CATTLE—There was a very light run of cattle at the yards Tuesday and the market as a whole was not far from steady. There were no strictly choice beef cattle on sale, but the better grades of those offered sold at just about steady prices with Monday. Some of the commoner kinds and such as did not suit the buyers in some cases sold for a little less than the same kind brought the day before. Any thing at all good, however, del not show much chappe and the yards were cleared in good season. Cow buyers were all looking for supplies and the choice bunches sold early at steady to stronger prices. The trade was fairly active on all kinds and the bulk of the offerings changed hands at just about the steady prices. Bulls, calves and stags sold without material change.

without material change.

There were hardly any stock cattle in the yards and not enough to make a test of the market. The few odds and ends that were on sale brought steady prices. That would apply not only to steers but to stock cows and helfers and to stock calves and bulls as

E. G. to secure Debs, Herron, possibly James Solomon, chief clerk of the tax department, Whitcomb Riley and others. explains this circumstance by saying that the assessed valuation in many instances is not a twentieth of the actual valuation. That it is not increased is due to the fact 7.171 60 that an augumentation would result in the South Dakota, Southwestern Minnesota and county paying more than its share of the state taxes. Estimating the county's assessed valuation at one-seventh of its actual value, the actual value would be time. about $150,000,000. The bonded indebtedness
