PRESIDENT RIPLEY ANSWERS QUESTIONS

Gives Freely His Views on Organization Among Workmen—Would Rather Shut Down Santa Fe Than Compel Men to Work.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—The first formal meeting of the committee on conciliation and arbitration, which was appointed by the National Civil Federation December 15, 1900, at a meeting held in Chicago for that purpose, was held here today.

Discussion was also held on the organization of the committee. The important question of the committee was for the purpose of discussing plans for the selection of a national arbitration and conciliatory board, which is to act, if so desired by the employer and employe, in all matters of dispute affecting both parties interested.

The next meeting of the committee will be held in Chicago on March 8. It was decided to send out the committee report on the organization of the committee.

WESTERN CIRCUIT IS ABOUT SETTLED

Disposition of Indianapolis is the Only Point Left Open and It Will Soon Be Decided Upon for Good.

Just in order to evade the accusation of rubbing it in, the Bee will merely call attention to the fact that it has steadily declared that what has happened would happen. All signs of a base ball war have disappeared and the magnates are moving swiftly to get ready for the spring campaign.

It is a good thing that the magnates of the American league in wiping the National out of existence vanished as quickly as it sprang up and the other, which was to aid the National in running the American out of its feet died as quickly.

Good Time at St. Joseph

There was quite a lovely time down at the St. Joseph meeting last week. Everybody went home satisfied that the local papers are to be believed. Mr. Hickey declined to give out any information for the benefit of the public, but each of his colleagues have talked enough for two since.

Bill Bourke's Next Team

With the circuit made up comes the question of players. Papa Bill Bourke tells he has a bunch of likely youngsters already on the list, and that he will show the Omaha people as nice a collection of colts as ever scampered across grass when the opening day comes.
