The plaintiff complains of the defendant and alleges that for purposes of injuring the plaintiff in his business published in our city papers the following defamatory and libelous matter of and concerning the and liberous matter of and concerning in-plaintiff, to-wit:

"The official court records do not show that Mr. Mosher was ever appointed re-porter for one day. He attempted to re-port two only, and was nover called again, and who.

'Mr. Mosher knew nothing of the Gregg system a year ago.

"At the end of two months Miss Van Dusen left the Omaha Commercial college with three others by reason of Mr. Mosher's incompetency in the Gregg syssaid libelous and defamatory matter he said libelous and defamatory matter so published was false and intrue, and as published with malice against the plaintiff and for the purpose of injuring him in his profession. He therefore claims damages in the sum of $5.000, a settlement of this suit the following has been signed and placed on record by Mr. Ong in the district court:

a the District Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, ss.:

Nebraska, ss.: Fred W. Mosher, Plaintiff, Stipulations Anderson C. Oner, Pelaintiff.

Anderson C. Oner, Defendant.

The parties agree as follows: The defendant admits that the allegations of the phintiff's petition are true, and now confesses judgment in favor of the plaintiff for the matter complained of in said plaintiff's petition in the sum of $1.99, and now agrees that the court may render judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the said defendant in the sum of $1.99 and all the costs of this action.

CLAIRVOYANTS. CONCERNING the government "the signs of the times" indicate what the future will be and concerning "life" the signs are equally as perceptible. They point into the future with even more accuracy. It is a well known fact that persons versed in the philosophy of government depend wholly upon the signs of the times in forming their conclusion when making a prediction depends, of course, upon the a prediction depends, of course, upon the ability and judgment of the prognosticator. The accuracy of a life reading depends entirely on the capabilities of the life reader or palmist.

If the palmist can interpret the index, which is the lines in the palm, the reading cannot be otherwise than absolutely accurate. Every line the palm contains has its significance and when interpreted properly points to some future event.
