 5 laps to his score. Stinson, McEachern, McLean, Downey, Kaser and Fischer had the same score. Gougoltz from the first rank had retired to ; tor of St.-Joseph's Roman Catholic church the second division, his score dropping to 229 miles 4 laps.
