

Police Still Hope to Find the Cudaby Kidnaperz.

Millard, president of the Omaha National bank, died yesterday at the family resi-J. J. CROWE IS NO LONGER A FACTOR dence, 2406 Harney street. She had been ill for several years and death came as a Chief Donahue's Men Are Trying to Locate the Blacksmith Who Shod the Pony-Gold Not Marked.

to lowa with her parents, who settled at Now that J. J. Crowe is eliminated from Davenport, where she grew to womanhood. the kidnaping case, the police are giving It was in that city that she met Mr. Milmost of their attention to the pony re- lard, to whom she was married in the fall cently brought up from Pacific Junction. of 1860.

ATTENTION CENTERS ON PONY DEATH OF MRS. J. H. MILLARD

Well Known Omaha Woman Expires After a Lingering Illness.

Mrs. Caroline Millard, wife of Joseph H.

relief from severe suffering that lasted several months and destroyed the hopes of

Mrs. Millard, who was Caroline Barrows before her marriage, was born at Newark, N. J., in 1837, and while a child was brought

Mrs. Millard had but two children, Wil-

Last year 109,303 cases were imported of the relatives and friends of the sufferer.

/]

/]

1

1

Detective Heitfeld took it in charge early Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. yesterday morning and began a canvass of Millard moved to Omaha, where they have the blacksmith shops in South Omaha with resided for nearly forty years. Mrs. Mila view to finding out if possible where the lard was always devoted to her husband, animal was shod. It is known to a cerher children and her home and lived much tainty that this pony was shod after it of her life in the quiet family circle. She passed into the hands of the kidnapers, as was a woman of culture and the influence it had no shoes on its front feet when Dan- of her character was appreciated by all iel Burris disposed of it. those with whom she came in contact.

"A peculiar fact about the shoes on that For some years Mrs. Millard was promsaid Chief Donohue yesterday, inent among the workers of the Woman's "Is that hind shoes were put on its front club. No woman in Omaha has ever been feet. It is shod all around now with hind more closely identified with or more genshoes, front feet and all. The job also has grous to the various charity undertakings the appearance of having been done hur- in the city than the deceased. She was one riedly, as the boofs are not trimmed up as of the largest individual contributors to the neatly as is usually the case with work Clarkson Memorial hospital and a conturned out of a first class shop. Still, there stant and liberal giver to the Old Ladies' is no doubt but that this job was done by Home, the Flower Mission, the Associated a practical blacksmith. Charities, the Creche and many other char-'Only one of the shoes bears the union itable institutions.

label, but this is not evidence that it was put on in a union shop. lard D. Millard and Jessie Millard, both of whom live in Omaha. The only other surviving relatives of the deceased, aside 'Our object in trying to find the shop in from the bereaved husband, are B. H. Barwhich the job was done is to see if we can get a description of the man or men who rows, a brother, and Sarah, J. Barrows, a sister, who also reside in this city. took the pony there and had the work done. The funeral will be held at the family What we want especially is a description of residence at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. someone besides Crowe. We have descripwith Rev. Edward R. Jonks, pastor of the tions of him galore, but we are short on de-First Presbyterian church, as officiating scriptions of the other men in the case; they appear to have kept pretty well in the minister. background. Highest Champagne Record.

Want Better Description.

pony."

1.3

"The reports from Dallas, Tex.," resumed the chief, "relative to the ransom money G. H. Mumm's Extra Dry; in eleven months being marked, are fakes. At least, so far in 1900 this quantity was exceeded, being as I know, the money was not marked, and 72,169 cases more than any other brand. so far as I know no notices have been sent Specia' attention is called to the remarkout from here to banks throughout the able quality now imported. United States and Canada to be on the lookout for it. Mr. Cudaby has repeatedly denied the rumor that the gold was marked and I don't think it was, as they didn't have time to mark it, even if they had wanted to. "The report that Vie McCarty is in this case is absurd. He knows he is wanted here and he wouldn't come back to this country to engage in a kidnaping or any other venture."

KANSAS SHERIFF HAS A CLUE.

Leastwise There is a Suspicious Character Loafing About. In the bosom of more than one sheriff and police officer in districts as far away as the ends of telegraphic communication Dr. Mittlestadt has returned after ten days' vacation. and newspaper circulation grows a well developed longing for a slice of the $25,000 S. R. Elson and family of Grand Island are at the Her Grand. Cudahy reward and the fame of catching James Fitzsimmons, an attorney from Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city, the kidnapers. This was indicated by a telegram Sheriff Power received Wednesday Councilman C. O. Lobeck is sick with meumonia at his home, 1622 Spencer street from William Walker, jr., sheriff of Sherman county, Kansas. This official lives at Florian Cajori, professor of mathematics in Colorado college, located at Colorado Springs, visited the Omaha schools yester-day. Goodland, a place of about 600 inhabitants. His message to the sheriff reads like this; "There is a suspicious character here; shall I arrest him or what shall I do with him? He might be one of the Cudahy kidnapers." The sheriff answered the communication instructing him to let the man go, as he is not wanted here. "Do you know that down in some of the out-of-the-way countles," said a deputy in the sheriff's office, "there are sheriffs and

George A. Joslyn, president of the West-ern Newspaper Union, has returned home from a several weeks' business trip in New York. Miss Ruby Douglas and Mrs. Frank Tier-ney are among the Omaha society contin-gent at the state capital to attend the insuguration ball. It is attend the considerable doubt as to what professions came within the provisions of the law. Dr. T. P. Mahammitt, city inspector of weights and measures, and Mrs. Mahammitt have returned from St. Joseph, where they spent the holidays.

Omaha's New Wholesale Dry Goods House

XXX

RESENTS FOR INSPECTION TO THE TRADE OF THE WEST AND NORTHWEST THE LARGEST NEW WHOLE-

Dry Goods, Notions and Furnishing Goods

THAT HAS EVER BEEN OPENED IN A WESTERN JOBBING HOUSE. EVERYTHING ENTIRELY NEW IN ALL LINES OF BOTH FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC GOODS. CALL AND SEE US WHEN IN OMAHA AND SEND US YOUR ORDERS DIRECT OR THROUGH OUR SALESMEN.

ploye Faces the Court

for Hearing.

door to the usual manner.

by the assistant district attorney.

Crow, the first witness called for the gov

Weather Review for December.

Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods Co. OMAHA

TAX COMMISSION MEN Diamond Rings Misplaced. Mrs. Thomas D. Crane, wife of an Omaka attorney, lost three valuable diamond rings on a Rock Island passenger train, while enroute from Lincoln to ber home in this eity Wednesday night. Mrs. Crane removed the rings from her finger while in the toilet room and did not replace them Whan she discovered their loss a careful search failed to disclose their whereabcuts. Mr. Crane has offered a reward for the return of the diamonds, and in his search for them will be assisted by the secret service depart-ment of the Rock Island. Diamond Rings Misplaced. TO pay the tax for the current year, but the tax and penalty for the three years since the law went into effect. This will mean Uncle Sam Reaches Out for Additional the mulcting of every broker in the sum of Revenue. $275, $225 being back tax and penalty. An enforcement of the agent's opinion would mean that many of the weaker con-SOUTH OMAHA IS DEEPLY INTERESTED cerns on several of the markets would go out of business, as some of them can ill afford to take on any additional expenses. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Brokers Decline to Pay Tax Imposed It would have no effect in this particular and Special Agent Garner Has at South Omaha, Kansas City or Chicago, James M. Chadwick of Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city.

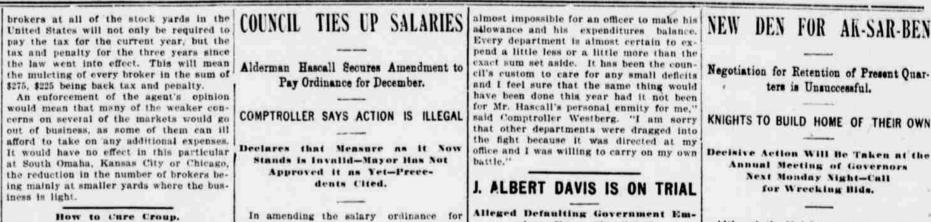

Referred the Matter to Hendquarters.

How to Cure Croup.

Dr. J. N. Garner, special internal revenue agent, has referred to the authorities at Washington a matter which means much to lain's Cough remedy is the best medicine the cattle commission men of South Omaha and a decision upon which is awaited with remedy for croup and never fails to cure." interest by the parties involved in all parts When given as soon as the child becomes of the country. At the time the revenue act went into has developed, it will prevent the attack. effect it provided for a tax of $50 per year This should be borne in mind and a bottle upon all brokers, but the law did not define of the Cough remedy kept at hand ready the word and since that time there has been for instant use as soon as these symptoms considerable doubt as to what professions appear. For sale by all druggists.

Garner has recently been sent to Omaha and almost as soon as he arrived he took up the matter of the tax upon brokers.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamber-which invalidated it in the opinion of City Comptroller John N. Westberg. The ordi I have ever used. It is a fine children's nance has not been approved by Mayor Moores and it is not known whether he will sign it. Mr. Westberg believes the ordinance hoarse, or even after the croupy cough is void and says he is not sure that he will draw warrants unless a new ordinance is passed. Councilman Hascall secured an amend ment to the measure on the ground that the money set aside for each department of the city government is a special fund and so much money for the general fund each year and the council apportions this money

does not create a special fund for each office. He maintains that it is within the power of the council to give any depart-set aside.

ment all the money it sees fit, in spite of

The city charter provides that the comp

troller's office shall have only $5,000 a year provided for an expenditure in excess of this amount, and Councilman Hascall obcember pay roll were passed. The deficit

be paid from this fund and not from the ganaral fund

Although the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben have paid the rent and retained possession of

Negotiation for Retention of Present Quarters is Unsuccessful.

KNIGHTS TO BUILD HOME OF THEIR OWN

Annual Meeting of Governors

Next Monday Night-Call

for Wrecking Bids.

the Coliseum for January, it will be neces-The trial of J. Albert Davis, a government sary for them to seek a new den within employe accused of being short in his acthe next few weeks. William G. Ure, one of the new owners of the Coliscum, yescounts, began yesterday in the federal court. Assistant District Attorney S. R. Rush in terday declared that bids for the demoliopening the case for the government stated tion of the old structure would be adverthat January 16, 1900, Richard Phoenix, tised for in a few days and that the wreckclerk in charge of station B, was removed ing work would begin early next month.

because of a shortage in his accounts. Davis The committee of Ak-Sar-Ben governors was placed in charge of the office and appointed several weeks ago to negotiate subsequently received the funds from for a new lease of the Coliseum or to conthat the salaries for each department should Phoenix, which the latter had taken while sider and report upon plans for a new clerk. Mr. Ruch said Davis was instructed location, will be heard from at the annual to send the Phoenix funds to the central enting of the ge s, to be held at the

the reduction in the number of brokers being mainly at smaller yards where the business is light who stay up all night searching rail road yards, scrutinizing tramps in quest of a man who resembles Pat Crowe, and dreaming visions of what they will do with the $25,000 when they land the right man. You could not convince one of the men that they are not going to make the arrest, because they have it all mapped out with themselves that destiny is going to direct Crowe right into their arms, and then you tnow a man likes to plan spending large sums of money whether he ever gets it or not. I'm next to these fellows; I used to be there myself."

Aunonneements of the Theaters.

This evening at Boyd's theater Walker Whiteside will present Paul Kester's Marray dramatization of "Eugene Aram," in which Mr. Whiteside is said to find the means of manifesting his strongest powers as an actor. "Heart and Sword" will be repeated at the matinee tomorrow and "Hamlet' will be given Saturday night.

Miss Louie Raymond of the Castellar school and Miss Florence Maynard of the Franklin school are not teaching this week on account of sickness. the market, he decided that they were

Charles F. House o. Helvey has been ap-pointed messenger in the Weather bureau of the Agricultural department and assigned to duty at Omaha. He reported for duty vesterday lector notified them to pay, but they demurred, claiming to be exempt. The col-yesterday. Fred J. Byington, a Northwestern train dispatcher at Ashland, Wis., is in the city for a short visit with friends. Mr. Byington was formerly connected with the Union Pacific and has a number of friends among lector consented to refer the matter to headquarters pending payment and the communication of the revenue agent, with the Pacific and has a number of friends among the railroad men of this city. James H. Quigley, E. E. Mockett and F. H. Dunham of Lincoln, Isaac Shepherds and George Shepherds of Riverton, James Bell of David City, Sam Long of South Bend, John R. Pierson of Union and C. Weber of Spalding are Nebraskans at the Marray.

Big Money Involved.

Marray. Nebraskans at the Merchants: C. R. Gustavson and P. F. Cahill of St. Edward, Z. D. Teator and J. N. Edwards of Lyon, G. H. Davidge of Lincoln, J. R. Burks of Beatrice, Harry Dunkin of Gibbon, H. C. McCord of Schuyler, E. D. Welker of Cedar Rapids and W. E. Gowen of North Loup. Hig Money Involved. The amount involved exceeds $8,000 at South Omaha alone and a decision sustain-ing the position of the revenue agent will add several millions of dollars to the govern-ment treasury as commission men or cattle

Scarlet fever has been quarantined 2210½ Howard street. When he went to South Omaha and invest The city has issued engineers' licenses to wenty-four applicants. men, of whom there are about thirty upon

A case of diphtheria has been reported from 114 South Twenty-cighth street. to the different offices in the city hall. Mr. Westberg holds that this apportionment Edward D. Geoghegan, for some years bookkeeper for Farrell & Co., has suc-ceeded E. E. Andrews as general manager f the business.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Coterie club, composed of a number of Omaha ministers, met at the Millard hotel last night and enjoyed a pleasant two hours of story telling. Millard the fact that the sum exceeds that originally

An unruly gasoline stove caused a small ire in the rooms above J. Treitschke's sa-oon at 501 South Thirteenth street Thursafternoon. The damage was nominal for clerk hire. The December ordinance Frank Wilson pleaded guilty in police court yesterday to stealing three pocket-books from a counter in Hayden Bros-store Wednesday. He was given ten days in the county jail. jected and moved to strike the comp-troler's salary list from the ordinance. Councilman Mount objected on the ground Mrs. A. F. Elliott, who has been one the most prominent workers in the Woman's Christian association, is very in at her home, 2253 Pierce street. She is su fering with rheumatism. that the treasurer's office and the city en gineer's office were also beyond their ap portionment. The result was that the sal-

During the year of 1900, there were 657 patients cared for in the Presbyterian hos-pital. On January 1, the number of pa-tients in the hospitals was thirty-one, furty two persons died in the hospital during the year. gineer and the treasurer, but they were cut Omaha; Dillon's drug store, South Omaha.

E. W. Leonard, the waiter in Fritz Wirth's, at Tenth and Harney streets, who and gave him a "doctored' receipt for it, was discharged in police court yesterday. The evidence failed to show that he had any dishonest intent.

show that the account of the city engineer John Hahn and Herman Dietrick, charged would be overdrawn $20.70 in case the Dc-with stealing a quantity of brass fittings from the machinery in the engine room of the Withnell Bros. & Smith Co, brick yard at Twenty-second street and the Union Pacific tracks Thursday afternoon, were arrested by Patrolman Devereese. Mrs. E. F. Lowrey, who occupies flat 4 in the Davidge block, reports to the police that someone entered her apartment Wednesday by using a key, and stole a goid and silver thimble. They broke open a child's bank and looted it of a handful of nickels, but scorned to take the pennies, of which there were 45 cents' worth. The case of H. J. Whitmore receiver. ith stealing a quantity of brass which there were 45 cents' worth. The case of H. J. Whitmore, receiver, against C. A. Reimer, strowing out of the failure of the First National bank of Ne-ligh, has been dismissed. Reimer is one of the men convicted of fraud in the matter of the failure of the bank, and is now out on bond pending a decision on a motion for a setting aside of the verdict of the jury. He was formerly president of the institution. $179.25. ance by $187.34.

jury. He institution. Friday evening at Tempel Israel the regu

"Elijah" evening. The solos, quartettes and musical program generally will be selections from Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah," and the text of the lecture by Dr. Simon will be, "He Took Up the Mai-tle of Elijah," the address dealing with thoughts inspired by the coming of the new year.

out of their pay feel that the council has not dealt justly with them and insist that year. The next regular meeting of Unity club will be held at the residence of Miss Rooney, 708 North Nineteenth street, this evening. The program will consist of a continuation of the study of Atlyans. The Delian Confederacy will be the special feature of the meeting and the legislative institutions will be treated by the following papers: "The Boule, or Senate." Henry Farmer: "The Ekklesia." J. Irving Read: "The Remedy for Unconstitutional Legis-lation." J. J. Boucher. all departments which are beyond their apportionments should have been treated the same. The city engineer was of the opinion that he was safely within his allowance. but some bills which had been carried over departments is only an estimate and it is

Weather Review for December. L. A. Weish, local forecast official, has issued the meteorological summary for the month of December, 1900. It shows the highest atmospheric pressure to have been 30.61 on the 9th, the lowest 29.25 on the 22d and the mean for the month 30.10. The mean temperature was 32 degrees, the high-est 63 on the 17th and the lowest 2 below zero on the 31st. The mean temperature for the corresponding month in 1899 was 26 de-grees; in 1888 and 189, 22 degrees. The mean temperature for December for thirty years is shown at 27 degrees. The total precipita-tion for lart month was .46 of an inch, while the average precipitation in December for thirty years has been 94 of an inch. Thir-teen days of the month were clear, six were partly cloudy and twelve were cloudy. The total snowfall for December was 3.4 inches. in the treasurer's office would be $772.45 and the comptroller's allowance would be overdrawn $257. But these are not the only departments that have exceeded their allowance. The money apportioned for the maintenance of the city hall has been exhausted and $1,508.16 in addition will be necessary to meet the deficit. The legal department has overstepped its mark The office of the inspector of weights and measures is short $26.09 and Most Peoplethe police court has exceeded its allow

Know a good thing when they see it-The comptroller insists that even the it doesn't take an expert shoe man to council has exceeded its own appropriation see the value that we give in our and has a deficit of $140. This amount was misses' $1.50 shoes-made of light weight calf and heavy dongola upperswith a sole that is just thick enough to keep the feet dry and warm and at the same time have a neat, dressy appearance-made with the popular toes on the foot form last gives them the wearing comfort of the higher priced shoes.

"The apportionment of funds to different station, which he failed to do. On the con-Omaha club next Monday night. It is known that nearly all of the members of trary, the assistant district attorney said. Davis sent to Phoenix for the combination | the committee favor the crection of a large to the safe, which he received after some, wooden structure near the center of the delay. Charles Grow, relief clerk, took city for the exclusive use of the Knights, charge of the office the following morning, and such an undertaking will undoubted!prior to the arrival of Davis, and when be recommended. Davis came and opened the safe the The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben are not in Phoenix funds were found missing. Mr.

the least disturbed over the situation, inasmuch as their finances are in excellent Rush said there were no marks on the safe or the doors of the room to indicate they shape and they are able to operate on an independent basis. had been forced and it was evident the man who took the money must have entered the Drexel Shoe Co., Catalogue Sent Free for the Asking.

Omata's Up-to-date Shee House. *419 FARNAM STREET.

Our Bicycle Man-

wants to point out to you that many stoves and ranges have been in constant use from twenty-five to forty years-The secret of their durability is that their owners replace repairs when repairs are needed-and after you select a range or furnace it is not criminal carclessness to ruin it for want of a few repairs-but it is very close to it-and with our stock of a million and a balf pounds of stove castings you have no possible excuse for neglecting them. OMAHA STOVE REPAIR WORKS

Telephone 960. 1207 Douglas Si

tion room of the Creche at 10:30 o'clock with renewed energy. The Omaha Woman's fortunate. Miss Margaret Evans of St. ness the monthly business was discharged. The treasurer reported several contribu-tions of money, the largest of which was a donation of $140 from the Shriners, the others being from members of the board and friends of the institution. The ma-tron's report showed a splendid list of do-nations of provisions and clothing, also of toys and candy for the Christmas tree. The yearly business was then taken up. Mrs. James Van Nostrand presided in place of the president, Mrs. T. I. Kimball, who was prevented by illness from attend-ing and who wrote an explana-tory letter, which was read. The matron reported 383 children cared for dur-The treasurer reported several contribu- The petition reads as follows: matron reported 383 children cared for durshowed an "expense for their care of $1 .-531.69, $1,217.33 having been received for their board. The entire cost of the main-$2.318.59. The election of the new board of managers followed. Mesdames T. L. Kimball, James Van Nostrand, Guy How-A. Walker and P. O. Haws being elected for three years: Mesdames H. Gifford, G. M. Hitchcock, C. W. Lyman, E. M. Fairfield and Miss Barrow for twenty-eight years ago with a membership two years and Mesdames J. L. Brandels, of twenty-eight women, it still continues to Thomas Kilpatrick, Herman Kountze, M. O. Maul and G. T. Anderson for one year. The board unanimously elected as its officers for eight-Mesdames Heimrod, Courier, E. Rosethe coming year: President, Mrs. T. L. water, Cahn, F. Metz, Groutley, Batterton Kimball; vice president, Mrs. James Van and Huberman. The society was organized Nostrand; secretary, Mrs. Guy Howard:

treasurer, Mrs. P. O. Haws. Though the Creche has been unfortunate in several respects during the last year the board expressed much satisfaction at the generous response of its friends in casioned by sickness among the children. ganizations or private cases. They especially appreciate the assistance of Miss Clara Goudy who, when two months ago the board deemed it advisable to semild cases of scarlet fever, went into quar- sixteen and meets every two weeks. Its antine with the two children until they Creche less than one-half the usual re- enable the women to materially assist the course and I wish to congratulate the peomuneration for her professional services. Under ordinary circumstances the institttion would be nearly self-supporting.

With Mrs. B. M. Stoutenborough of

Thursday morning, fourteen members be- club has drawn up a petition which is being Paul, vice president of the General Federaing present. Previous to the annual bust- circulated by its members, who have al- tion of Woman's clubs, was also present ready secured several hundred signatures, and spoke. Mrs. Sangster's subject was "The Outlook of the Twentieth Century Girl," and over 900 women were privileged to hear her speak upon that subject, of which she writes so ably. The invitation of the Council Bluffs Woman's club to its monthly meeting and reception held tonight at the home of Mrs. Montgomery, in Council Bluffs, includes the escorts as well as the members of the household economics' department of the Omaha club. Another effort is being made to organize an Audubon society among the women of gent person has refused to sign the pe-Omaha. Though no definite arrangements year. The treasurer's report tition, the benefits to be derived from its have been made the promoters will meet success being generally recognized. some time next week and notices will later be issued advising all interested persons Miss Helen Woodsmall will return from of the plan for organizing. tenance of the institution for the year was Indianapolis Saturday and will open the gymnasium classes of the Young Women's Christian association Monday evening.

terian church six young women, dressed in becoming white and black gowns and dainty One of the oldest woman's societies of white caps, were granted their certificates the city is the Coffee Clatch, or Coffee of graduation from the Presbyterian hos-Party, as it is now called. Organized pital's training school for nurses. The graduates were Misses Hilleve Westberg. Ellen Higgias, Eva Head and Minnie Dickmeet every two weeks on Thursday afterenson and Mesdames Elizabeth Dunbar and noon, though its members now number but Olga Sampson. venson addressed the class and the diplofor charity, each member paying 10 cents at each meeting and the time being devoted to sewing for needy cases while the money was used wherever help was needed. This winter the women have given up the 10cent tax, but continue to sew and give making up the extra expense and loss oc- the garments to hospitals, charitable or-

The Friday club was organized thirteen years ago and is conducted on the same those of the self-sacrificing nurses, who plan as the Coffee Party. It is composed devote their lives to relieving the suffercure a professional nurse to care for two of Jewish women, having a membership of ings of mankind. object is also charity and added to a 10- who are devoting your lives to a noble had entirely recovered, and charged the cent tax the proceeds of a birthday tax profession upon the completion of your from their contributions of garments, which nurses well versed in medical science, " said are made at the meettings.

The success of the West End Woman's usefulness. I will not wish you happiness, Plattsmouth, Mrs. L. L. Ricketts of Lin- club of Chicago in securing Mrs. Margaret for people who have found their work coin and Mrs. H. C. Towne of Omaha as E. Sangster to address them last Friday are always happy."

mas were presented by Rev. Stevenson on behalf of the hospital staff. All the pupil nurses of the hospital, dressed in their uniforms, occupied seats in the front of the church, immediately behind where the graduates sat. "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" was the theme of Rev. Hawley's address. After reviewing the simple story of the lowly Nazarene he compared His ministrations to

Rev. T. S. Hawley and Rev. R. M. Ste-

Last night at the Westminster Presby-

"I wish to congratulate you young women charitable organizations of the city, aside ple of Omaha who are to be cared for by Rev. Stevenson, as he handed the graduates their diplomas. "May you rejoice in your piano that is insomparable with any other plano made-Give us an early call and let us show you our specially selected stock of these instruments-We have the leading planos-the best prices and the easiest terms-Don't fail to consult with us before you purchase-We

is an instrument that can be fully relied on-its many advantageous points

in construction-its costly veneers-its lasting tone quality-its easy touch-its unquestioned durability - make it a

The Kimball Piano—

can give you the best for the least money.

> A. HOSPE, Musin and Art. 1613 Douglas swelled his expenditures.

expended by the city clerk on behalf of the council and was used in the purchase of liturgical ceremony will give place to pecial New Year service. It will be a lijah" evening. The solos, quartetter supplies. Councilman Hascall says that this sum should not have been charged to the council and maintains that the alderby men have kept safely within prescribed bounds.

Officers in the city hall who have been cut